RECREATION, ADEQUATE AS TO KIND AND AVAILABILITY.

Although the ratio of park acreage to population has been used as the simplest measure of the extent to which cities provide areas for the recreation of their people, it is by no means an accurate basis for determining this. If most of the total acreage is in one large park, if the parks are poorly distributed, or if they do not provide various types of recreation facilities, the park system may be inefficient even though the acreage is large. The efficiently planned park and recreation system will involve balanced relationship and well-distributed location of several types of properties, namely, children's playgrounds, neighborhood playfield parks, neighborhood parks, reservations, boulevards, and parkways.

DETAILED ESTIMATES

The accompanying detailed estimates show the ranks and salaries of all permanent and temporary personnel in actual employment on January 1, 1934, separated for each school, department and activity. The vacancies reported by the Superintendent of Schools as at January 1, 1934, are shown separately as are the expansion items recommended by the Board of Apportionment and approved by the School Committee. The allowance for supplies for each school, department or activity is recorded. These detailed estimates contain approximately three thousand items exclusive of totals and afford the opportunity of studying school costs in great detail as they present a collection of facts properly organized and classified for presentation and discussion. Classification by ranks and by salaries of all permanent and temporary personnel enables the School Committee and its officers to give information on salaries of teachers and others which is being sought constantly by boards of education, educational associations and other agencies throughout the country.

APPROPRIATION ORDER

I recommend the passage of the accompanying order appropriating the sum of $13,650,816.00, to provide for the maintenance of the Boston Public Schools covering the cost of administration, instruction, supervision of instruction, promotion of health, custodians' services, fuel and light, supplies and incidentals; and for sundry other services and expenses, exclusive of "Alterations, Repairs, Furniture and Fixtures."

SUMMARIZED APPROPRIATIONS FOR 1934 AND 1933.

	General School Purposes and Special Items.	Alteration and Repair of School Buildings, Furniture and Fixtures.	New School Buildings, Lands, Yards, Etc.	Totals.
1. Appropriations for 1933	$14,095,946.24	$1,009,260.84	$124,938.56	$15,230,145.64
2. Appropriations for 1934	13,650,816.00	1,091,746.59	394,692.25	15,137,254.84
3. Decrease in appropriations, 1934	$445,130.24	*$82,485.75	*$269,753.69	$92,890.80

*Increase.

The foregoing table shows that the total amount appropriated last year for maintenance and for new school buildings was $15,230,145.64, and that the scheduled appropriations for 1933 for the same purposes amount to $15,137,254.84—a decrease in appropriations of $92,890.80. Up to the time that this budget went to press the sum of $489,692.25 had been appropriated for lands, plans and construction of school buildings, including administration expenses therefor. In view of the fact that the new West Roxbury high school is to be constructed on Fallon Field, property owned by the city, the School Committee has decided to rescind certain appropriation orders made this year for lands, plans and construction of school buildings and transfer $95,000 from the sum of $100,000 appropriated from the tax levy on April 2, 1928, for a site for a new West Roxbury high school. The effect of this transfer will be to lower the appropriations already made for lands, plans and construction of school buildings amounting to $489,692.25 to the figure of $394,692.25, as set forth in the above table.

APPROPRIATIONS UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF CHAPTER 366 OF THE ACTS OF 1933 AND THE NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL RECOVERY ACT.

In addition to the above appropriations for the year 1934, totaling $15,232,254.84, of which about $14,232,000 will be raised by taxation and the balance obtained from estimated income and unexpended balances of the year 1933, the School Committee at the meeting of February 28, 1934, ordered the expenditure of the sum of $2,000,000 for the construction of new school buildings—$1,200,000 for a new high school in West Roxbury, and $800,000 for a new intermediate school in South Boston. This money had been appropriated by the City Council under the provisions of chapter 366 of the Acts of 1933 on February 26, 1934. The appropriation was approved by the Mayor on February 27, 1934. Of the $2,000,000 appropriated for these two new buildings, it is expected that the U. S. Government will donate to the city, under the provisions of the National Recovery Act, 25 to 30 per cent of all costs, exclusive of land and architect's fees, and the balance will be raised through the sale of bonds by the city as required. The new South Boston intermediate school will be constructed on a site now owned by the city on which are located the Shurtleff and the Clinch Schools. The new West Roxbury high school will be constructed on the upper part of what is now known as Fallon Field which is owned by the City of Boston and operated under the direction of the Park Department.

REDUCTION IN VALUATION AND OTHER ITEMS.

The average valuation on which appropriations for 1933 were based amounted to $1,945,584,733.33. For 1934 the amount is $1,843,744,900—a drop in average valuation of approximately $102,000,000. The estimated income for 1934 as compared with 1933 shows a drop of $85,500. The unexpended balances at the end of 1933 were $210,110 less than the unexpended balances at the end of 1932. The great reduction in average valuation and the reduced income bring about a decrease in appropriating power of over $950,000. Had the general salary reduction not been effected last year the School Committee would have been faced this year with the necessity for a petition for greatly increased appropriating power, not taking into consideration the cost of the annual increments which were disallowed beginning with September 1, 1932.

ITEMS BEARING ON INCREASES IN ESTIMATES AND AS A CONSEQUENCE, INCREASES IN EXPENDITURES.

This year the full effect of the general reduction in salaries that took effect on April 21 of the year 1933 is being felt. Such general reduction in salaries for the year 1934, from January 1 to December 31, approximates $1,945,000. Last year (1933) running from April 21 to December 31, the amount saved by the reduction in salaries was approximately $1,350,000. The difference between the amount saved for the year 1933, on account of the general salary reductions which took effect on April 21, 1933, and the amount saved for the whole of the year 1934 is about $595,000 ($1,945,000-$1,350,000).

In a school system as large as Boston's there are usually, if not always, a substantial number of vacancies existing at any date. In this budget the vacancies are accounted for as existing on January 1, 1934. Practically all of these vacancies are due to deaths, resignations and increased attendance at high schools, the vacancies being covered by temporary teachers pending the filling of them by permanent appointments. On January 1, 1934, there were 107 vacancies in the Latin and day high schools; there were 32 vacancies in elementary and intermediate schools; and 30 vacancies in special schools and classes. These vacancies have to be provided for in the budget. Vacancies are also created when teachers are promoted. Twelve vacancies have been provided for due to promotions.

Due to the N. R. A. code regulations the schools, like all other city departments, are faced with constantly increasing prices for equipment, general supplies and fuel. When competitive bids have been secured it was discovered that some items had increased in price as much as 75 and 80 per cent as compared with prices obtained last year. In some instances prices paid for paper increased 100 per cent over those paid last year. An allowance has been made in this budget for a 25 per cent increase on an average in prices to be paid for equipment, fuel and general supplies. It is hoped that the cost of books will not increase greatly. The fuel expenses have also considerably increased because of the extraordinary consumption during the months of January, February and March, due to extremely cold weather. Costs of making "Alterations and repairs to school buildings," for which a separate budget is made, have also increased, due to the increased cost of materials.

In a large school system there is always considerable of what is known as "slack," and a deduction of $100,000 has been made to cover such "slack." This saving during the year is brought about by teachers resigning on maximum salaries and others taking their places on minimum salaries; also, by the amount saved in making deductions from the salaries of teachers on leave of absence. The amounts deducted fro msalaries of teachers on leave of absence are more than ample to pay their substitutes. Savings are also made because of delayed appointments. Appointments sometimes scheduled for the opening of school are not made until the first of October or later. The deduction of $100,000 takes into consideration the various factors that bring about savings on salaries during the year.

RATIO (SALARIES, PENSIONS, FUEL AND LIGHT AND SUPPLIES)

Of the total amount appropriated in this budget, viz., $13,650,816.00, the division between salaries, pensions, fuel and light, supplies and incidentals is as follows:

(a.)	Salaries of all permanent and temporary personnel	$12,227,215.50
(b.)	Pensions—tax levy only (paid under the provisions of non-contributory pension law in operation prior to the establishment of the contributory Boston Retirement System)	40,833.00
(c.)	Fuel and light, including electric current for power	463,935.00
(d.)	Supplies and incidentals for all purposes	918,832.50
	Total, exclusive of "Alterations, Repairs, Furniture and Fixtures", and "Lands, Plans and Construction of School Buildings" for which separate budgets are made for all items of repairs, construction, etc., including personnel employed by the Department of School Buildings	$13,650,816.00

The above figures show that 89.6 per cent of this budget is for salaries of all permanent and temporary personnel; 0.3 per cent for pensions; 3.4 per cent for fuel and light, including electric current for power; and 6.7 per cent for equipment, supplies and incidental expenses.

Respectfully submitted,
Alexander M. Sullivan,
Business Manager.

FURNISHING ICE FOR DRINKING FOUNTAINS IN PLAYGROUNDS

Dr. Mackey: It seems to me that the School Committee should do something to relieve the situation which will result because of the failure of the city to provide ice for the fountains located on or near the playgrounds which are patronized by great numbers of young children. Water at 70 degrees Fahrenheit is unpalatable. Accordingly, I offer the following:

ORDERED, That the Business Manager be and hereby is requested to report to the School Committee at the next meeting the cost of providing ice for drinking fountains located on the public playgrounds that are wholly or in part under the supervision of the School Committee.

The order passed.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The order laid over at the meeting of May 21, 1934, amending Section 84, paragraphs 6 to 9 of the rules, to provide for the certification and assignment of teachers to other schools or departments for which said teachers originally held certificates, when the services of such teachers are no longer required in the school or department in which they have been serving, was taken up and passed.

The order laid over at the meeting of May 21, 1934, amending Section 308, paragraph 6 of the regulations, making provision for a additional supervisor of bands and orchestras, was taken up and passed.

The order laid over at the meeting of May 21, 1934, amending Section 276, paragraph 2 of the regulations, reducing the period of service as principal of evening or summer school from five to three years, was taken up and passed.

The eighteen orders laid over at the meeting of May 21, 1934, making changes in and additions to the Authorized List of Text Books were taken up and passed collectively and unanimously.

MASSACHUSETTS BAY COLONY.

The first chartered colony in New England, charter granted by Charles I on March 4, 1629. About a year before, a patent had been granted to six prominent men of Dorchester, west of England, among whom was Capt. John Endicott. He sailed in June, 1628, with a party of fifty or sixty persons, arriving in September and settling at Naumkeag, afterward named Salem. In the spring of 1629, the Bay Company fitted out three ships conveying about four hundred persons and arriving at Salem in June. Endicott sent a small party to effect a settlement on the Bay in Mishawum, afterward named by the settlers Charlestown, the first town in New England to assume the town polity, Plymouth and Salem being governed by a governor and council. Endicott was appointed in London as the first resident governor on April 30, 1629. The Massachusetts Bay Company was reorganized in London on October 20, 1629, when John Winthrop was chosen as governor. He arrived at Salem on June 12, 1630, soon proceeded to Charlestown with a large following and finding that place unsuitable, finally settled in Boston. Winthrop served thirteen years as governor in four different periods ending in 1649 and Endicott fifteen years at various times ending in 1665. Other governors were Thomas Dudley, Richard Bellingham, John Haynes, Henry Vane, John Leverett and Simon Bradstreet, the latter serving twelve years until 1692 when the Bay Colony and the Plymouth Colony were merged, becoming the Royal Province of Massachusetts Bay, which existed eighty-two years to 1774, the governors being appointed by the King.

The name, Massachusetts, is Indian and signifies "near the big hills."

A SQUARE DEAL IN ASSESSMENTS FOR TAXATION.

Many cities are finding it greatly to their advantage to have their tax valuations periodically overhauled. The first criterion of any assessment is equity. For every citizen who wants through "pull" or however else to get off easy, there are twenty, nay a hundred, who want a fair and square deal for all.

The appraisal of city real estate is a highly technical affair.

Few things are more important than the equalization of assessments. Particularly in cities that are cramped by an inflexible debt or tax limit, an honest, full value assessment may be a great boon. Without the slightest raise in the tax rate a substantially greater tax yield may be had.

CITY RECORD

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 26. SATURDAY, JULY 7, 1934. NO. 27

HIS EMINENCE WILLIAM CARDINAL O'CONNELL, INDEPENDENCE DAY ORATOR, AT FANEUIL HALL, WARNS OF DANGERS OF AUTOCRACY AND USURPATION OF POPULAR POWER BY SELFISH AND SELF-SEEKING INTERESTS — MAYOR MANSFIELD PRESENTS GUEST OF DAY TO AUDIENCE, CALLING ATTENTION TO THE FACT THAT NEVER BEFORE HAD THE CITY BEEN SO HONORED AS TO HAVE A HIGH PRINCE OF THE CHURCH DELIVER THE ORATION THAT HAS FOR SO MANY YEARS FEATURED THE CELEBRATION OF JULY 4.

Boston's July Fourth celebration was never so signally honored as in this year, 1934, when the city had as its orator guest, his Eminence William Cardinal O'Connell. In presenting Cardinal O'Connell at the exercises in Faneuil Hall, Mayor Mansfield spoke as follows:

In gathering here today in honor of the adoption of the Declaration of Independence the City of Boston is carrying out a custom which has continued unbroken for 150 years. These ceremonies, as you will have noticed on your programs, constitute the 151st observance of our national holiday held under the auspices of the City of Boston.

The first of this long series of public celebrations in honor of the birth of our country was held in 1783, just at the close of the Revolutionary War.

But for twelve years prior to that time it had been the annual custom in Boston for some leading citizen to address the people of the city upon the anniversary of the Boston Massacre, which took place on March 5, 1770. From 1771 to 1783 each year a patriotic and soul-stirring speech was delivered to the citizens of Boston by some one of the early patriots. The first address of that kind in 1771 was delivered by James Lovell. He was followed by Dr. Joseph Warren in 1772, who also was the orator in 1775, and who was killed at Bunker Hill. Other well-known names appearing in the roster of speakers and in addition to Lovell and Warren are John Hancock, Peter Thacher, Thomas Dawes and George Minot.

It will be noticed that although the Declaration of Independence was signed on July 4, 1776, the yearly orations until 1783 were still given upon the anniversary of the Boston Massacre. But beginning with 1783 the annual oration has always been given on July 4th and always in this old hall. Many illustrious men have delivered this oration, such as Dr. John Warren, Thomas Dawes, Harrison Gray Otis, John Quincy Adams, Josiah Quincy, John Lowell, Charles Paine, Lemuel Shaw, Francis C. Gray, Mayor Josiah Quincy, Charles Francis Adams, Charles Sumner, Fletcher Webster, son of the great Daniel, Edward Everett, Oliver Wendell Holmes, Robert C. Winthrop, Henry Cabot Lodge, Charles William Eliot, Thomas J. Gargan, and many others of greater or lesser fame.

Many of these men were statesmen. All of them leaders in civic life. Many were lawyers, some were physicians, and many of them have been representatives of the clergy. Thus we find that the first clergyman orator was the Rev. John C. Palfrey in 1831, to be followed by the Rev. Hubbard Winslow in 1838, the Rev. Thomas Starr King in 1852, the Rev. A. L. Stone and the Rev. L. A. Miner in 1854 and 1855, respectively, the Rev. William R. Alger in 1857, the Rev. Jacob M. Manning, Rev. S. K. Lathrop, Rev. George H. Hepworth in 1865, 1866 and 1867, respectively, the Rev. John F. W. Ware in 1873, Rev. James Freeman Clarke in 1875, Rev. H. Bernard Carpenter in 1883, Rev. A. A. Berle in 1895, Rev. Edward Everett Hale in 1897, Rev. Denis O'Callaghan in 1898, Rev. Edward A. Horton in 1907, Rev. James A. Supple in 1914, Rev. Charles W. Lyons in 1923, and the Rev. Dudley H. Ferrell in 1924.

Representatives of Church.

Thus it will be seen that in the long list of orators representatives of the church have frequently been called upon to deliver the message of patriotism and love of God and of country to the citizens of Boston. And Boston, I suppose, more than any other city in the nation, cherishes and preserves the spirit which moved our predecessors a century and a half ago. Boston follows the injunction of John Adams, who was so carried away by the enthusiasm of the moment when the Declaration of Independence had been signed that he wrote to his constituents in Boston,—

> "It ought to be solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, and games, sports, guns, balls, bonfires, and illumined from one end of the continent to the other, from this time forward for evermore."

Boston may be said to have obeyed this mandate faithfully and literally, because never has a year elapsed without appropriate ceremonies under the auspices of the city, with sports and games and guns and bonfires.

This observance here today in this historic hall, while utterly simple and wholly without pomp, yet may be said to come within the first part of John Adams' injunction. This is a solemnization of the day. It is that part of the entertainment of the day which devotes itself to serious things before adjourning to carry out the remainder of a program of pleasure and of parade.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"
From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

BOSTON'S PUBLIC LIBRARY SYSTEM IS ITS PRIDE AND VAST BENEFIT — LIBRARIAN MILTON E. LORD, DIRECTOR, IN BROADCAST FROM CITY HALL, OUTLINES THE FUNCTIONS OF AND THE PART THE LIBRARY PLAYS IN THE CIVIC LIFE OF CITY — ONE OF BEST INVESTMENTS TAXPAYERS MAKE IN THE EDUCATION AND TRAINING IT FURNISHES — HE FILLS IN FOR MAYOR MANSFIELD IN REGULAR WEEKLY BROADCAST.

In discussing the values of the Boston Public Library, Director Milton E. Lord, in the weekly broadcast, spoke as follows:

Boston has long been proud of its Public Library. It is one of the great library systems of the country. In telling about the working of a great system of this sort, there must first be explained what the system is, particularly as a physical thing. In real property the library consists of thirty-four pieces of land and buildings or parts of buildings in different sections of the city. There is the great Central Library building in Copley square. The city owns also twelve other pieces of real estate occupied either wholly or in part for library purposes, while the other buildings or parts of buildings put to library uses are leased at annual rentals. Some of these buildings are among the chief ornaments of the city. The great Central Library building is a beautiful architectural monument which has given distinction to Boston, and attracts visitors from every part of the world.

From the point of view of personal property, the library is primarily a collection of slightly more than 1,600,000 books. Of these something over 1,000,000 are in the Central Library, and the remainder are in the thirty-three branches throughout the city. The larger branches are considerable libraries in themselves, fully a third of them averaging something over 20,000 volumes each. In the Central Library there are also some 35,000 to 40,000 separate manuscripts, not to mention atlases, maps, photographs, prints, engravings, lantern slides and newspapers in the thousands.

The aggregate commercial value of all this real and personal property devoted to free public library purposes in the City of Boston is at the least considerably in excess of $10,000,000.

Such is the property and plant of the Library System. But it is of value only as it is worked. The books, manuscripts and other material are useless except when they are being read and examined. And the Public Library plant, like every other, should be worked, if it is worth working at all, as nearly as possible to the limit of its capacity. The problem in working the Public Library is to bring its books and other material into the most general and extensive public use within the limit of the amount of money which the taxpayers are willing to pay for that use.

PURPOSE OF LIBRARY.

The taxpayer, then, quite rightly wishes to know what the purpose of his free public library is. The primary purpose of a free public library, supported by taxation, is to give the use of good books and other educational library material to persons who might not otherwise enjoy such use. But it is also of great public importance that a library should within the means at its command afford opportunity for study and research by scholars and students. In doing this the library supplements the work of our public schools and of the university. It places the highest special knowledge at the service of all our citizens without charge and without unnecessary detail or formality. It touches the elementary and common need, and begins with the child who has just learned to read and aids him in school. To most of the graduates of our grammar schools who pass at once into active life, the library stands in place of the high school and of the college. It is to them also the university. In the aggregate of all its services, the Boston Public Library should be, and I believe it is, a system of education for all and free for all.

The distinguishing characteristic of the education given by a public library is that it is not imposed upon the person who has it. Everything that is done by the library is done in response to requests from individuals who ask for that which they each want most. Every one of the five million or so volumes issued by the Boston Public Library for direct home use each year is issued because some particular person wants that book. Every book that is consulted on the premises of the library, be it at the Central Library or at some one of the thirty-three branches, every newspaper consulted, every manuscript, every picture for use is furnished because some particular person has asked for it, presumably because he has some need for it.

What are some of these needs? They speak for themselves. Civil service examinations are to be held to fill vacancies for steamfitters. Immediately that the examinations are announced there come to the library requests for books treating of the specifications for steamfitting from a dozen men, from twenty-five, from even fifty. A man who is nervously prostrated comes to the library to comb books that will afford suggestions for a new occupation for himself. A newly established dressmaker inquires for material on the etiquette of mourning. A young mother inquires for books besides stories for her reading—is there anything on the training of children? There comes a request for a medical book for a young man studying to become an undertaker. A high school student has to write a composition dealing with the treatment of the Indians by the United States Government. The manager of a large department store turns to our Business Branch for data indicating how far stores may be justified in cutting prices because of the installation of a "cash-and-carry" system. A young student of psychology is interested in scientific magazine articles treating of the effect of colors on human conduct. While many individuals pursue, week after week, definite courses of study by themselves in such directions as the history of the Irish and their settlement in America, the origin of the tides, the love of nature in the poetry of Robert Burns and William Wordsworth, the life and work of Leonardo da Vinci, and many others.

SERVICE TO CITIZENS.

In these ways the Boston Public Library serves its primary purpose as a free public library supported by taxation in giving good books to those who would not otherwise have them, and in affording instruction by the intelligent use of books to those who would not otherwise have it. But the Boston Public Library has another purpose not less important to the welfare of the people, though less in the public view, and not so obvious to the public at large. It is a scholar's library, and it is of public importance that it be maintained as such. It is only by the scholar's work that the primary purpose of a public library can be accomplished. Good books do not come by chance. They come only by the work of scholars. To cite only one instance, the scholar writes the text-book that the child studies.

The scholar's work is in few other places more important than in our own City of Boston, which has long been pre-eminent in the work of education. Nearly 100,000 students are this year pursuing their studies either within immediate reach or within easy access of the Central Library building. The teachers in their institutions are scholars, many of them, not only teaching students directly, but working in the preparation of books for students. The work covers language, art, literature, economics, the natural sciences, music, sculpture, the social sciences, applied mechanics, and every other form of intellectual instruction. These institutions of learning not only give dignity and importance to our city, they also aid its material prosperity, and in this respect they are in their way as important as factories and warehouses, railroad and steamship lines, or wharves and docks. Not the least among them is the Boston Public Library, itself quite as valuable a business asset of the city as any of them.

In this sense the library is even something more than an important means of popular education. It provides also material for the work of the scholar without whose work popular education and instruction could not go on. The roll call of its special collections tells the story of ample provision in the past for the scholar. To these great collections the city cannot afford now to show indifference, or even inactive respect. The collections must be kept up, cared for, extended, made more perfect, so that people will continue to come to our city for the purpose of using them. It is good for Boston that men should come to it as they go to Washington, or New York, or Rome, or London, or Paris, that they may find the great books of the world and use them. Boston is bound in honor to keep alive its traditional hospitality towards scholarship. Books for scholars, as well as books for children and books for the people, must be continually acquired. The money spent for such books may be well spent if it brings scholars to Boston for those books and saves them a journey half around the world to find them and use them It may even lead such scholars, as is often the case, to make this city their home, because they can here best find help in research and study.

SUPPORT BY CITIZENS.

The challenge that all this thrusts upon the City of Boston is great. And it has become greater with the heavy increase in the use of the library's facilities which the citizens of Boston have been making during these years of the depression. It is upon the willingness of the citizens of Boston to support the library, with adequate appropriations and direct personal interest, that there depends in large part how well the library can meet the increased demands which are being made upon it.

To its task the library moves gladly, in full realization of what the Public Library and its work mean to the people of Boston. It is fortunate in the loyal support which it has always had from his Honor the Mayor and other city officials. The trustees give freely of their time and interest—such eminent citizens as his Eminence William Cardinal O'Connell, who is this year President of the Trustees; Mr. Frank W. Buxton, editor of the Boston Herald, as vice president; Mr. John L. Hall, of the law firm of Choate, Hall, and Stewart; Mr. Louis E. Kirstein, of William Filene's Sons Company; and Mr. Ellery Sedgwick, editor of the "Atlantic Monthly." Nor should there be overlooked the painstaking care with which each year the Examining Committee performs its work. This body of thirty eminent citizens, appointed each year by the trustees to examine the work of the library, and to report thereon to them, continued a long tradition of citizen interest and support which dates back to the very beginnings of the library in the early eighteen fifties. Finally, the library staff itself finds honor and satisfaction in joining with all sincerely interested in the library, to the end that the Boston Public Library, one of the oldest public libraries in the United States, may be able to stand without a peer in performing its duty.

FOURTH OF JULY ORATION.

Boston has been fortunate in having so many able and illustrious men deliver their annual messages of patriotic fervor to the populace; but, without mitigating in the slightest degree the fame of all past orators, I think my statement will go unchallenged when I say that never in all its long and honorable history have the people of Boston been so honored as they are today by the acceptance of the Mayor's invitation to deliver the Fourth of July oration by his Eminence William Cardinal O'Connell. And no Mayor, I venture to say, has ever occupied a prouder position than that which I now occupy, or lived a happier moment than that which I now enjoy in rising to present to the people of this city the illustrious orator of the occasion.

Universally Loved.

Profoundly respected and universally loved, Cardinal O'Connell is more than a great churchman. He is that, of course, and his long years spent in the service of religion in the Church, culminating as they do in the impressive and touching ceremonies of his jubilee years, have made his name known not in America alone where he is the Dean of the Roman Catholic Hierarchy but throughout the world.

Probably if his Eminence were asked the question as to what part of his life's work gave him the greatest satisfaction he would say that his labors as a humble priest among the meek and the poor and the lowly had given him the most solid and lasting comfort and the realization of arduous duty well done. But his contemporaries might point to other parts of his full and busy life and might say that he was more useful to mankind as a Bishop or as Archbishop of Boston or as Delegate Extraordinary from His Holiness the Pope to the Emperor of Japan.

Throughout his entire career he has shown not only leadership in the Church but astuteness of mind in the affairs of men and of nations.

But over and above all of these wonderful qualities which have endeared him to the people, there is another fine quality in him which equals at least if it does not surpass any of the others, that is his American citizenship,—the quality which makes his selection as the orator of the day peculiarly happy. For Cardinal O'Connell loves America with a deep intense love, and I am sure that he will be remembered and that he will want to be remembered not only as a great leader of the Church and as a great Cardinal but also as a great American citizen.

As Mayor of the City of Boston I am honored to have this opportunity to present to his fellow citizens of Boston, William Cardinal O'Connell, a leader in the Church and in civic life, and a great American citizen.

The Cardinal's address was as follows:

DEMOCRACY — Its Origins, Progress and Dangers.

I am not going to present a formal oration. There will be plenty of oratory today; and although the occasion is worthy even of the most inspired oratory, the times demand of us far more than that. We are the oldest democracy in existence. We are observing this 158th Anniversary of our democracy in times which have tested every other form of government in the world. Our need today is not oratory but thought — clear, honest and deep thought about our form of government; about the origin of Democracy; about its principles and progress; and about its dangers.

We know the meaning of Democracy — a people's government. It is the expression of the people's inherent right to rule. Its origin goes back to God, Himself.

God made man to His own image and likeness and placed him in the Paradise that He had made, and blessed him and said, "Increase and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it and rule over it." That is the inspired way of declaring the origin of Democracy. That is the very foundation of Democracy. God made man like to Himself and made him Lord of all creation. The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof, but He has given it to men for our inheritance. The fish, the flesh, the fowl, and all the fruits and products of the earth belong to man. All men are equally creatures of the Lord and rulers of earth; and equally all have the right to bring earth under their subjection. This is the Divine Right of men, given to them by God.

This Right contained another Right, as truly coming from the Lord; implanted by Him in our very nature. As we were created intelligent we had the duty to use our mind. The right to rule the earth was no small gift, nor was it given to one man alone. By the very necessity of the case, by a law of nature, God gave man the right to organize his work. The very complexity of harmonizing each one's right with all men's right — the need of peace and order incited man to share and portion out his common right. Man did divide the common right; and chose now king, now judge, now magistrates. To each or all of these they gave as much or as little as their need dictated. It was theirs to give. And thus the people made their government. That was the origin of Democracy. It goes back beyond the furthest ages that we know — it finds its origin in God's creation.

Fundamental Ideas.

These are fundamental ideas, well known to every student of history. If I recall them now, it is that you may give thought to them, for things may be too well known to be thought about; they are too easily taken for granted, and thus they are forgotten. It is because these principles were forgotten in the past that they were changed and lost.

The first thing men forget was their own right to choose their rulers. They let other men look out for that, and lost its exercise themselves. They suffered selfish men to stay in power. They saw their kings assume the right to rule, as if it was their due, their very own. That was Autocracy.

It did not start by usurpation. Its first step was the popular neglect of government. The people selfishly cared first for their own material affairs. Nor was usurpation its second step. The supreme exaltation of Kings came from some among the people, who found that this fitted best their selfish interests. A centralized efficient rule procured such great advantages that it was swept into power almost despite itself. Only then arrived Autocracy.

As masters of the people now instead of their delegated legislators, rulers even went so far as to replace the law of God with their own whim or fancy. They seized the power of God and styled themselves Divine. Such were the Roman Julius and the Roman Augustus, who both styled themselves Divus Caesar. Here is a typical instance of self-assumed divine right. I choose to name them from among the scores of others, because they most of all have left their mark upon the civil government of the world.

I choose to name them also for another reason. In the reign of the first Augustus, God, Himself, came down to earth to put an everlasting check to their Autocracy. These are the words of Christ, Who came to bring back justice as well as love to all humanity. "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." That was the real Magna Charta of Democracy. It vindicated the Rights of God in human society. It restricted human rule to things of earth. And Jesus Christ was crucified for that principle, the freedom of the spirit.

It was the Church of Christ, recruited from the poor and lowly, and from philosophers and thinkers, that first gave men the right again to call their souls their own. The Church of Christ upheld God's Right and man's against this so-called Caesarism and the Divine Right of Kings. The Christian Church is the modern source of all Democracy.

She taught and teaches that all men are God's creatures, nay, more, God's children. That none among them has the right, begotten of himself, to rule others without due reference to the Supreme Governor and Lawgiver. She taught and teaches that men's right to choose other men to wield authority is exercised to ensure just order which begets both peace and happiness, and that this right of man has come to him from God. She taught that all civil order coming from God as it does must have justice for its expression, and that order and peace companion justice. She taught and teaches that right is superior to might. She taught always what we know as Democracy and she condemned always what we know as Autocracy.

First True Democracy.

She did more than teach — she practised. She was herself the first true Democracy. In the Church no man was born to rule. Even the lowly born could rise to highest place. The clergy, then as now, came for the most part from the people. The people chose them, brought them to the church for training, asked for and rejoiced in their ordination.

It is but a proper presentation of the truth to say that the clergy were the representatives of the people during our early and middle ages. The greatest step in the mediæval progress of Democracy was the addition of the body of the clergy to the body of the nobles in the councils of the king. It further may be said that the next step was also, in great measure, due to the Church. It was the rise of the new social class of city workers and merchants. They grew up through the Church's fostering care and example, and by her aid were added as guilds to the existing government. Before the middle ages ended and at the time when all the world was Catholic, the modern Parliament was formed. It dates back eight hundred years, to the same twelfth century that saw the rise of the University.

Not only in England and France, but in every Christian country there was a Parliament. The Church had so diffused the teaching of the people's rights that no king or prince was able then to overcentralize his power, or obtain the money needed for that purpose, without the consultation and approval of his people.

They brought to Parliament their Christian training quite as much as their class consciousness. They plainly acted as a human check on Monarchy. Their rights were always on their lips. The Mediæval trend was clearly democratic.

It would be a pleasant task for me to bring to mind the many other things that have been forgotten, of religion's place in the progress of Democracy. Suffice it here to state what every scholar knows, that in the middle ages the Church was the greatest check to the autocracy of rulers. The Church was the best and truest friend the common people had.

In this review of how Democracy progressed, I come to modern times. They started well. The Church had raised the people up and formed the Parliament. The Church had also brought about the Christian Monarchy, which happily, though slowly, took the place of Feudalism. The modern state was the child of the Church. Local and popular liberty was being nicely balanced by a strong central authority. The Church stood sponsor for them both. Christian civilization had arrived at a peak in the thirteenth century, when modern times most properly begin, but then it started to decline.

Then Autocracy again put forth its claims, and one by one the Christian states were Caesarized, by force. Each king aspired to be Caesar Redivivus. Not Germany alone, or England, trod this path. Even France and Spain went just as wrong. Their kings also opposed the mediating influence of the Popes hitherto acknowledged as a fruitful check to tyranny. And it is almost a truism to say that when the Papacy was weakened the Parliament soon decayed.

Our Particular Democracy.

Let us come now to the story of our own particular kind of Democracy. For the two hundred years between the wars of the Roses and the English Revolution, the power of the crown in England increased at the expense of the people's rights. The Absolutism which the Tudors practised was made a theory of government under the Stuarts. The Church was made subordinate to the King's rule and even the King's whim; Parliament ceased to be the voice of the people; the royally established Church and the cringing Parliament became the tools of the tyrant. The theory of the Divine Right of Kings took its place in the constitution of England. There was no freedom of Spirituals, no freedom of Temporals. The crown controlled worship, silenced speech, censored press, confiscated property and even violated the basic right of life.

This was the system of Autocracy from which many free spirits fled to found in the new world their own idea of freedom. It was the system which Englishmen in the homeland overthrew by regicide. It was the system, which finally drove the Stuarts from the throne. The English revolution gave England a new constitution — a compromise with kings, a bill of rights for men. Deep, bitter, and lasting hostility to the Tudors and their successors, the Stuarts and their system, was the inheritance of the American colonists. Passionate attachment to their liberties as granted them by the English Constitution marked their beginning and their growth. And when, under the Hanoverian, George III, Autocracy was set up in defiance of the colonists' rights, it brought the American Revolution.

This time there was to be no question of compromise. The fathers of this republic had no intention of merely recalling a bill of rights, compelling grants from any unwilling king. They overthrew the autocracy of a tyrannous monarchy and made a valiant, forceful declaration of the rights of man. They established here a union of our free and independent states.

A passion for their rights made those heroic men throw their all into that struggle for independence. Men like Washington and Carroll and Jefferson and Adams had intelligence, wealth and a noble conception of human rights and they, and the rest of the noble band of the fathers of this Nation, gave proof of the sincerity of their professions by dedicating their lives and their fortunes to the redemption of freedom, liberty and the rights of the people. They thus won back their freedom in spirituals and their freedom in speech, in press, in property, in home. These were the things they fought for; their rights as men.

In that immortal Declaration of Independence, these ideas found utterance. Their style and phraseology was that of Jefferson, the great tribune of the rights of men, whose brilliant intellect and ardor in the cause for which he fought led him to know the whole history of human oppression and liberation from wrong. A student so profoundly informed of all the great traditional doctrines of government cannot be supposed to be ignorant of the doctrine taught and upheld for centuries by the Church and enunciated, at the very time when Autocracy was most forcibly practised by the kings of Europe, in the writings of a Cardinal of the Church, the great philosopher, sociologist and saint — Robert Bellarmine. All praise then to these two champions of liberty, Bellarmine the Roman Cardinal, the great enunciator of the doctrines of human freedom, and Jefferson, their fearless champion.

Government by People.

These doctrines embraced the three fundamental principles of our democracy — all men created equal — government dependent on the consent of the people — and the right of a free assembly. On these three principles the American Constitution was worked out, a Constitution which was the normal result of those principles of government which the Church had forever upheld.

The American Constitution was an epoch-making document. It contains a Divinely given wisdom, more nicely formulated perhaps than any in the world before. It was the long expected fruition of Christian ages. If it is properly observed, the people are forever saved from all the danger of the ever-to-be-feared Autocracy. If properly observed! For it may be viciously altered, perverted even, as its predecessors were. Thus, our Charter of Liberty and Democracy has its dangers. They lie in our own forgetting and neglecting.

It is possible that we may forget the very source of all our rights. If we are born in the highest sense into equality it is because we were created with the right of equality. We are equally the ch ldren of God. Now it is possible to forget God and God's law. That is the very first and the very greatest danger to our Democracy—Irreligion.

We would not so forget if we were not so absorbed in selfish things, and in this material world. There is a base materialism which thinks only of the gathering of worldly goods to satisfy its foolish sentiments of vanity and greed. It thrusts aside the law of God because it will not be retarded in its selfish course. And greed and vanity unchecked finally reach the unutterable blasphemy of the denial of God, Himself. There is no use denying that we face today these dangers of Irreligion, Infidelity and even Atheism.

They constitute a peril greater than any other. They undermine the very source of right. Unless the thought of God as the Supreme Ruler is kept clear in the mind, and obedience to His law is kept strong in the heart, we may find might replacing right, and men's equality an empty phrase. Unless God and His law are always in our thoughts we shall come finally to think of ourselves alone, and selfishness is at the root of every disorder in government.

The second thing that we must not forget is our right to judge justly our civic rulers. They are by law the appointees, and the agents of the Nation. They are responsible to the Nation. We choose them to protect the public weal. They must not serve a mere group, and least of all themselves. We do not get our rights from them. Their right to rule comes from us as the whole people.

The lesson of the past is plain in this. If we forget or neglect to exercise our legitimate control of those whom we appoint to govern us, they will inevitably exercise an unjust control of the whole people. They will dictate to us even against our will. They will rule as if they had a divine right to rule, and that is Autocracy. We must not, even in our greatest need, forget the nice control, the checks and balancing of powers, worked out in our Democracy. And if the need demands a very large grant of our power to our chosen rulers, we must watch the time when that need ceases, and retrieve our temporary grant.

The complexities and crises of modern life may require varying applications of the fundamental principles of our Constitution. Rulers are not given power only by taxpayers. Wealth is not essential for holding office nor must an office be used for the unjust acquisition of wealth. Again the danger here is base materialism, which regards only human possessions and ignores humanity. We have a most vigilant work to do in constantly applying the true principles of our Democracy.

And, finally, a word about our place in the world. As no single man can stand absolutely alone so no single nation can stand absolutely alone. The well being of every nation requires a sense of security in the world. For this reason, America, great as our nation undoubtedly is, does not and cannot stand alone, because Americans are not the only men on earth. For all the rest we must have that respect and kindly feeling which both our Constitution and the Gospels teach. But those very principles demand in turn that the other nations of the earth show to America, respect and justice.

"All men are created equal: They are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." These are priceless treasures. They are our God-given heritage. May God preserve America and may He bless and protect those who, under His guidance and in His place, safeguard our rights and our institutions!

These are some of the thoughts which rise up in the minds of all thoughtful Americans today. And all of us should think of them not merely one day in the year but remember them and act in accordance with them every day of our lives. Thus, and thus only, may we prove ourselves, as the fathers of our country did, true patriots, and loyal citizens of America, our own, our native land.

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

Upon varying dates as indicated the Mayor approved contracts with the several firms indicated for construction work and supplies. Communications from the heads of the several departments concerned were as follows:

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.
June 27, 1934.

HON. FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—In connection with the addition to the J. H. Barnes School, I find that the cornice and balustrade on all three sides of the present building are in a dangerous state and should be removed. I feel that this constitutes an emergency. I have had a plan prepared by Charles R. Greco, the architect on the work, to replace the cornice with limestone and brick facing to match the building, a permanent fixture eliminating all future danger. I have received the following price which I believe to be fair for performing this work, including the replacing of the roofing and necessary copper work for flashing. This price is thirteen thousand five hundred dollars ($13,500), which is a deduction of three thousand dollars from the contractor's original price.

I desire your consent to have this work done as an addition to the present contract as it is extremely necessary for safety and should be done now while the present contractor is on the work and has all the necessary equipment, staging, etc., on hand.

Respectfully yours,

WM. W. DRUMMEY,
Superintendent of Construction.

OVERSEERS OF PUBLIC WELFARE.
June 5, 1934.

HON. FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Mr. Roswell G. Hall, administrator of the local Emergency Relief Administration of Massachusetts, has requested this department to appropriate the sum of $394.24 for "findings" in connection with the making of garments by the Emergency Relief Administration which are issued to welfare recipients through this department. The Federal Government supplies $9,168 for labor and $3,550 for material, and requests us to assume the cost of findings, amounting to $394.24. This expenditure has the approval of Mr. Fox, Budget Commissioner, and was also approved by the Board of Overseers at its meeting on Wednesday. The Board respectfully requests approval of its action.

Yours truly,

JOHN C. L. DOWLING,
Executive Director.

BOSTON, June 7, 1934.

HON. FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Your approval is respectfully requested for the leasing by this department of the Halloreth Statistical Equipment which is owned by the International Business Machines Corporation. The cost of leasing this equipment will be $450 per month or $5,400 per year, and the lease must extend for one year at least. It is requested that this lease be arranged without competitive bid as this company is the only company which can provide the complete equipment to prepare the data in the manner in which the department desires it.

The use of this equipment will enable the department to obtain statistical information which is almost impossible to obtain at present, and will furnish a check on the expenditures of the department. It is estimated that to do this work without the machines would require the employment of at least twelve (12) additional persons. It will be necessary for the company to carry on the current work of the department so that no delay will be occasioned when the machines are installed. The cost of this preliminary work is estimated at from $1,800 to $2,500.

The Board desires that this equipment be installed as soon as possible and respectfully requests your early approval.

Respectfully,

JAMES A. MCMURRY,
Chairman.

BOSTON, June 25, 1934.

HON. FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—The Board of Overseers of the Public Welfare respectfully requests your permission to award a contract, without advertising, to William J. Gormley, 2660 Washington street, Roxbury, and to Thomas D. Russell, 1409 Dorchester avenue, Dorchester, for burials of poor who are not on the rolls of this department but who have no one to assume the cost of their burials at the following rates: $15 for persons under sixteen years of age and $25 for persons over sixteen years of age, of which $1.50 in the first case and $2 in the latter is paid for opening the grave at Mt. Hope Cemetery. This fee includes an honorarium of $1.50 for religious services for persons under sixteen years of age and $2 for religious services for persons over sixteen years of age.

We find upon investigation that it is inadvisable to advertise publicly for bids for this work as it is impossible to state with exactitude the number of burials each year and because it is imperative that only responsible morticians be employed to bury in a decent fashion the luckless poor of our city.

Yours truly,

JAMES A. MCMURRY,
Chairman.

PARK DEPARTMENT.
BOSTON, June 26, 1934.

HON. FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—By vote of the Board of Park Commissioners your approval is respectfully asked to authorize the Board of Park Commissioners to award, without advertising, a contract to the Gray Line, Incorporated, of Boston, to furnish approximately not more than nine buses per day for the transportation of 250 poor children per day on Randidge Fund excursions to and from Castle Island for five days per week, from July 2 to August 31, 1934, for the sum of $13.75 per bus, the total charge not to exceed the sum of $4,500. This expense is to be charged to the Reserve Fund.

The reason for asking that this contract be awarded to the Gray Line Incorporated, of Boston, is that the Gray Line has been given this contract for the last three years and has given very satisfactory service, and as the limit of $4,500 is much lower than the contract would be if said limit was not placed, the Board believes that nothing would be gained by advertising. This price is lower than last year.

Respectfully yours,

DANIEL J. BYRNE,
Secretary.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.
June 20, 1934.

To His Honor the Mayor.

Reporting on the attached letter dated May 23, from Frank Losordo, requesting the construction of a sewer in Windsor street, Hyde Park, I beg leave to state that to care for new buildings now being erected in Windsor street in the developing of the surrounding territory it is very essential that a 10-inch pipe sanitary sewer be built in Windsor street for a length of 360 linear feet at an estimated cost of $2,880.

This request should be granted, as such requests care for new buildings and, of course, is an improvement to the city, adding additional property which can be taxed, etc.

I respectfully request your permission to advertise for bids for the building of a sewer in Windsor street for a length of 360 linear feet.

Respectfully,

C. J. CARVEN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.
June 21, 1934.

HON. FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Permission is respectfully requested to award a contract, without publicly advertising same, to the Buick Motor Company to deliver to the Fire Department the following:

As the Buick Motor Company are the manufacturers, nothing would be gained by publicly advertising.

Respectfully yours,

WARREN W. LOOMIS,
Supperintendent of Supplies.

June 27, 1934.

E. R. A. activities where the value of such purchases exceeded $1,000, without the formality of advertising, I would ask that authority be granted me to award a contract to the Boston Sand and Gravel Company for furnishing to the Boston City Hospital 800 cubic yards of 1–2½–5 ready mix concrete, at a total price of $4,800 net. The total bids of the various bidders are as follows:

Respectfully yours,

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 47.

I. NEW FIRE ALARM BOX.

A new fire alarm box, Box 123, is to be established for the new East Boston Traffic Tunnel. The box will be located in the control room on the fourth floor of the Ventilation Building on North street, and will be connected into No. 3 circuit. For the time being only a first alarm assignment will be made for this box, which will be as follows:

Engines 8, 9, Ladder 1, Rescue 3, District 4.

Assignment cards for this box will be issued to the department shortly.

II. EAST BOSTON TRAFFIC TUNNEL.

The new East Boston Traffic Tunnel will be placed into operation at 12 o'clock noon, Saturday, June 30, 1934.

Effective at that time and date, all apparatus responding or covering on multiple alarms to East Boston, or from East Boston to city proper and Charlestown, will do so via this Traffic Tunnel.

At each entrance of the tunnel there will be a siren horn, which will be sounded when fire apparatus is to pass through the tunnel and a bell will also sound the signal in the control room.

Also at each end of the tunnel there will be a telegraph set and a telephone to provide direct communication with the Fire Alarm Office, and a telephone which connects with the control room.

When apparatus responds to a multiple alarm in East Boston, a member (preferably a qualified telegrapher) of the first company arriving at the tunnel entrance will be dropped and he will communicate with the Fire Alarm Office and perform the duties outlined in General Orders Nos. 39 and 57, series of 1929. He will also notify the operator in the control room when the last piece of apparatus has entered the tunnel. As all multiple alarm assignments and coverings in East Boston designate the same companies, with the exception of Rescue Company 3 on certain boxes, a card showing the movements will be placed in the signal boxes at the tunnel entrances. Because of the fact that some of the companies responding to multiple alarms in East Boston have to come a great distance before arriving at the entrance to the tunnel, general traffic through the tunnel should be restored after the companies nearest the tunnel have passed through. As soon as the distant companies arrive general traffic will again be stopped until the assignment called for by the alarm has passed. This will allow for the proper movement of traffic during the interim between the arrival of companies from stations near the tunnel and those located at a distance.

Copies of the regulations governing the movement of traffic through the tunnel will be issued to the department as soon as received by the Fire Commissioner, and officers and members will thoroughly familiarize themselves with the provisions of these regulations for their information and guidance.

In the event of an alarm from Box 123 (the tunnel box) the district chief's telegrapher will report at the telegraph set provided at the tunnel entrance, instead of at the fire alarm box.

All previous orders inconsistent with the foregoing instructions are hereby rescinded.

III. BOSTON AUTOMATIC ASSIGNMENT CARD.

A new assignment card for page 7 of the Boston Automatic Fire Alarm Book is being distributed to the department today. This card is dated June 15, 1934, and is to replace page 7, dated July 19, 1933.

The old cards are to be returned to the department headquarters in the envelopes provided on or before Tuesday, July 3, 1934.

IV. A. D. T. ASSIGNMENTS.

The following addition is to be made to the assignment cards of the American District Telegraph Company:

Signal No. 464: The Beckwith Manufacturing Company, 31 Heath street. Apparatus to respond, Engine 14, Ladder 30 and District 8. Nearest city box is No. 2394.

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 26. SATURDAY, JULY 14, 1934. NO. 28

SOLDIERS' RELIEF IS NOT CHARITY, NOR IS IT A PENSION, COMMISSIONER CHARLES H. CAREY, HEAD OF THE DEPARTMENT FOR THE CITY OF BOSTON, TELLS RADIO AUDIENCE IN BROADCAST FROM CITY HALL IN SUBSTITUTING FOR MAYOR MANSFIELD AT MICROPHONE—CALLS IT A PRIVILEGE AVAILABLE TO THOSE ENTITLED BY HONORABLE WAR SERVICE, WORTHINESS AND NEED—DISCUSSES FORMS OF RELIEF PROVIDED FOR VETERANS OR DEPENDENTS OR BOTH.

The following is the radio address by Soldiers' Relief Commissioner Charles H. Carey, over Station WNAC, from City Hall, under the direction of Mayor Mansfield:

Ladies and Gentlemen of the Radio Audience.

One of the most important functions of the City of Boston is the rendering of aid to needy veterans and their dependents by the Soldiers' Relief Department.

Soldiers' Relief is the general name applied to the assistance which is given to honorably discharged veterans and their dependents who served in the United States Army, Navy or Marine Corps during the Civil War, the War with Spain, the Philippine Insurrection and the World War. In its various forms the relief is given in grateful acknowledgment of patriotic services rendered in time of our country's need. The purpose of Soldiers' Relief is to keep clear of the real or fancied stigma of pauperism and charity the defenders of our nation and their dependents who, through no fault of their own, become destitute and in want. Soldiers' Relief is not charity. On the other hand it must not be considered a pension. Summed up, it is a privilege to be availed of by those entitled thereto by the three essentials, namely, honorable war service, worthiness, and need.

The forms of assistance are State Aid, Military Aid, Soldiers' Relief and help in defraying burial expenses. To be eligible for State Aid and Military Aid, the applicant must have served to the credit of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and to receive Soldiers' Relief from the department, the veteran and his dependents must have a legal settlement in Boston.

History of Relief.

Historically, we may trace Soldiers' Relief to chapter 222 of the Acts of 1861, which became operative about one month after the outbreak of the Civil War. Originally intended as a measure of assistance to the veterans of the War of the Rebellion, it now also includes within its scope veterans of the Indian War, Spanish American War, Philippine Insurrection, China Relief Expedition, Mexican Border Service and the World War. The various statutes relating to Soldiers' Relief have been codified under chapter 115 of the General Laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and amendments thereto.

Soldiers' Relief was first enacted into law by chapter 438 of the Acts of 1888. Its intent was to remove from almshouses of cities and towns many of the Civil War veterans and their dependents and to free them from pauperism by supporting them in homes of their own or in other suitable abodes. Under this law, relief is paid entirely by the city in which the beneficiary has a legal settlement with no reimbursement by the state as in cases of State Aid and Military Aid.

It would be unfair to assume that the amount paid out under this law is an additional expense to the city; if no such law existed, a large proportion of the beneficiaries would be compelled to seek refuge in the city almshouses, there to be supported as charges of the City of Boston.

It has been stated by competent authority that Massachusetts has always treated her veterans more liberally than any other State in the Union. This Commonwealth was the first to pass this generous law, the moral effect of which upon veterans and their dependents has been great and the ultimate benefit to the State and City of immense value. The death of the husband and father no longer means the breaking up of the home and the scattering of the helpless family among public and private charitable institutions, to grow up as paupers and dependents with a consequent loss of pride and self-respect so essential in the traditions of our citizens. Instead, the bereaved widow, with the relief received under this law, is enabled to maintain her home intact and keep her children united until such time as they are able to care for themselves and take their places in the ranks of our citizens with a sense of equality foreign to those whose early years were blighted by the words "pauper and poorhouse."

Chapter 441 of the Acts of 1897, effective the first Monday in January, 1898, created the Soldiers' Relief Department of the City of Boston, to be in charge of a Soldiers' Relief Commissioner. The Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief is sworn to try fairly and impartially all cases brought before him, having in mind attending to the needs of worthy applicants, and, at the same time, protecting the interests of all the taxpayers of the City of Boston. All cases must be decided strictly on their merits, and influential intervention cannot be permitted to sway the judgment of the commissioner, so that the apparently friendless veteran is assured of justice at the hands of the commissioner.

From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,

BOSTON'S ROSE GARDENS A GREATER DELIGHT TO CITIZENS AND VISITORS THIS YEAR THAN EVER BEFORE — WORK OF PARK DEPARTMENT, UNDER DIRECTION OF MAYOR MANSFIELD, HAS WON UNSTINTED PRAISE BY FLOWER LOVERS FROM ALL OVER UNITED STATES — MANY VARIETIES ADDED THIS YEAR.

Of all the pleasures which the city affords to her residents, their friends and visitors, among the most widely boasted are the Rose Gardens at Franklin Park and in the Fens. This year the fame of the gardens has been carried to the furthermost parts of the country by guests and many favorable comments have come back as a result, greatly to the joy of Mayor Mansfield, Park Commissioner William P. Long, and Superintendent of Parks Richard J. Hayden.

This year the two gardens have been of especial delight because of the care and attention given to them by Superintendent Hayden and the maturity of the plants that have been started.

FRANKLIN PARK GARDEN.

In the collection of roses at Franklin Park Rose Garden there are eighty-eight beds of roses representing eighty-eight distinct varieties with seven hundred four plants used as an educational exhibit of hybrid tea roses. There are also eighteen beds containing one hundred and forty-four plants of hybrid perpetuals. In addition, there are eighty baby ramblers or polyanthus roses and sixty climbing roses. This garden is circular in shape, and is surrounded by cement pillars and a wooden balustrade. A beautiful fountain is located in the center with four walks leading therefrom. One of these walks leads to the rock and perennial gardens.

In 1932 plans were made for the Fens Rose Garden by Arthur Shurcliff, landscape architect, giving the City of Boston the honor of boasting of two municipal rose gardens.

The Superintendent of Parks, Richard J. Hayden, directed the work of laying out this garden, as well as the draining, grading and planting of the surrounding grounds.

In this garden is to be found one hundred and thirty-eight educational beds representing one hundred thirty-eight varieties of hybrid tea roses with one thousand one hundred and four plants. In addition, there are seven hundred and ninety hybrid teas in the four large beds, and four hundred and sixty hybrid perpetuals, as well as two hundred and sixty polyanthus and one hundred and seventy climbing roses. In the arbors, and in recesses in the garden, are ten statuettes representing the seasons. An old Roman well head of marble with the well-worn imprint of the rope which drew the bucket can be seen. In this garden some of the newer roses, such as Alfred E. Smith, Thomas E. Edison, etc., are planted.

Among the other varieties represented in the plants in the Fenway Rose Garden are such choice specimens as Herbert Hoover, Ville de Paris, Mrs. Erskine Pembroke Thom, Talisman, Alfred E. Smith, Margaret McGrady, Red Radiant, Souvenir de Claudius Pernet, and Etoile de France.

Many of the same kinds may also be seen in the Franklin Park Rose Garden, among the varieties growing there. A few of the most notable are the Charles P. Kilham, Dame Edith Helen, Chateau de Vougeot, La France, Lord Charlemont, Lady Ashtown and Lieutenant Chaure. Richard Hayden, who is in charge of the rose gardens, reports that the percentage of loss from the severe winter has been very small.

The Rose Garden in the Fenway, which has a history of only three years, is one of the most beautiful sports in the city. Arbors covered with luxuriant climbing roses arch the flower-bordered paths with splendor. Fountains play over rocks in a pool in the center, all in sight of the classic outlines of the Museum of Fine Arts. The central part was finished in April, 1931, and the rectangular addition, a year later.

The Rose Garden in Franklin Park is in the zoological garden opposite the bird house. Its four entrances are bordered by double rose arbors, and it is surrounded by an elaborate trellis supporting all varities of climbing roses. In the large central bed are found the newest and most valuable roses in a great variety of colors.

UNWORTHY CASES.

The commissioner must be ready to reject unworthy cases. It is the aim of the Soldiers' Relief Department to build up the stamina of the veteran and not destroy his initiative and independence by rendering aid over too long a period of time.

The interest of the department in the welfare of each applicant does not cease when the applicant has received the money allowance awarded towards assisting in the temporary support of the veteran or his dependents. A staff of investigators maintain contact through the medium of visits to the home and the offering of friendly advice and assistance in bettering the applicant's outlook for the future. In other words, the welfare of the veteran and his dependents is paramount, always, of course, bearing in mind the three necessary qualifications—honorable service, worthiness, and need; and the department aims to be of assistance to them in every way possible.

So much for the history and aims of the department. Now, let me cite a few instances which are typical of the actual and little known work of the department.

A few weeks ago there came to this department a young widow and her infant child, in dire need. Her husband, a veteran who had served his country magnificently during the World War, had passed away only a short time ago and left her alone with her child to face a very gloomy outlook for the future. She came to tell me that she would like to live with her people in Seattle, Washington. Naturally, in view of the fact that this would not only prove of great satisfaction to the widow but would also relieve this department of the responsibility of her support, I approved of her desire.

However, I would not permit her to adopt this course until I had been satisfied that her folks at home could keep her, because the minute she would leave this State her relief would end. That very moment I dispatched a telegram to the Welfare Department of the American Legion at Seattle, Washington, to find out the financial condition of her people. A prompt reply assured me that the young widow's family, once she arrived, would be able and willing to give a home to her and the baby. The favorable report, however, came after the close of the office and the woman's train which she wanted to take left at 7.30 that very evening. But the Soldiers' Relief Department, nevertheless, moved quickly. One of my investigators rushed to the woman's home, helped her to get ready for the long trip, hurried her to the station and bought the ticket for Seattle.

Arrangements were made with the Travelers Aid Society that the young woman would be looked after until she reached Seattle, where representatives of the American Legion Welfare Department were to meet her and remain with her until she was reunited with her family.

SPECIFIC CASE AIDED.

To cite another case. There was a time here recently when my entire force pitched in and helped a family set up housekeeping all over again. To begin with, it was a very sad case. The father of the family of five little children was out of work. His wife, crazed with the worry of seeing her five children going without things, disappeared. The man became ill and as a result the children became so neglected that a report was sent to this office about their sad condition. One of our investigators had the father and children sent to hospitals. When the ex-service man and the children were on the road to recovery the mother was located. When that family was finally reunited you would scarcely recognize it as the one which had been separated a few months before. The members of the office immediately banded together to give what might be called a shower of household goods to the family. They wanted to do something to show their happiness at the way things turned out. They contributed to buy furniture, dishes and such necessary articles and the Red Cross donated blankets. Now the man is working for the E. R. A. and the family is progressing splendidly.

Here is another case. Although at first glance the work performed may seem trivial, yet in view of the reaction on the part of the woman as the result of this friendly aid, the end achieved is all that could be desired.

Five little children, their father a soldier in the World War, were left orphaned. A twenty-seven-year-old aunt became their legal guardian and struggled to rear them, taking the place of both parents. The children have been brought up in their own home with the advice and assistance of this department.

As the time drew near for the four oldest children to be confirmed, the aunt worried greatly lest they should not have proper outfits for the occasion, and she wanted them to be as well dressed as the other children. She confided her worry to the visitor. The children were provided with suitable clothing and the girl-aunt came in to the office to tell me, happily, that her children looked just as well as those who had parents to be proud of them.

Many other instances similar to those recited might be mentioned, but I believe that these instances will suffice to give you an insight into the inner workings of the Soldiers' Relief Department. Problems of this character are continually coming to our attention and we are attempting to do our humble best to meet them and lessen the burdens of life for those on whom the hand of depression has lain heavily. The successful solution of such problems as these is a source of genuine pleasure and gratification to the department.

Under the able guidance of our esteemed Chief Executive, Honorable Frederick W. Mansfield, Mayor of the City of Boston, we are endeavoring to improve the work of this department to the end that the veterans and their dependents may receive the attention and consideration which the faithful service rendered to their country merits.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 517.

There is hereby created in the office of the Bureau of Records the position of Supervisor of Photography.

Patrolman Francis R. Sullivan is hereby designated and appointed Supervisor of Photography.

The Supervisor of Photography, under the direction of the commanding officer of the Bureau of Records, shall have charge of the care and custody of all photographs, equipment and materials coming into the possession of the department.

He shall conduct periodic inspections of all photographic equipment of the department and shall submit a written report to the commanding officer of the Bureau of Records covering all the details of the periodic inspection.

He shall instruct members of the department, whenever necessary, in the duties of a photographer and the use of photography in securing evidence at the scene of a crime or accident, and the use of photographs in court.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 518.

A trial board consisting of Captains Campbell, Casey and Daley, having heard by reference a complaint made by Thomas S. J. Kavanagh, captain, Division 9, against Frank A. White, patrolman, Divison 9, for alleged violation of Rule 41 of the Rules and Regulations of the Police Department, to wit:

Charge: Neglecting to pay a just debt.

Specification: In that for several years Patrolman Frank A. White of Division 9 lived at 26 Fremont place, Mattapan, as a tenant of one Mrs. Timothy F. Desmond, and that in January, 1933, the said Patrolman White moved from this address owing Mrs. Desmond $322 for back rent. From that time until March 21, 1934, Patrolman White has paid but $23 of this amount notwithstanding the fact that in September, 1933, he made a written agreement with Mrs. Desmond to pay $3 each week. On March 21, 1934, he made a payment of $1 and since that time has paid nothing whatsoever.

Specification 2: In that for several years Patrolman Frank A. White of Division 9 has owed money to one Edward J. Quigley of 643 River street, Mattapan, for groceries purchased from his store. At the present time the said Patrolman White owes Mr. Quigley a balance of $84 and has not made any payment to Mr. Quigley for the past three months notwithstanding the fact that about one year ago he promised to pay $2 each week on this bill. Whereas, it appears that both of these debts were justly contracted by the said Patrolman Frank A. White and that he has unreasonably neglected to pay them,— has submitted the following finding and recommendation:

"The Board having heard and carefully considered all the evidence as presented, finds the said Patrolman Frank A. White guilty as charged and respectfully recommends that the case be continued for six months to January 3, 1935, to be reopened at that time for disposition, in as much as the said Patrolman Frank

A. White has made substantial payment on each debt and has made a satisfactory agreement with each creditor; and because Patrolman White's commanding officer recommends that he (White) be retained in the department, as he is a valuable police officer."

The commissioner accepts the finding and the recommendation of the Trial Board and hereby orders that the case against the said Patrolman Frank A. White be continued for six months to January 3, 1935, to be reopened at that time for disposition.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 519.

A trial board consisting of Captains Campbell, McGrath and Casey, having heard by reference a complaint made by Harry N. Dickinson, captain, Division 11, against Charles O. Wentworth, patrolman, Division 11, for alleged violation of the Rules and Regulations of the Police Department, to wit:

Charge 1: Neglect of duty.

Specification: In that on the 16th day of February, 1934, the said Patrolman Charles O. Wentworth, while on duty and riding in a cruising car of the Boston Police Department, which was being operated by Patrolman John F. Brown, in Mt. Vernon street extended, commonly known as Mile road, which cruising car is alleged to have been involved in an accident resulting in the death of one Michael Doneghey, failed to make a true and accurate report to the officer in charge of his station regarding the accident.

Charge 2: Untruthfulness.

Specification: In that on the 16th and the 17th days of February, 1934, in consequence of an accident which occurred in Mt. Vernon street extended, commonly known as Mile road, which resulted in the death of one Michael Doneghey, the said Patrolman Charles O. Wentworth made written and oral reports of the facts connected with the accident, knowing at the time that his written and oral reports were false and untrue,— has submitted the following finding and recommendation:

"The Board having heard and carefully considered all the evidence as presented finds the said Patrolman Charles O. Wentworth guilty as charged. The Board realizes that untruthfulness is a serious offense; and, in view of the grave nature of the accident, would be inclined to inflict the extreme penalty of dismissal. However, it is probable that the officer's mind was not quite clear due to an injury he received to his head at the time of the accident. This is a case in which the operator of the car left the scene of the accident without making known his identity, which operator has since been dismissed from the Police Department. Patrolman Wentworth's commanding officer testified to his (Wentworth's) honesty and ability as a police officer. Patrolman Wentworth has never previously been complained of before a trial board for violation of the rules and regulations of the department, and was recently commended in General Orders for meritorious police work. Therefore, the Board respectfully recommends that the said Patrolman Charles O. Wentworth be suspended from duty for a period of one hundred twenty days, effective as of March 15, 1934, at 5.45 o'clock p. m."

The commissioner accepts the finding and the recommendation of the Trial Board and hereby orders that the said Patrolman Charles O. Wentworth be suspended from duty for a period of one hundred twenty days, effective as of March 15, 1934, at 5.45 o'clock p. m.

Civil Service Rule 23, Section 3, requires approval of the Civil Service Commission before reinstatement.

Rule 23.

"Section 3: With the consent of the Commissioner upon good cause shown, an appointing officer may reinstate in the same position or in a position in the same class and grade any person who has been separated from the service; provided, however, that the Commissioner shall not allow reinstatement of a person discharged for cause."

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

This order becomes effective Thursday, July 12, 1934, at 7.45 a. m.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 521.

For the Information of the Department and Public.

Beginning at eight o'clock a. m., Thursday, July 12, 1934, all emergency telephone calls for Boston Police will be handled over new special telephone trunk lines direct to special officers who will be on duty to handle this emergency service. This is the first unit of the new Bureau of Operations of the Boston Police Department to go into service, and will be followed shortly by the complete new radio system.

In the Bureau of Operations of the Boston Police Department, just created, there will be competent telephone operators on duty at all times to handle emergency police business coming over telephone number "DEVonshire 1212." Persons dialing this number will obtain immediate police service. If the promptness of this service is not satisfactory to the complainant, he should notify the Police Commissioner of Boston immediately. Persons who do not have dial telephone may obtain this number in the usual manner by calling "DEVonshire 1212." Persons who may have forgotten the number, but need police service, may obtain the same by signaling the telephone operator and calling "Police Emergency."

These emergency trunk lines will not be connected by the police operator with any other unit of the department. The operator on duty at headquarters will take the message (which should be definite in regard to name and location) and transmit the proper orders to the division or unit of the department needed.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

AGREEMENT FOR INSTALLING TRAFFIC TUNNEL SIGNALS.

THIS AGREEMENT made this 28th day of June, 1934, by and between the City of Boston, hereinafter called the City, acting by its Boston Traffic Commission, and The Edison Electric Illuminating Company of Boston, a corporation under the laws of Massachusetts, hereinafter called the Company, witnesseth that

Whereas, The City desires to install one (1) group of electrically operated traffic signals on Hanover Street, in Boston, to be designated as an addition to Unit Number 1, so called, the installation of which is covered by an agreement between the parties dated August 15, 1929, and desires the Company to furnish the electricity for lighting and operating said additional traffic signals, and in connection therewith to do certain construction work substantially on the same terms as are provided in an agreement between the parties dated December 18, 1930, covering the installation of Unit Number 2, so called.

Now therefore, in consideration of the premises and of mutual promises hereinafter expressed, it is agreed as follows:

1. The location of said group of additional traffic signals is as follows:

Hanover Street at Richmond Street and Parmenter Street.

2. The Company agrees that, at the expense of the City as hereinafter provided, it will provide and install for Circuit Number 1 extension, from manhole No. 15815, so called, in Hanover Street at Blackstone Street to manhole No. 15819, so called, in Hanover Street at Richmond Street and Parmenter Street, Boston, and via the route shown on the plan annexed hereto, dated June 24, 1929, Second Revision April 2, 1934, and marked "Routes of Control Cable Circuits 1, 2, 3 & 4 and Control Box Locations, City of Boston Traffic Signal System Unit Number 1," one 7-conductor No. 1|0 (B. & S. Gauge) control cable, and will provide and install between the street intersection manhole serving said group of additional traffic signals and the traffic signal control box at the said additional location, one 7-conductor No. 12 (B. & S. Gauge) control cable.

Said control cable shall be installed in existing duct lines of the Company, where available, and in new duct lines to be constructed by the Company where empty ducts are not available, the cost to be prorated between the City and the Company, as hereinafter provided.

3. The Company agrees, at the expense of the City as hereinafter provided, to provide and install between the traffic signal control box and the traffic signal posts, to be provided and installed by the City, at the location of said addition to Unit Number 1, one 12-conductor No. 12 (B. & S. Gauge) lead-covered, 600-volt rubber-insulated control cable, leaving the ends in each traffic signal post taped, of sufficient length, and ready for connection by the City to the terminal blocks to be provided and installed by the City.

4. The Company agrees, at the expense of the City as hereinafter provided, to provide and install two No. 6 (B. & S. Gauge) single conductor, flexible stranded, lead-covered, 600-volt, rubber-insulated cables from its direct-current street distributing system to the said additional traffic signal control box, for the supply of electricity at 115 volts to the lamps and relays, on said traffic signal posts. The Company will make the connections to the service fuse blocks to be provided and installed by the City, in said control box.

5. The Company agrees, at the expense of the City as hereinafter provided, to provide and install lateral conduit connections from its street conduit system to said traffic signal post locations for the installation of the cables described in paragraphs 2, 3 and 4 hereof. It is understood and agreed that an iron pipe quarter bend will be provided by the Company, at the expense of the City as hereinafter provided, for the lateral conduit connection to each said traffic signal post. Concrete bases or other supporting rods or structures for said traffic signal posts are to be provided and installed by the City—the installation of said quarter bends to be under the supervision of the Company.

6. The City agrees to pay the Company the actual cost to the Company of the material and labor for the aforementioned construction required to be installed by the Company, plus ten per cent (10%) for overhead and engineering expenses. In the case of other ducts of the Company which are to be used for the City's cables, there shall be included in the cost to be paid by the City, that proportion of the cost of the duct line which the number of ducts used for the City's cables bears to the total number of ducts in the duct line; except, however, that the City shall be entitled, without payment therefor, to the use of one of such other ducts in any one existing duct line only in any one street, if space is or can be made available, or (if an empty duct is not available in an existing duct line) in a new duct line paralleling in the same street the existing duct line; but the City shall not be entitled to a free duct in a new duct line or that portion of a new duct line which does not parallel, in the same street, an existing duct line.

For the purpose of computing the pro rata charge to the City for the use of a duct, the cost of an existing duct line shall be the estimated cost of reproducing it as of the date of this agreement, and the cost of a new duct line shall be the cost of construction plus ten per cent (10%) for overhead and engineering expenses.

The Company agrees, however, that the total cost to the City under non-frost conditions shall not exceed one thousand, eight hundred dollars ($1,800) except that if the Company shall be required to furnish a bond to secure the performance of this agreement, the City shall, in addition to other costs, pay the Company the premium on said bond, plus ten per cent (10%).

7. It is agreed that said control cables, to be provided and installed by the Company as aforesaid, shall be the property of the City, and shall be maintained by the Company, but that the cost of maintaining the same shall be borne by the City under terms and conditions hereafter to be agreed upon; and the City further agrees that it will furnish and keep on hand in its own stockrooms a supply of control cable sufficient for necessary repairs and renewals.

8. It is agreed that all ducts which are used by the City under this agreement and which are located in public streets, and the direct-current services for the supply of electricity to the traffic signal lamps and relays, shall be and remain the property of the Company and be maintained by it at its expense, and shall be reserved for the use of the City so long as the Company shall continue to supply control and lighting service for said traffic signals.

9. It is agreed that if after said control cables have been drawn into ducts as aforesaid, the location of the same is changed at the direction of State, Municipal or other public authority, then that proportion of the cost of the change which the number of ducts occupied by the control cables bears to the total number of ducts affected by the change shall be borne by the City, but if ducts containing said control cables shall be moved to other locations to suit the convenience of the Company, the entire cost thereof shall be borne by the Company.

10. The Company shall comply with the provisions of Sections 13 to 19, inclusive, of Chapter 40 of the Revised Ordinances of 1925, and no recovery shall be had on this contract or any subcontract hereunder by the Company against the City or any other person if a breach of said sections has been established.

11. The provisions and stipulations required by Sections 26 and 34 of Chapter 149 of the General Laws, so far as the same are applicable hereto, are made a part of this agreement.

12. The Company agrees to proceed with the construction work herein provided for expeditiously, and, subject to strikes and other contingencies beyond its control, to complete the work within three (3) months after the delivery of this agreement.

13. The City shall pay the Company, under non-frost conditions, four hundred and fifty dollars ($450) thirty (30) days after the work has been started, provided the Company has proceeded with the work during said thirty (30) days with reasonable expedition; it shall pay a like amount sixty (60) days after work has been started, provided the Company has proceeded with the work during said sixty (60) days with reasonable expedition; and it shall pay the balance of the amount due, sixty-one (61) days after the completion of the work.

The time for payment shall, if the Company is delayed in rendering its final bill because of reasons outside of its control, be extended to the extent of delay so caused.

14. It is agreed, however, that if the Company shall be required to perform this agreement during such part of the year as frost has penetrated into the ground, the maximum cost which the City shall be required to pay to the Company shall be two thousand dollars ($2,000), instead of one thousand, eight hundred dollars ($1,800) as provided in Article 6 hereof; and the installment payments provided in Article 13 hereof shall be proportionately increased, except that if the Company shall be required to furnish an additional bond for the additional cost under frost conditions the City shall, in addition to other costs, pay the Company the premium on said bond, plus ten per cent (10%).

15. The payment of the final amount due under this contract and for any adjustment of addition thereto shall release the City from any and all claims of liability under this contract or any adjustment or alteration thereof.

Signed this day and year first above written.

ADDITIONAL APPROPRIATION FOR WELFARE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 2, 1934.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am informed that there is a strong likelihood that your honorable body will, at the close of today's meeting, adjourn for a period of at least three weeks. In view of this possibility, I submit herewith an order providing for the appropriation of an additional $1,000,000 for relief disbursements by the Public Welfare Department.

Up to the present time $6,600,000 has been appropriated for relief payments. It is estimated that this amount will be all used up by July 16, or one week earlier than the proposed date for the next meeting of the City Council. To remove the necessity of calling an additional session of the Council, I am submitting today the order previously mentioned and respectfully recommend its adoption by your honorable body.

With the additional appropriation provided in today's order, the Public Welfare Department will have sufficient funds to conduct its activities until approximately the middle of August. At this time it is my intention to submit the final tax and appropriation order of the current year for the relief requirements of the Welfare Department.

Respectfully,
FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD, Mayor.

Ordered, That to meet the current expenses payable during the financial year beginning with the first day of January, 1934, for performing the duties and exercising the powers devolved by statute or ordinance, or by vote of the City Council during the year, upon the City of Boston, or the departments or offices thereof, the respective sums of money specified in the table hereinafter set forth be, and the same are, hereby appropriated, to be expended for the objects and purposes hereinafter stated, that the sums be raised by taxation upon the polls and estates taxable in the City of Boston, and that all orders heretofore or subsequently passed by the City Council relating to appropriations, taxes, and the interest thereon, apply to the taxes herein provided for.

CONCERNING BONDS OF CITY OFFICERS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 2, 1934.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I submit herewith an ordinance providing for an amendment to section 2, chapter 3, of the Revised Ordinances of 1925, in so far as that particular section pertains to the premium to be paid on the bond of the City Collector and employees of the Collecting Department. In effect this amendment authorizes the payment of a premium of one per cent on such bonds as against a premium of one half of one per cent on all other bonds. This amendment is made necessary by the fact that the National Rating Bureau has established a one per cent premium throughout the country on bonds covering collectors of taxes. This action has been taken because of the fact that a large number of tax collectors throughout the country have been in difficulty, owing to inability to collect taxes due their respective municipalities.

The City Collector is bonded in the sum of $150,000, the amount fixed by the Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation of the State. The premium on such a bond is $1,500. As the ordinance now stands a payment cannot be made by the city in excess of $750. Unless the amendment herewith submitted is adopted it will be necessary for the City Collector to pay for the bond from his own private resources. In view of the fact no other city official is required to make such a contribution I respectfully recommend adoption of the accompanying ordinance.

Respectfully,
FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD, Mayor.

An Ordinance Concerning Bonds of City Officers.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Boston, as follows:

Chapter three of the Revised Ordinances of 1925 is hereby amended in section two by striking out the last sentence in said section and inserting in place thereof the following: "The amount paid as premium for the surety upon any bond aforesaid, not exceeding one per cent of the penal sum named therein for the bonds of the city collector and his employees, and not exceeding one half of one per cent of the penal sum named therein for the bonds of the other officers and employees, shall be allowed and paid as an expense of the department of which the principal on the bond is an officer or employee."

Referred to the Committee on Ordinances.

TRANSFER FOR HOSPITAL BUILDINGS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 29, 1934.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of the attached communication from Joseph P. Manning, chairman of the City Hospital Trustees, in which it is requested that available balances remaining in several special appropriations be transferred to permit the furnishing and equipping of the new kitchen and new laundry buildings. These two buildings are practically completed in so far as construction is concerned, and only require the installation of the proper furnishings and equipment to permit of their being opened for public use. In order that no undue delay may attend the opening of the buildings in question, I submit herewith two transfer orders as requested by Mr. Manning, and respectfully recommend their immediate consideration and adoption by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Hospital Department, June 29, 1934.

Hon. Frederick W. Mansfield,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—The new kitchen building, as well as the remodeled laundry building, are practically completed and we are very desirous of purchasing the necessary equipment for furnishing the same. The cost of furnishing and equipping the new kitchen building has been very carefully estimated by Mr. Smith, our chef, and Miss McGovern, the chief dietitian, to be $45,000. The cost of furnishing and equipping the storehouse in the remodeled laundry building is estimated at $8,000.

To meet these items it is suggested that unexpended balances remaining in several appropriations in this department be transferred. The work originally contemplated in these special appropriations has been completed and the balances remaining are no longer required for the original objects.

I respectfully request that transfer orders as indicated below be submitted to the City Council:

From the appropriation for Children's Pavilion, Furnishing and Equipping, $17,259.39; Burnham Memorial Building, Remodeling, etc., $16,502.62; New Administration Building, Furnishing and Equipping, $4,927.68; Pathological Building, $2,146.42; Surgical Building, Furnishing and Equipping, $2,110.58; Kitchen Building, Equipping, etc., $861.11; Tunnel for Hospital Building, $504.07; New Medical Pavilion, Furnishing and Equipping, $469.42; Power Plant, Improvements, etc., $218.71, to the appropriation for Kitchen Building, Furnishing and Equipping, $45,000.

From the appropriation for Pathological Building, $4,087.22; Laundry Building, $2,867.95; Laundry Building, Equipment, etc., $1,044.83, to the appropriation for Laundry Building, Furnishing and Equipping, $8,000.

Yours sincerely,
JOSEPH P. MANNING,
President, Board of Trustees.

Ordered, That under authority of chapter 261 of the Acts of 1893 the City Auditor be, and hereby is, authorized to transfer:

From the appropriation for Hospital Department, Children's Pavilion, Furnishing and Equipping, $17,259.39; Burnham Memorial Building, Remodeling, etc., $16,502.62; New Administration Building, Furnishing and Equipping, $4,927.68; Pathological Building, Furnishing and Equipping, $2,146.42; Surgical Building, Furnishing and Equipping, $2,110.58; Kitchen Building, Equipment, etc., $861.11; Tunnel for Hospital Buildings, $504.07; New Medical Pavilion, Furnishing and Equipping, $469.42; Power Plant, Improvements, etc., $218.71, to the appropriation for Hospital Department, Kitchen Building, Furnishing and Equipping, $45,000.

Ordered, That under authority of chapter 261 of the Acts of 1893 the City Auditor be, and hereby is, authorized to transfer:

From the appropriation for Hospital Department, Pathological Building, $4,087.22; Laundry Building, $2,867.95; Kitchen, Equipment, etc., $1,044.83, to the appropriation for Hospital Department, Laundry Building, Furnishing and Equipping, $8,000.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

TEMPORARY LOAN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 2, 1934.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am advised by the City Treasurer that the temporary loan authorization made by your honorable body in the early part of this year will be used up on or about the middle of this month and that in his opinion a further authorization of $15,000,000 should be secured at this time.

I submit herewith, in conformity with the recommendation of the City Treasurer, the necessary order.

For your information in considering this order I present the following facts: Up to and including today $27,500,000 in temporary loans have been issued by the city leaving a balance in the authorization of $2,500,000. The City Treasurer contemplates that on the 14th day of the current month it will be necessary to issue $3,000,000 of temporary loan bonds. Since the balance remaining in the authorization is less than the amount which the City Treasurer estimates must be borrowed on the 14th it is evident that an additional authorization should be granted at this time. In 1933 the total temporary loan authorizations made by the City Council was $52,500,000 and actual borrowings against these authorizations were $50,500,000. It is evident, therefore, that the authorization requested at this time by the City Treasurer is well within the authorization of last year as well as the actual amount borrowed.

I respectfully recommend adoption of the accompanying order by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD, Mayor.

Ordered, That to provide temporarily money to meet the appropriations for the financial year 1934 the City Treasurer issue and sell, at such times and in such amounts as he may deem best, notes or certificates of indebtedness of the City of Boston not exceeding fifteen million dollars in the total, in anticipation of the taxes of the current municipal year; that all such notes or certificates of indebtedness be dated the day the money for the same is received, be made payable with the interest thereon within one year of their date from the taxes of the year 1934, and bear interest from their date until the same are made payable at such rate as the City Auditor, the City Treasurer and the Mayor may determine.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

PAYING INTERNES AT BOSTON CITY HOSPITAL.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 30, 1934.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit a letter from the Board of Trustees of the Boston City Hospital, relative to your order of June 11, 1934, concerning the advisability of paying internes at the City Hospital at least one dollar a day to cover all necessary expenses.

Respectfully,
FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Hospital Department, June 22, 1934.

Hon. Frederick W. Mansfield,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—At a meeting of the Board of Trustees held today an order of the City Council was presented, whereby the trustees are requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to consider the advisability of paying internes at the City Hospital at least one dollar a day to cover all necessary expenses.

The trustees voted to disapprove of this request, as they feel that the education received at the hospital is priceless, and is recognized by medical students, as shown by the number of applicants. The trustees also feel that a fee for education here would be justified.

Yours sincerely,
JOSEPH P. MANNING,
President, Board of Trustees.

Placed on file.

TRAFFIC LIGHTS ALONG COMMONWEALTH AVENUE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 30, 1934.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit a letter from the Boston Traffic Commission, relative to your order of May 28, 1934, concerning a study of the traffic lights along Commonwealth avenue, with a view to speeding up traffic.

Respectfully,
FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Traffic Commission, June 22, 1934.

Hon. Frederick W. Mansfield,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—I have the honor of acknowledging Council order dated May 28, 1934, which reads as follows:

"Ordered, That the Traffic Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to make a study of the traffic lights along Commonwealth avenue with a view to speeding up traffic along this artery."

The signal system in Commonwealth avenue was placed in operation on December 4, 1932. Prior to the installation investigation and study had been given to traffic conditions in this area for a period of more than three years. These investigations included volume counts of vehicular and pedestrian traffic, observations of the habits of vehicles with respect to speeds and turning movements, studies of the physical attributes of the area from the point of view of traffic and various other studies.

As the result of these investigations the system when installed was timed to provide a flexible progressive movement of traffic in Commonwealth avenue at a predetermined speed of 20 miles per hour. Shortly after the signals were installed we were able to change the timing so that under normal traffic conditions unimpeded by illegal parking and other obstructive conditions a speed of 25 to 27 miles an hour may be maintained in the avenue.

We consider this speed sufficiently high for an intown street such as Commonwealth avenue. In fact, when the flow of vehicular traffic is heavy or when rain or icy conditions make for slower travel, motorists are unable to proceed at a speed sufficiently high to keep up with the timing of the signals.

Observations in this area further show that occasionally congested conditions are caused by outside influences which have no bearing on the timing of the signal system. For example, it is notorious that double and triple line parking of vehicles obtains in certain sections of Commonwealth avenue daily, particularly in front of the Physicians Building at 270 Commonwealth avenue.

Accurate accident records have been kept in this office showing all motor vehicle accidents resulting in personal injuries in this area from January 1, 1927, to the present time. An analysis of these records shows that since the installation of the signals the frequency of accidents of this type has been reduced approximately 60 per cent. In our opinion this splendid record has completely justified the installation of this signal system and shows that the method of operation is consistent with reasonable movement of traffic and the safety of the general public.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM P. HICKEY,
Commissioner.

Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit a letter from the chairman of the Park Department, relative to your order of June 4, 1934, concerning the installation of tennis courts and the repair of the baseball backstop at Mt. Ida (Ronan Park) Playground.

Respectfully,
FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, June 20, 1924.

Hon. Frederick W. Mansfield,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—I am in receipt of an order from the City Council, that the Park Commission be requested to install tennis courts and repair the backstop on the baseball diamond at Mt. Ida Playground.

The Ronan Park Playground has two tennis courts which have been put in very good condition. The installation of additional tennis courts on this playground is out of the question, at the present time, due to economic conditions and lack of area which would be necessary to build these courts on. It certainly would not be advisable to take the top of the hill which is covered with grass and trees and construct tennis courts here. The consensus of opinion in the neighborhood is strictly against anything of this kind.

The cutting down of the baseball field would, in my opinion, seriously interfere with athletic activities which have been carried on since the playground was constructed. The baseball backstop is now being repaired. All backstops curl at the bottom after a certain length of time,—it is simply necessary to tie a wire to a bottom rail to eliminate this trouble.

Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG,
Chairman.

VETO PAYMENT TO JOHN DOOCEY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 19, 1934.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am returning herewith without my signature and with my disapproval the resolve adopted on June eleventh, 1934, wherein your honorable body approved of the enactment of legislation to authorize the city to pay a sum of money for the benefit of John Doocey (sic) for injuries received by being struck by a golf ball at Franklin Park providing such legislation contains a referendum to the Mayor and City Council. No new facts have come to my attention since I vetoed a somewhat similar order providing for a payment to John Ducey who, I presume, is the same person now called John Doocey, in my communication to your honorable body dated April third, 1934. I am informed that this claim was originally disapproved by the Law Department in August, 1932, on the ground that there was no liability on the part of the city and that no negligence on the part of any city employee was disclosed by the records of the case. Under these circumstances I again decline to approve of the resolution.

Yours truly,
FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD, Mayor.

VETO OF ANNUITY TO WIDOW OF SERGEANT CLARK.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 27, 1934.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I return herewith without my signature and with my disapproval the order adopted by your honorable body on June 11, 1934, and which reached my office on the next day. There is nothing in the history of the case as it is presented to me to show that the motor accident which occurred on May 7, 1933, and which preceded Sergeant Clark's death, which was on May 16, 1933, was the cause of his death. Nor does it appear that the injuries which were received at the time of the accident were incurred in the performance of his duty as a police officer. The injuries sustained according to the original report of the accident from Division 19 were a laceration of the scalp and of two fingers whereas the death record shows that he died from angina pectoris and arteriosclerosis, and the letter from the City Prison dated May 18 recites that death was due to shock.

There being nothing in this record to show that the death was attributable to the injuries sustained in the motor accident or that the accident occurred during the performance of his official duty, I feel constrained to veto the order.

Respectfully,
FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD, Mayor.

BOSTON ELEVATED RAILWAY FINANCES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 14, 1934.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit a letter from the Corporation Counsel, relative to your orders of April 16 and 30, concerning a check-up of the Boston Elevated Railway finances by the Metropolitan Transit Council.

Respectfully,
FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Law Department, June 13, 1934.

Hon. Frederick W. Mansfield,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—You have referred to me an order passed by the City Council on April 16, 1934, which provides as follows:

"Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor request the Metropolitan Transit Council to investigate the newspaper accounts of the statistics compiled by James T. Swan, a C. P. A., pertaining to the financial condition of the Boston Elevated Railway Company."

You have also sent me a report dated April 30, 1934, made to you by the Budget Commissioner with reference to said order.

The Metropolitan Transit Council was established by section 3 of chapter 383 of the Acts of 1929, and consists of the Mayors and Chairmen of the Boards of Selectmen of all cities and towns of the Metropolitan Transit District. The territory within and the inhabitants of the following cities and towns, namely, Arlington, Belmont, Boston, Brookline, Cambridge, Chelsea, Everett, Malden, Medford, Milton, Newton, Revere, Somerville and Watertown constitute said district.

Said chapter 383 further provides that the affairs of the district shall be managed by a board of five trustees, of whom four are appointed by the Governor and one by the Mayor of Boston.

Section 3 of chapter 333 of the Acts of 1931 provides as follows:

"SECTION 3. If at any time while public management and operation continues a deficit shall occur of which notice is given to the treasurer and receiver general of the commonwealth under section eleven of said chapter one hundred and fifty-nine, the trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway Company, hereinafter called the trustees of the company, shall at the same time give like notice to the trustees of the metropolitan transit district created by chapter three hundred and eighty-three of the acts of nineteen hundred and twenty-nine who shall forthwith call a meeting of the metropolitan transit council created by said chapter three hundred and eighty-three to consider whether or not the fares and charges for service shall be increased. If said council so determines the trustees of the company shall within sixty days after receipt of written notice of such determination put into effect such higher rates of fare and charges for all or any services furnished or operated as in their judgment will be sufficient, or best adapted, to prevent thereafter and further deficit to be assessed upon the cities and towns in which service is operated. The trustees of the company shall also notify the department of public utilities whenever such a deficit shall occur. Upon receipt of such notice said department shall carry on such investigation as it may deem advisable of the operations and the expenses of the company, and shall make a report to the governor and the members of the metropolitan transit council in writing of its findings, together with any recommendations, whereby future deficits may be avoided or reduced, and the service improved . . ."

Under the provisions of said section three, after the Trustees of the Metropolitan Transit District have been given notice of a deficit by the Trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway Company, the District Trustees are required to call forthwith a meeting of the Metropolitan Transit Council for the purpose of considering whether or not the fares and charges for the service shall be increased.

While there is no provision which specifically authorizes the Metropolitan Transit Council to make an investigation into the financial condition of the Boston Elevated Railway Company, the authority given "to them to consider whether or not the fares and charges for service shall be increased" should, in my opinion, be construed to permit them, before making such determination, to investigate the financial condition of the company so as to enable them to make a proper determination with regard to increased fares. I find nothing, however, in the provisions of said section three or in any other provisions of law which authorizes the Metropolitan Transit Council to expend money in making an investigation, and I am, therefore, of the opinion that any such investigation must be made without expenditure of any public funds.

It is very doubtful that an investigation of the kind referred to in the above-quoted order could be effectively conducted without the expenditure of money.

I wish to call to your attention in this connection that it is my opinion that, under the above-quoted provisions of section three of chapter 333 of the Acts of 1931, the Department of Public Utilities has authority to investigate the matters referred to in the above-quoted order provided that they relate to the operations and expenses of the Elevated. You will note that under the provisions of said section the Department of Public Utilities is directed, upon receipt of notice of a deficit, to carry on such investigations as it may deem advisable of the operations and expenses of the Elevated and to report to the Governor and the members of the Metropolitan Transit Council in writing of its findings, together with any recommendations, whereby further deficits may be avoided or reduced, and the service improved.

The cost of such an investigation would be an expense of that department and the only expense to the City of Boston which would result from such investigation would be indirect, namely, the proportionate burden of the cost of state government borne by the city. In the event that the investigation were carried on by the permanent staff of the department there would probably be no resulting financial burden to the city.

Very truly yours,
HENRY E. FOLEY,
Corporation Counsel.

PROPERTY AT 178 HILLSIDE STREET.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 2, 1934.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—It has been brought to my attention that the city holds title to a piece of property located at No. 178 Hillside street, Roxbury, said title having been secured through the foreclosure of a tax deed. This property consists of a parcel of land and a three-story frame tenement dwelling, which has been unoccupied for a period of two years or more. In the opinion of the Building Commissioner, this building constitutes a very serious fire menace. In fact, the Police Commissioner has deemed it necessary to place a police guard on the property in order to prevent damage to property in the immediate vicinity.

I am advised that there has been pending in the Committee on Public Lands of the Council since November 27 of last year an order authorizing the sale at public auction of this property. It must be evident that such a sale would not only remove the danger of fire which at present exists, but would also add to the taxable valuation of the city, since whoever purchased the property would undoubtedly expend money in its improvement. Believing that the order in question has been inadvertently overlooked, I am taking the liberty of directing the matter to the attention of your honorable body with the request that action be taken on the order without further delay. A photograph of the building is attached thereto.

Respectfully,
FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Building Department, July 2, 1934.

Hon. Frederick W. Mansfield,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—For your information I am submitting in chronological order the history of a building located at 178 Hillside street, Ward 10, with the suggestion that the city sell this building to some person who may be interested in repairing and occupying the same, or for whatever other action you deem necessary.

September 22, 1932, formal complaint recorded against the heirs of Alice Moran, care of Patrick J. McManus, administrator, and we were informed that Patrick J. McManus was dead. Search for various heirs was made but we were unable to locate any, and on November 8, 1932, the complaint notice was posted on the building.

On June 8, 1933, under Land Court Tax Lien Case No. 4153, the City of Boston obtained a decree foreclosing tax title to this property.

August 4, 1933, I called attention to his Honor the Mayor of the condition of this building, and the fact that it was owned by the city, and at the request of the Mayor I wrote a letter to Samuel Silverman, Esq., Corporation Counsel, and Wilfred J. Doyle, City Clerk, calling their attention to the building.

November 27, 1933, meeting of the City Council. Letter received from the Mayor, dated November 20, 1933, presenting an order to give the Mayor the authority to sell at public auction the building located at 178 Hillside street, Roxbury. This matter was referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

June 20, 1934, I received a letter from the Police Commissioner calling my attention to the condition of this building and to the fact that the boys had thrown firecrackers into the building causing a fire damage of $500, and it was necessary to place a police guard on the property to prevent damage to the community.

June 21, 1934, I ordered the supervisor of construction of this department to have the windows of the building boarded up with E. R. A. labor. This work was done immediately.

It would be a simple matter for me to step in and demolish this building with E. R. A. labor, but in my opinion the building is in good structural condition and is too valuable to be taken down.

Respectfully yours,
EDWARD W. ROEMER,
Building Commissioner.

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMISSION ON OIL CONTRACT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Finance Commission, July 2, 1934.

To the Honorable the City Council.

Gentlemen,—The commission submits this report in answer to the order adopted by your honorable body at a meeting on June 4, 1934, requesting the Finance Commission to investigate the approval by the Mayor on May 21, 1934, of the award of a contract to E. F. Loonie, Jr., for purchasing automobile motor oil.

Bids were requested by the Superintendent of Supplies for a supply of lubricating oil to be used by various city departments. In response, sixteen bids were received and opened on March 26. The specifications called for oil distilled entirely from Pennsylvania crude oil. These specifications have been examined for the Finance Commission by a representative of the Pennsylvania Grade Crude Oil Association and he has informed the commission that in order to comply with the specifications the contractor must furnish a very high grade Pennsylvania oil.

The two bidders who submitted the lowest price for this type of oil, 39 cents per gallon, less 1 per cent, discount ten days, were the Atlas Petroleum, Inc., and E. F. Loonie, Jr., representing the Quincy Oil Company. Other bidders who offered to supply Pennsylvania oil were eliminated from consideration because their prices were high. At least eight of the bidders bid on other than Pennsylvania oil. The Superintendent of Supplies requested the two bidders who offered the lowest prices to submit samples of the oil which they intended to deliver under the contract. These samples were examined by the city chemist and he reported to the Superintendent of Supplies that both samples were well within the specifications.

The commission examined the Superintendent of Supplies and was informed that he awarded the contract to E. F. Loonie, Jr., in preference to the Atlas Petroleum, Inc., because Loonie indicated to him that he intended to deliver a particular brand of Pennsylvania oil which comes in containers put up in the Pennsylvania oil fields and bearing a certification that the oil is made from 100 per cent pure Pennsylvania crude oil.

An analysis of the chemist's report of the two samples shows that the sample offered by the Atlas Petroleum, Inc., in some particulars might be considered better than the sample offered by Mr. Loonie for the Quincy Oil Company, but the Superintendent of Supplies stated that it is the specification which sets the standard tor deliveries, not the sample.

The Finance Commission reports to your honorable body that in its review of the facts the commission has found nothing to warrant criticism of the action of the Superintendent of Supplies in awarding the contract to Edward F. Loonie, Jr., as distributor for the Quincy Oil Company.

Respectfully submitted,
JOSEPH J. LEONARD, Chairman,
JOSEPH A. SHEEHAN,
CHARLES M. STOREY,
The Finance Commission.

REPORT OF SMALLPOX HOSPITAL.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Law Department, May 28, 1934.

To the Honorable the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am advised that on May 21, 1934, your honorable body passed the following order:

"Ordered, That the Corporation Counsel be requested to inform the City Council in explanation of his opinion of May 21st to the City Council relative to the Smallpox Hospital whether or not it is required by law that the said hospital be retained under the control of the Health Commissioner."

Section 92 of chapter 111 of the General Laws (Ter. Ed.) provides as follows:

"Each city, except Brockton, shall, and each town may, and upon request of the department shall, establish and maintain constantly within its limits one or more hospitals for the reception of persons having smallpox, diphtheria, scarlet fever, tuberculosis or other diseases dangerous to the public health as defined by the department, unless there already exists therein a hospital satisfactory to the department for the reception of persons ill with such diseases, or unless son e arrangement satisfactory to the department is made between neighboring municipalities for the care of such persons. All such hospitals established and maintained by cities and towns shall be subject to the orders and regulations of the boards of health thereof. Plans for construction of such hospitals shall be approved by the department before they are constructed, and the district health officers shall annually make such examination of said hospitals, and of all other hospitals, sanatoria, asylums, homes, prisons and dispensaries, both public and private, caring for diseases dangerous to the public health, as in the opinion of the department may be necessary, and report as to their condition and needs to those responsible for their management. A city or town which, upon the request of the department, refuses or neglects to establish and maintain such a hospital shall forfeit not more than five hundred dollars; provided, that if, in the opinion of the boards of health of two or more adjoining municipalities, such hospitals can advantageously be established and maintained in common, the authorities of the said cities or towns may, subject to the approval of the department, enter into any agreements deemed necessary to establish and maintain the same. Cities and towns having a population of less than one hundred thousand inhabitants according to the last national census shall not be required by this section to make hospital provisions for tubercular patients."

Section 3 of chapter 16 of the Revised Ordinances of 1925 contains the following:

"The health commissioner . . . shall have charge of the hospital for persons having infectious diseases, established by the city, and of the patients in said hospital . . ."

It is my opinion in view of the foregoing that the hospital in question, so long as it is maintained by the city, must remain subject to the orders and regulations and under the charge of the Health Commissioner. I have been informed by the Health Commissioner that, as indicated in my letter to your honorable body on May 21, 1934, said hospital is still maintained by the city. I have also been informed by the Health Commissioner that said hospital still remains subject to his orders and regulations and under his charge.

Very truly yours,
HENRY E. FOLEY,
Corporation Counsel.

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION.

Coun. McGRATH offered the following:
Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor submit the following message to the Director of Public Celebrations:

Councilor Joseph McGrath,
City Hall.

Dear Sir,—Last November when Frederick W. Mansfield was pleading for support in his contest for Mayor of Boston, the voters of Ward 13 gave him the following emphatic support:
Mansfield, 3,226. Foley, 2,730. Nichols, 2,535.
Now that he has won the coveted honor with our help he shows a surprising lack of appreciation. The one department head living in Ward 13 was removed from office, and Mayor Mansfield appointed a resident and voter in the town of Needham to this position. Not a single position has been given to a resident of Ward 13 by Mayor Mansfield.
Now to add insult to injury, Ward 13 is the only ward in Boston purposely eliminated from the 4th of July celebration, paid for in part by Ward 13 taxpayers, yet not one dollar will be spent by the city for the enjoyment of the 3,226 supporters, or their children's enjoyment.
I would like to ask you, Mr. Councilor, if this is Mayor Mansfield's idea of gratitude.

Very truly yours,
UPHAM'S CORNER CIVIC ASSOCIATION.

Coun. McGRATH—Mr. President, my only reason for submitting this inquiry order to his Honor was that I had no communication with that office, not having been in there since his Honor took office, and never having been invited in there, and I thought perhaps the Upham's Corner Civic Association thought I could answer for the Mayor and I am unable to do that and for that reason I wanted to have them get their communication in the hands of the man that should be responsible to the people. Unfortunately, there were 3,500-odd misguided people in the ward, of which I was not one, who voted for his Honor last November, perhaps on the theory he was to reduce 65 per cent the budget of the preceding year. However, it does seem that his Honor should know how an association of this kind who were supporters of him feel relative to this neglect of the ward. At a time like this when the other twenty-one wards are having a Fourth of July celebration, I suppose they feel they should have one, and so I am putting this into the hands of the Mayor as the responsible party to allow him to answer to those 3,500 as to why they were neglected.

Coun. SELVITELLA—I am interested in the remarks of the councilor because I have learned a way of making an entree and I sympathize with him in the lack of communication. While we are on the subject of a Fourth of July celebration, we might be a little premature, but I think that when that day has gone that we will each and every one of us here have to take an inventory or stock of just what is going to transpire on July 4th. I have learned something here today, that when we do send a communication and it doesn't get to the party, or at least they say it doesn't, we have a way of introducing an order and getting that communication to the Mayor's office. East Boston gave Mayor Mansfield 6,200 votes, more than three thousand more than his nearest competitor. We have not been as unfortunate as the councilor from Ward 13, as I understand from run-about sources, and from other people who do not live in my district, that we are going to get $500 for a celebration. I do not suppose I ought to permit this opportunity to pass without giving my vote of thanks to the Mayor of Boston because last year we received $1,500 and, being a local boy, of course we did not expect as much as $1,500, but we are getting $500, but it occurs to me at this time that small politics are being played. That $500 was suggested a month ago and we were going to get fireworks and a band concert, but through my efforts, and with the help of my friends, such as the President of this Council, we persuaded, or he persuaded the Mayor to allow us to spend that money as we saw fit. Now the suggestion originally was made by the councilor from East Boston, but of course he couldn't be allowed to get that credit and it was laid on the table until our Congressman from Washington arrived in town, so in order that he might get the credit rather than Selvitella they waited until last Friday and the Congressman received due credit for something that he was surprised to know anything about. I think the Fourth of July is a celebration where the councilor from each district is responsible for the proper success. At least, that has been my understanding, but because men like McGrath, Wilson, and a few others,—I do not want to put them on the spot,—who have stood on this floor and fought for what they thought was the best interest of their district, small politics is being played to try to keep the various councilors out of the picture. Now, I am a new man in this body and I am willing to learn and I have learned something today and I hope before I complete my two years at least I will understand human nature.

Coun. FISH—I think that piece of literature is just trying to show up the present Mayor of Boston for the purpose of boosting a certain candidate for Governor of the Commonwealth, and may I say to the councilor from Ward 13 that James M. Curley treated Dorchester pretty rotten the last three years regarding ice cream and candy for the kiddos.

Coun. NORTON—My ward is a ward of home owners and a ward of small children. It is a factory section. They have the American Tool Machine Company, the car shops of the New Haven Railroad, Sturtevant Company and others, and we are not going to get five cents, and I don't know as I want any money. Out there we have five thousand children without shoes. We must have ten thousand who are not getting enough milk. Four years ago I think we had a couple of thousand dollars. Those were flush years,—just throwing it away. Yes, we plead guilty. I rather take it if the Mayor would see fit to give me five cents out there, if he would, I would rather give it out to the children for more milk and clothing rather than to throw it up in the air on balloons.

Coun. McGRATH—In answer to the councilor from Ward 16, I would say it is my understanding that the Upham's Corner Civic Association is about 95 per cent Republican and I doubt if they are interested in the Democratic Primaries. As a matter of fact, I didn't introduce the order as coming from myself, I introduced it because they called on me to ask whether I thought this was Mayor Mansfield's idea of gratitude and not knowing the idea of the Mayor on gratitude, and what gratitude he should show the ward, I thought by this method I should send it over to the man who is responsible for the appropriation, the Mayor of Boston. This comes directly from the Civic Association.
Order passed under suspension of the rules.

CONTRACTS UNDER COMPETITIVE BIDDING.

Coun. NORTON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to let out the following contracts under competitive bidding, namely, permanent paving, smooth paving and artificial stone sidewalks.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

FLOODING CERTAIN STREETS DURING HOT WEATHER.

Coun. NORTON offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor of Boston consider the advisability of requesting the Fire Commissioner, during the hot weeks of the summer, to flood certain streets of the city, especially where there are a large number of children, and also to use to capacity the sprinkler shower bath system attached to the hydrants.

Coun. NORTON—I think it is possible that in so far as here in Boston we suffer from the most acute stages of humidity and hot weather during the period of six weeks in the average year, it would seem it would be economical to spend a little money on the matter of sprinklers at the various hydrants in the poor sections of Boston. I believe we can save money if we take that previous order and look into the matter of patched paving, where there is no bidding. There is no question of competition in it. It is just giving it to the political friend to get as much as possible out of it and soak public utilities as much more, which is being paid back in electric light rates. That has been going on for a number of years and should be stopped. If we stop part of that we will have enough money to take care of the children in hot weather.

Passed under suspension of the rules.

LICENSE TO SELL LIQUOR IN HYDE PARK.

Coun. NORTON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Mayor of Boston be respectfully requested to consider the advisability of requesting the Alcoholic Beverage Commission to review the matter of the issuance of licenses to sell intoxicating beverages in the Hyde Park section of Boston, especially in cases where the Boston Licensing Board has turned down the application and the Alcoholic Beverage Commission has approved of same.

Coun. NORTON—The Boston Licensing Commission, acting at the request of every clergyman in the Hyde Park section of Boston and every civic organization of that section, has turned down the request of two applicants to sell liquor in the Hyde Park section. Those two licenses have been granted over the heads of the Boston Licensing Board, and the Hyde Park section is a Niagara of rum shops and we want to know where it is going to stop. With the Boston Licensing Board turning down applicants they can go somewhere else and land feet up.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

AIR-CONDITIONING CITY HOSPITAL.

Coun. NORTON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Trustees of the Boston City Hospital, through his Honor the Mayor, be requested to consider the advisability of air-conditioning a section of one of the new buildings.

Coun. NORTON—For four years during the hot weather I have introduced that order. It is bad enough for well people during weather of this nature to get along, but think of the thousands in the hospital with fever. There is no reason why one or two or three floors of one of these new hospital units could not be air-conditioned today. Four years ago some of the doctors said it was not a good thing for sick people. The American Medical Association on that question has advised me here in writing, in a three-page letter, that it is a good thing and does save life and I respectfully at this time turn over to the authorities, whoever they may happen to be, this file, which I have put together during the last four years, on the matter of air-conditioning two or three of the floors in one of the new buildings where patients who suffer from the humidity will have an opportunity at least of enjoying that wonderful influence of air-conditioning.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

DISPENSING OF COATS BY CERTAIN POLICE OFFICERS.

Coun. NORTON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Police Commissioner of Boston be requested to consider the matter of allowing certain police officers of Boston to dispense with their coats during the extreme hot weeks of the summer.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SURVEY OF ALL LICENSES AND PERMITS.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That the President of the City Council be requested to appoint a special committee, composed of five members of the City Council, to make a complete survey and detailed investigation of any and all licenses and permits now issued by any and all departments of the City of Boston, whether or not a fee is now charged, but as to which he provisions of chapter 297 of the Acts of 1931 may be applicable, with a view to determining and fixing fair and proper fees in each case.

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be, and hereby is, requested to obtain from all city departments and supply forthwith to the City Council the following information in detail:

a. A complete list of each and every type of license, permit and certificate now obtainable from or used by each department as to which a fee is now charged and with reference to which chapter 297 of the Acts of 1931 may be applicable.

b. A complete list of each and every type of license, permit and certificate obtainable from or used by each department as to which no fee is now charged, but with reference to which chapter 297 of the Acts of 1931 may be applicable.

Further ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be, and hereby is, requested to further advise the City Council forthwith concerning the above information in each and every case:

a. The name and division of each department referred to.

b. The type or name of each permit and license now used by each department.

c. The number of each type of such permits and licenses granted or issued annually for each year from 1929 to 1933, inclusive.

d. A designation as to which of said permits and licenses are now issued without any charge whatever.

e. The amount of any charge now made for each permit or license.

f. Any changes in the charge for permit or license made between January 1, 1929, and December 31, 1933, inclusive.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, very briefly, of course, the Acts of 1931, chapter 297, a little over two years ago was an act authorizing the City Council of Boston, with the approval of the Mayor, to fix fees for certain licenses and permits, not including marriage licenses, and I think we should approach it from the angle in which the Legislature intended the passage of the act. It specifically reads, "The City Council of Boston shall fix the rates, subject to the approval of the Mayor," and with the budget out of the way I would assume this is perhaps one of our more important functions for the balance of the year, that a complete survey and investigation should be made. It is not improbable that the new Mayor may begin inquiries along these lines, but the work should be done by the City Council based on information received from the various department heads. I have in mind permits and licenses which are now grossly inadequately charged for. I have in mind the many permits and licenses which the City of Boston issues which have no charge. I have in mind an item such as, for example, the issuing of permits by the Police Department for Sunday work, considered as emergency, which should bring in a revenue of upwards of $5,000. I have in mind issuing of certificates to men as registered voters which requires a large part of the time of the Election Department and should have a substantial charge. I have in mind the gasolene permits, which I believe now have a charge of something like $1 or $2, but having in mind the profit in gas permits in some prior years at least a charge from $25 to $50 would seem applicable and I feel if this matter is properly gone into by the body authorized to take it up by the Acts of 1931 of the Legislature, we can add a substantial amount of revenue to the City of Boston and certainly enough in the various departments to make up the deficiency which makes it possible for the single men on the welfare to be at least for some time kept out of the fate that has been promised to them in the recent ruling of the Board.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

CONFIRMATION OF APPOINTMENTS.

Coun. GLEASON called up, under No. 2 on the calendar, the name of George M. Pierce.

The Chair also called up No. 3 on the calendar, viz.:

3. Action on appointments submitted by the Mayor June 11, 1934, of Robert Fuller and Paul Dalmasa, to be Weighers of Goods.

The President appointed Coun. Green and Agnew to be a committee to receive, sort and count the ballots.

The committee attended to the duty assigned them.

The appointments were confirmed, yeas 16, nays 0.

WELFARE PAYMENTS TO SINGLE MEN.

Coun. SELVITELLA offered the following:

Ordered, That the Overseers of the Public Welfare be requested to inform the City Council, in the matter of the proposed substitution of food and lodging cards instead of cash payments for single men, whether or not it is the intention of the Board to treat all such single men as a class or to deal with the individual cases.

Coun. SELVITELLA—Mr. President, I am going to be very brief. This order is with reference to the order that was issued by the executive director of the Welfare Department last week regarding 1,500 so-called single men who were receiving $4 in cash and who were notified they were going to get a $2 meal book instead. Now, my understanding of those single men's cases is that if a man is a widower he is considered a single man. If he has been separated from his family at some time during his life, he is considered a single man. Now, never have I been more sincere than at the present time with reference to this order, because the past two or three months I have been hearing a lot of rumblings by the Public Welfare Department and about the huge fraudulent cases that existed. I kept silent because I would rather have a reorganization of the Welfare Department than permit a single case to remain on the rolls that was not properly there, and when this new Board was appointed and when the new executive director, Mr. Dowling, was appointed, I was in hopes his first work would be to uncover these so-called fraudulent cases and when last week he sent out this order I was surprised because then I felt that he, in his attempt to clarify the Public Welfare Department, confesses that there does not exist a single fraudulent case, because to take these 1,500 men and ask them to take a book regardless of where the man might live, whether it be in South Boston, East Boston, or Roxbury, and say to him, "You must go to the Volunteer Cafe on Brattle street and have your meals." Now this book represents $2 in meals,—twenty-one meals per week which is an average of 9½ cents. Well, now, I don't know just what kind of a meal 9½ cents will produce, but I think we are all men of practical experience, so we know that 9½ cents will not give much of a return and it is unfair that many men who are advanced in years, men who have contributed a great many years of their life to the community, who because of adverse circumstances, beyond their control, are now paying the penalty to justify the removal of the executive director. I am not here in his defense, but anyone can assume the duties of that office and scribble out an order such as Mr. Dowling did and then say that he is upholding the duties of his office and publishing it as something which this Council intended him to do. I say it is unfair to have these men who are beyond the age of fifty years, who are unable to get any work, at least give them an opportunity of performing work. They are not hobos or tramps or bums. They were respectable citizens of their community and are today and it is unfair to have them go to a "scratch house" and say to them that you must sleep in those quarters, and if you do not you will be off the welfare roll. So we are to take some measure of responsibility. My order is asking the Board of Public Wellare to treat each case individually and if he finds in his investigation that any man has been using the money for liquor, then I would be the first one to take him off the rolls, but if that man is a man who has been devoting his life to the community and made every effort to make an honest living, it is unfair to drive him from his little one or two room flat he might now be using. I have no quarrel with Mr. Dowling. I don't know him, but as I stated at the time he took office, that he was unfitted by training to assume the duties of that office, because if a man has devoted his life to prosecution, and that is all he has done, who has been connected with these reform organizations, then he is not the man because he lacks that sympathetic understanding that I charged him with at that time, and when we have a man through whose veins ice water runs—and I don't mean the ice water of the fountain—then I say it is time this Council took some action because this is the beginning of other things that are going to happen and will be worse than this order. Now, I have no quarrel with the Mayor's office, but he must assume responsibility for whatever this man does and I believe I am expressing the sentiment of this Council when I say we are all desirous of ridding the rolls of "fakirs," but do not start on men who have only a few more years in this world, who in some cases would be tempted to commit suicide rather than take this $2 book and walk the streets until they got a 9½-cent meal or go to any of those "scratch houses," that the city will have to pay anyway, so there cannot be much of a saving. I have no quarrel with the Mayor if he is desirous of decent economy, nor any quarrel with him if he wishes to dine the naval officers at the Hotel Touraine, because that is a good act of courtesy. Neither have I any quarrel with him if he sees fit to bring guests to the Parker House and dine them at the expense of the City of Boston, because that is all incidental to his duties. Neither have I any quarrel if he sees fit, as I am told, to spend $175 for gold scissors to cut the tape in order that they may pass through the East Boston Tunnel. That is his business. I hope, however, it is not true, but, gentlemen, this is a serious business. Let us give these men who represent our communities in various parts of Boston an opportunity to enjoy life, health and happiness, and if there is a spark of sympathy in the present Mayor I hope he will, and I shall be the first to congratulate him if he will, revoke this order and have every man come before the Board or have every man investigated individually and find out whether he is deserving of at least $4 a week. [Applause.]

The PRESIDENT—Under the rules of the Council we cannot allow any applause. The spectators are here as our guests, and are expected to observe that rule.

Coun. ROBERTS—Mr. President, I am glad the councilor introduced the order on this matter. I think we all should have in mind a certain situation peculiar to a few of our wards. I refer to the South End of Boston, where there are many lodging houses and where many of the men who are so radically affected by this order live. I refer particularly to Wards 5, 8 and 9, and the councilors from these wards can attest to the fact that there are a number of well-meaning individuals, who totally through some fault beyond their control, cannot find work. There is a certain class of people in every city in the United States between the ages of fifty and sixty who probably will never find work again. They have been respectable citizens and they find themselves so reduced in circumstances they have to go to the Welfare Department. They constitute a fine body of men and it is a social problem we have to deal with and I think the Welfare Department would be making the biggest mistake if they put this order into effect without investigation of the individual cases. Some time ago the Welfare Department inaugurated a system whereby the men receiving the welfare should produce receipts from their landladies and I think that is in vogue at the present time. Now, the slightest kind of an investigation will show just which ones of this class of people are actually worthy of assistance and let us not throw them on the streets. They have been humiliated enough and they are receiving a small amount as it is. I think an investigation would be in order, and before anything else is done let us have a thorough investigation and let us not have any unfortunate acts.

President DOWD—The Chair will call Councilor McGrath to the chair.

Coun. McGrath in the chair.

Coun. GOLDMAN—While I do not always agree with Councilor Selvitella, this is one occasion where I offer the same sentiments he does. When I first read about it I wrote to Dowling the following letter, which I will submit with the consent of the Council. And I say here that this is not Mayor Mansfield's policy at all. That is the attitude of Dowling and Dowling alone and I join Councilor Selvitella in urging immediate elimination of these books and I agree wholeheartedly in his suggestions here today.

President DOWD—Mr. Chairman, this is my maiden speech for the year. For nine years, all during my public career, I have done the utmost I could to uplift the burden that rests upon the shoulders of the poor of Boston. The time has not come in the history of Boston when any individual, no matter who he may be, can say that we are going to take 1,500 men and put them on the streets of Boston. We cannot say to the man who has a little one-room flat where he cooks his own food, "You have got to discard your furniture, we are not going to give you a place to sleep or shave or keep clean; we are going to force you to sleep on the streets." Any self-respecting person rather than go to the Hell hotel like Dawes Hotel would rather sleep on the streets where, at least, he might have a chance of coming away without going to a delousing plant of some kind. There is no man more worried about the situation in the last few days that I have been. I represent a ward of poor people and much as I dislike to leave the President's chair to take issue in the City Council I believe today I am forced to do so, and I am forced to do so because of the fact I went to see the Mayor this morning and put the facts up to him just as cold as any man could do and I want to say to you, Mr. Chairman, the very words the Mayor of Boston said to me: "That I, Mayor Mansfield, do not want to see any single worthy man cut off the pay roll and I want you, Mr. President, to tell the members of the Council that if they know of one worthy man who is cut off to have him reapply immediately and he will be investigated, and if his case is found worthy, then he will be put back on the rolls immediately." Then I said: "What about the men fifty-five, sixty or sixty-five years of age?" He said, "I am going to issue an order that discretion be used with all the people by the visitors in the Welfare Department." And let me say to some of those visitors who are as hard-boiled as they possibly can be, who have never known what it is to be poor, who owe everything they ever had to the people who are receiving aid, that they better use discretion. I want to know of a single, solitary worthy case in my ward of any man put off the welfare. If he is, and he is worthy, he is going to go back on the welfare, but the men, of course, who spend their $4 or $5 for anything it is not intended to be used for, then we cannot do anything for them. I said, "Is it true that something is going to be done with the women of Boston, with the 4,500 women who are going to be thrown on the bricks the same as the men?" He said, "There is absolutely no truth in that whatsoever," and he called Mr. McMurry, chairman of the Public Welfare Department, and asked him if any conversation was had so far as the women of Boston were concerned and Mr. McMurry's answer was "No." I like to be neutral as President of the Council. I have only a few months more to sit up there and then I will be back where I belong, but at the same time I am not going to allow any self-appointed officer to dictate the policies of telling how the poor of Boston shall be treated. I believe the Mayor's attitude and answer will meet with the approbation and the approval of the public and our councilors. His answer is, that every case will be investigated and if that man is found worthy, then that man will be retained on the rolls, and I want to say to you, sir, and to every member of this Council, and to the people of my district and the people of Boston, that if there is any single, individual case that is a worthy case that is cut off the rolls by some hard-boiled visitor because they want to make a saving in their department, then I want to know about it, and I will do everything I can to correct the unjust evil that has been or is attempting to be done.

Coun. DONOVAN—I desire to call to the attention of the members of this body the fact that I know of one individual who has an artificial limb —a leg— who has been taken out of his room and obliged to go to the Volunteers of America to receive his meals. Last Wednesday was the pay day and the following Wednesday being a holiday, he was given two books. This man is fifty-seven years of age, born in Boston and has been obliged to do this. I wish to inform the Mayor that I know of one case and I hope this man's case will be rectified.

Coun. GREEN—I think we ought to take some drastic action this afternoon; ought to request the City Messenger to invite Mr. Dowling to appear before the City Council in executive session. If the monarch of all he surveys issued these orders without consulting the Mayor I think we ought to have a show-down and if he is cold-blooded, we will try to thaw him out. I make a motion to bring Mr. Dowling before the committee in executive session.

President DOWD—I already thought of that this morning, because I felt we ought to have him up here to give him a little thawing out, but the Welfare Department was holding their meeting at three o'clock and I conferred with McMurry and found they would not be released until after six o'clock. I might suggest that you appoint a committee of five to wait upon the Mayor and see if he gives the same answer to the committee as to me.

Coun. NORTON—I see no reason why McMurry and Dowling, if they are there, cannot come up now. [Applause.]

Acting President McGRATH—The Chair will state that those in the gallery are here as our welcome guests. The rules of the Council do not permit approval or disapproval of any speech on the Council floor, and I ask you as our guests to respect that rule.

The question then came on the motion of Coun. Green that the Council send for Chairman McMurry and Secretary Dowling of the Welfare Department.

Motion carried, and the City Messenger instructed to ask both of those gentlemen to come up.

Acting President McGRATH—The question is on the passage of the order of Councilor Selvitella.

Coun. NORTON—Mr. Chairman, we want to be fair. A statement was made on the floor that $175 was paid for a pair of gold scissors so that a leading personage could officially open the tunnel. $175, I understand, was paid for the scissors and paid to the Bigelow Kennard Company, but was paid not out of the City of Boston funds, but paid personally by the chairman, Thomas Sullivan, and his two colleagues, John McDonald and Arthur V. Sullivan.

Coun. SELVITELLA—Mr. Chairman, I didn't go so far as to say it was paid by the City of Boston. I said it was called to my attention that $175 was paid for the pair of gold scissors and I thought I said I hoped it was not so.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

In connection with the order, Coun. Selvitella submitted the following:

"AS I SEE IT."

(An Address by Richard Grant over Yankee Network on Wednesday, June 27, 1934.)

Good Evening Friends. Well, your old friend John C. Dowling of the Watch and Ward Society is off in a cloud of dust on his new job as head of the Boston Welfare Department. A couple of days back, John dashed off a statement showing that he had been able to save a lot of money for the taxpayers by chasing hundreds of people off the charity list, and today the Welfare Board announced a new policy that will send all the single men on the welfare list scurrying from one "beanery" to another, looking for a place where they can buy a good home-cooked dinner for 10 cents. In the past these fellows have been getting $4 in cash every week, which certainly didn't encourage them to become spendthrifts, but from now on they'll get no money at all, just a food order, good for $2 worth of groceries at any hotel or restaurant in the city.

That figures out—according to the same kind of arithmetic Mr. Dowling uses in computing his income tax—to twenty-one meals a week—assuming that even people who are on the welfare list are accustomed to eat three times a day—at the rate of nine and a half cents a meal. Well, sir, if I knew of any place where I could eat for nine and a half cents I'd go there myself, but so far I haven't been able to find one where you could even buy doughnuts and coffee for less than a dime. And if it wasn't for the cruel irony of the situation I think I'd laugh right out loud at Mr. Dowling's explanation of the Welfare Department's new deal. He says it is being done to "create among the men an individual sense of responsibility." No doubt they'll all start wearing white vests to look like bank directors when they walk up to the counterman in a one-arm lunch and take out their pauper's tickets to ask for nine and a half cents worth of caviar.

And if a welfare recipient who falls into this class is not living at home or with a family group, Mr. Dowling has arranged to have him sleep at the Wayfarers' Lodge on Hawkins street, where he will have the privilege of rubbing elbows with tramps and other human derelicts whose company should go a long way toward helping him to retain his individual sense of responsibility. About six thousand men will be affected in all by the new order which goes into effect next week, and it will be a big surprise to some of Mr. Dowling's own welfare workers who didn't throw their hats in the air and cheer when the news was given out this afternoon. A long line of welfare recipients was waiting in Hawkins street when it happened and several of them fainted, I understand, when they heard what was going to happen.

Now, what I would like to know is just how debased in his own esteem a man must become in order to be considered by the City Welfare Board a fitting object of charity. It looks to me as if the object of this move, instead of promoting individual responsibility, is to make the position of anybody who applies for public welfare assistance so lacking in individuality or self-respect that people will starve or commit suicide sooner than break the last thread that binds them to respectability. I'm sure I'd rather jump off a dock than accept this kind of help from John Dowling. But maybe that's what John wants and there are a few other people in town who would probably pay to see me do it.

And if the charge that I've so often heard made by people whose sole interest is in the size of the tax rate is true—that everybody on the welfare rolls is a chiseler who would rather accept a dole than work if he had the chance—what's the sense of paying anything for welfare aid? Why does the city spend $13,000,000 a year? Well, it has always been my idea that the only reason for having cities is to make it easier for all who live in them to work for their mutual benefit. Boston pays out a large sum to keep the Elevated Railway running so that people can go about. It builds sewers for sanitation and maintains recreational activities to ensure the ensuing generation of sound, healthy bodies. But apparently it is resolving itself into a government like that of Ancient Sparta, where the weak were trampled and destroyed on the theory that they had no right to live and be a burden on the able-bodied citizens of the community.

How fond we are of prattling about the virtues of the Good Samaritan of the Bible who bound up the wounds of his natural enemy and restored him to health. We even hire teachers to train our children that the most valuable asset they can possess when they go out into the world to make their way is self-reliance and the good American philosophy that one man is as good as another as long as he behaves himself. And yet in Boston, the capital city of Massachusetts, Hub of the Universe, center of culture, we shall inaugurate next Monday a plan to deliberately pauperize and stultify thousands of decent fellows whose only crime is being temporarily down on their luck. If Mr. Dowling can't think of some better way to reorganize the Public Welfare Department than this and the Mayor can't find a human being to take his place, then the city is in a very bad way indeed.

Coun. GOLDMAN submitted the following letter:

Boston City Council,
Council Chamber,
City Hall, June 29, 1934.

John C. L. Dowling,
Executive Director, Overseers of the Public Welfare, Boston.

Dear Sir,—Please record my indignant protest against the proposed policy of your department with respect to single men living with relatives. The issuing of $2 meal tickets for a week's food and the virtual concentration of these men into public lodging houses is contrary to every principle of humane, social welfare work. It is uncivilized and inhuman. I refuse to believe that this city has come to such a sorry condition when we must herd men together like animals and force them into a most degrading type of existence.

Under the present system these men still can retain their self-respect and morale. Most of these men are honest, decent Americans, who are unable to obtain work and are on the welfare roles as a last resort. Their future is bleak enough without dealing them such a humiliating blow. Not even the most urgent demands of economy should cause us to relegate these men to the barbaric existence which you propose to impose on them. These lodging houses in which you expect to herd them will become breeding places for discontent. Every form of vicious doctrine will find fertile ground among these men who have been practically disowned by society. You cannot break the morale and self-respect of a human being without expecting dangerous consequences.

If you must economize, do it in some other way. Don't sacrifice human lives! Human values are too sacred to be tossed aside in the name of economy. Eliminate the frauds from your list, drop the undeserving cases, but, for God's sake, let's treat those deserving Americans who are on the Welfare rolls like human beings. Let them be able to look at the world with self-respect and dignity when we have emerged from these troublesome times.

Sincerely yours,
MAURICE M. GOLDMAN, Councilor.

HEARSAY INFORMATION RE WELFARE RECIPIENTS.

Coun. BRACKMAN offered the following:
Ordered, That the Overseers of Public Welfare be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, not to stop aid in any case, where hearsay information is received by the department, without first investigating said information.

Coun. BRACKMAN—Mr. President, this seems to be a day to discuss the Welfare Department, and being one of the most important functions, I think we have spent this time properly in discussing its affairs. Several cases have come to my knowledge within recent times of where hearsay evidence was given to the Board of Welfare by some anonymous person or someone would call up and say one of the recipients was working and then, acting on such information, that person's aid was stopped, and then an investigation started and in the meantime that person would be without aid for perhaps two weeks. Then it would be disclosed that perhaps there was nothing to this information or there was some weight to it. I think it is wrong to stop a person's aid because some person gives information and then a week or two to investigate it to the detriment and suffering of that individual.
Order passed under suspension of the rule.

CHARLES STREET TRAFFIC.

Coun. GREEN, for Coun. Fitzgerald, offered the following:
Ordered, That the Traffic Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to provide for the installation of automatic traffic signal lights on Charles street, at the junction of Allen street and at the junction of Chambers street.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

Coun. GREEN, for Coun. Fitzgerald, offered the following:
Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor request the Police Commissioner to place traffic officers on duty at the junction of Allen street and Charles street, from 8 a. m. to 11 p. m., and at the circle at the junction of Leverett and Charles streets at the same time.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

Coun. GREEN, for Coun. Fitzgerald, offered the following:
Ordered, That the Traffic Commissioner, through his Honor the Mayor, be requested to place "Stop" signs at all streets leading into Charles street, from Cambridge to Leverett street.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

INSTALLATION OF TRAFFIC LIGHTS.

Coun. ROBERTS offered the following:
Ordered, That the Traffic Commissioner, through his Honor the Mayor, be requested to install traffic lights at Columbus avenue and Dartmouth street.
Coun. ROBERTS—This is the fourth time I have introduced this order and since January first there have been several more deaths at this particular section where three streets come in. According to the records it is the third worst place in Boston. I propose to reintroduce this order every time another death occurs.
Order passed under suspension of the rule.

CLEANING BATHING BEACHES ALONG SOUTH BOSTON WATERFRONT.

Coun. KERRIGAN and DONOVAN offered the following:
Ordered, That the Park Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to take immediate steps to have old tin cans, broken bottles, decayed fruit and all other rubbish and foreign substances removed from the bathing beaches along the South Boston waterfront, as a means of protecting the health of the bathers.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

SIGNS ON CAGES AT FRANKLIN PARK ZOO.

Coun. KERRIGAN offered the following:
Ordered, That the Park Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to place cards or signs on the cages of the various animals at the Franklin Park Zoo, giving the name and history of each animal.
Passed under a suspension of the rule.

TRANSFER OF LONG ISLAND STUDENT NURSES.

Coun. DOHERTY offered the following:
Ordered, That the Institutions Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to inform the City Council as to what progress, if any, has been made with reference to the transfer of nursing students from the Long Island Hospital Training School to the Boston City Hospital Training School, to afford them an opportunity to complete their course of training.
Coun. DOHERTY—As Chairman of the Hospital Committee I have not been able to get information whether the class of nurses discharged from the Long Island Hospital are going to the City Hospital. I would like to have this order referred to the Executive Committee so we can find out just exactly where these girls stand.
Referred to Executive Committee.

RESURFACING STANWOOD STREET.

Coun. GOLDMAN offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to resurface Stanwood street in Ward 14, from Blue Hill avenue to Columbia road.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

TRAFFIC LIGHTS AT LUCERNE STREET AND WOODROW AVENUE.

Coun. GOLDMAN offered the following:
Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor direct the Board of Street Commissioners to install a light at the corner of Lucerne street and Woodrow avenue in Ward 14.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

CONTINUATION OF E. R. A. PROJECTS.

Coun. GOLDMAN offered the following:
Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to continue the E. R. A. projects as contained in page 222 of Council Records of the meeting of June 4, and that each order offered therein should be continued again as if a new order and ask that the date be extended to continue all of them until at least August 15, 1934.
Coun. GOLDMAN—On that last order of mine you will recall under date of June 4 I introduced that order regarding the E. R. A. project on that Bridge and Ferry Service. There are five orders and I felt perhaps it would not be advisable to clutter up the record by reading the same orders. We had word they were continuing that from July 1 and I am now asking again a continuance until August 15.
Order passed under suspension of the rule.

PEDESTRIAN LANES.

Coun. AGNEW offered the following:
Ordered, That the Traffic Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to paint pedestrian lanes at the following locations in Ward 21:
Chestnut Hill avenue and Commonwealth avenue, Warren street and Commonwealth avenue, Allston street and Commonwealth avenue, Union square, Allston.
Passed under suspension of the rule.

REPAIRING NORTHERN AVENUE BRIDGE.

Coun. DONOVAN offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to proceed immediately with the work of repairing the Northern Avenue Bridge.
Coun. DONOVAN—Several months ago this body passed a loan order to the extent of $375,000 for the repairs of the Northern Avenue Bridge. The bridge has been out of commission for six months causing confusion in that vicinity. Shipping interests have lost thousands of dollars because cargoes assigned to them have not reached the docks in time. Motor transportation has been at a standstill and I am calling on the Mayor to start immediately the reconstruction of the Northern Avenue Bridge so conditions will not be further complicated.
Order passed under suspension of the rule.

AGE LIMIT FOR GUARDS AND GATEMEN IN EAST BOSTON TUNNEL.

Coun. DONOVAN offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to inform the City Council as to his reason for establishing an age limit for guards and gatemen to be appointed on the new East Boston Traffic Tunnel.
Coun. DONOVAN—I understand the age limit has been placed on the men who are to serve as guards in the new vehicular tunnel. The age limit is set at forty, and eight of the first nineteen men on the civil service list have been declared ineligible because they are over forty. Now, these men are being done a great injustice by making a hurdle of the age of forty. I ask the Mayor to reconsider his action.
Order passed under suspension of the rule.
Coun. GREEN—I would like to ask what report the City Messenger received from Mr. McMurry and Mr. Dowling?
CITY MESSENGER—I was unable to get any report. The secretary told me that neither Mr. McMurry nor Mr. Dowling were able to leave the meeting they were attending.
Acting President McGRATH—The Chair will announce the matter will be taken up in executive session.
Coun. DONOVAN—Colonel Sullivan has told me that if we desire his presence at executive session to explain the $175 for those gold scissors, he would be glad to come down and explain.
Acting President McGRATH—That will be taken up in executive session.
Coun. WILSON—Might we also suggest that one reason we would like to have that in the meeting of the Council is that we would like more light on the million dollar order we are asked to pass in a rush today.
Acting President McGRATH—The matter will be taken up in executive session.

RECESS.

The Council took a recess at 3.43 p. m., and were called to order in the chamber by President DOWD at 4.40 p. m.

President DOWD—The order was taken from the table and the question came on passage of the order.

Coun. FISH—I am opposed to taking this from the table or voting on this order.

President DOWD—It is already taken from the table. Question now is on the passage.

Coun. FISH—I am opposed to the passage of the order. After we voted against it last week I don't see any reason why we can vote for it now.

The question came on passage of the order.

The order failed of passage, the vote on its passage being:

Yeas—Coun. Agnew, Doherty, Dowd, Englert, Gleason, Goldman, Kerrigan, Tobin, Wilson—9.

Coun. GREEN—I withdraw my motion.

Coun. GOLDMAN—I move we meet two weeks from today. There is no need of meeting next Monday.

The motion was adopted and the Council voted, at 5.15 p. m., to adjourn, to meet on Monday, July 16, 1934, at 2 p. m.

CONTINUATION OF E. R. A. PROJECT AT CITY HOSPITAL.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 3, 1934.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit a letter from the Board of Trustees of the Boston City Hospital, relative to your order of June 4, 1934, concerning the continuance of the E. R. A. projects now in operation at the Boston City Hospital and its various divisions.

The trustees requested me to state that the E. R. A. projects are in progress at the present time. If these projects are to be continued the Hospital Department will join in their continuance.

Yours sincerely,
JOSEPH P. MANNING,

KOSHER FOOD AT CITY HOSPITAL.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 3, 1934.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit a letter from the Board of Trustees of the Boston City Hospital relative to your order of June 11, 1934, concerning the making of adequate provisions for serving "Kosher food," in conformity with the Jewish dietary laws, to hospital patients of the Hebrew faith.

Respectfully,
FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Hospital Department, June 22, 1934.

Hon. Frederick W. Mansfield,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—At a meeting of the Board of Trustees held today an order of the City Council was presented, whereby the trustees are requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to make adequate provision for the serving of "Kosher food," in conformance with the Jewish dietary laws, to hospital patients of the Hebrew faith.

Due to the fact that very few requests for Kosher food are received in the hospital, and because of the size of the organization, it was deemed inadvisable to attempt to provide Kosher food.

Yours sincerely,
JOSEPH P. MANNING,
President, Board of Trustees.

APPROPRIATION FOR WEST ROXBURY SCHOOLS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Officer of the Mayor, July 5, 1934.

To the Honorable the City Council.

Gentlemen,—On February 26, 1934, your honorable body gave its second and final reading and passage to an order appropriating, under the provisions of chapter 366 of the Acts of 1933, and acts in amendment thereof and in addition thereto, the sum of two million dollars ($2,000,000), to be expended under the direction of the School Committee, for one new high school and one new intermediate school, and on April 14, 1934, the City and the United States of America entered into a grant agreement providing for a grant to the city with reference to this project.

On July 2, 1934, the School Committee passed an order requesting a change in the project for which said sum was appropriated from the construction of a new high school in West Roxbury and a new intermediate school in South Boston to the construction of a new intermediate school and an addition to the Robert Gould Shaw School in West Roxbury and a new intermediate school in South Boston, contemplating the conversion of the Washington Irving Intermediate School (originally designed for a high school) into a high school. I submit herewith to your honorable body a copy of said order.

The change proposed by the School Committee has the approval of the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings, the Superintendent of Construction of the Department of School Buildings, and the Superintendent of Schools.

I am submitting herewith an order providing that the city shall engage in the public works project of constructing a new intermediate school and an addition to the Robert Gould Shaw School in the West Roxbury district, and an order appropriating the sum of one million two hundred thousand dollars ($1,200,000) for the construction of this new intermediate school and addition to the Shaw School, and I recommend prompt consideration and passage by your honorable body of these orders.

In order not to affect at this time the grant agreement above referred to between the City and the United States of America it is contemplated that the amendment of the appropriation order of two million dollars ($2,000,000) now in force, for the constructon of a new high school and a new intermediate school to one of eight hundred thousand dollars ($800,000) for the construction of a new intermediate school in South Boston, be postponed until after approval of the amended project has been given by the Emergency Finance Board, and the Governor of the Commonwealth, and after a new grant agreement for the amended project has been executed between the City and the United States of America.

Respectfully submitted,
FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD, Mayor.

City of Boston,
In School Committee, July 2, 1934.

Whereas, The City of Boston and the United States of America have entered into a grant agreement (Public Works Administration, Docket No. 4217) for a grant from the United States of America to the City of Boston to aid in financing the project for the construction of school buildings; and

Whereas, Said grant agreement defines said project substantially as the construction of two fireproof school buildings, namely, one new high school in West Roxbury and one new intermediate school in South Boston, in accordance with the application of the City of Boston for said grant from the United States of America; and

Whereas, It appears to be for the best interests of the City of Boston to convert the Washington Irving Intermediate School building in Roslindale (originally designed for a high school) into a high school, and to erect in Roslindale a new intermediate school and an addition to the Robert Gould Shaw Intermediate School in West Roxbury; now therefor, it is Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be, and he hereby is, requested to amend the application of the City of Boston for a grant from the United States of America to aid in financing the project for the construction of school buildings (Public Works Administration, Docket No. 4217) from a project for the construction of one new hgh school in Roslindale and one new intermediate school in South Boston at an estimated aggregate cost of two million dollars ($2,000,000) to a project for the construction of one new intermediate school in the Washington Irving Intermediate District, an addition to the existing Robert Gould Shaw School in West Roxbury, and one new intermediate school in South Boston, at an estimated aggregate cost of two million dollars ($2,000,000), and to take such action and make such recommendations as shall be necessary to carry out the foregoing request.

The resolutions were adopted and the order passed by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs, Hurley, Lyons, Mackey, Sullivan and Tobin—5.

Nays—0.

A true copy.

Attest:

LOUISE KANE,
Assistant Secretary.

Ordered, That in accordance with the provisions of section 2, part 1, of chapter 366 of the Acts of 1933, and acts in amendment thereof and in addition thereto, the City of Boston shall engage in the following public Works project: Construction of one intermediate school in the West Roxbury district and an addition to the Robert Gould Shaw School in the West Roxbury district, at an estimated cost of $1,200,000.

Ordered, That under the provisions of chapter 366 of the Acts of 1933, and acts in amendment thereof and in addition thereto, the sum of $1,200,000 be, and hereby is, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the School Committee, for the construction of one intermediate school in the West Roxbury district and an addition to the Robert Gould Shaw School in the West Roxbury district, and that to meet said appropriation the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, upon request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

Referred to Executive Committee.

DEPUTY CITY AUDITOR.

Coun. FISH offered the following.

An Ordinance Concerning the Appointment of a Deputy City Auditor.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Boston, as follows:

Chapter 6 of the Revised Ordinances of 1925 is hereby amended by inserting after section eight the following new section:

Section 9. The city auditor may appoint, subject to the approval of the Mayor, a deputy city auditor, who shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of his duties and shall hold office until his successor is appointed and qualified. The deputy city auditor shall perform such duties as may be assgned to him from time to time by the city auditor. If, by reason of illness, absence, or other cause, the city auditor be temporarily unable to perform the duties of his office, the deputy city auditor shall perform the same until such disability ceases.

Referred to Executive Committee.

SOLDIERS' RELIEF.

Coun. KERRIGAN, for the Committee on Soldiers' Relief, submitted a report recommending passage of order for payment of aid to soldiers and their families in the City of Boston for the month of July, 1934.

Report accepted; said order passed.

TEMPORARY LOAN IN ANTICIPATION OF TAXES.

President DOWD called up, under unfinished business, the order for temporary loan of $15,000,000 in anticipation of taxes. On July 2, 1934, the order was read once and passed, yeas 17, nays 0.

The order was read a second time and again passed, yeas 19, nays 0.

ABSENCE OF THE MAYOR.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 5, 1934.

Wilfred J. Doyle, Esq.,
City Clerk.

Dear Sir,—This is to notify you that I shall be out of the city beginning Thursday, July 5, at 5 p. m., and ending with Monday, July 9. I expect to return to City Hall on Tuesday morning July 10.

Yours truly,
FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD, Mayor.

Placed on file.

ADDITIONAL ROOM FOR ELECTION DEPARTMENT.

Coun. McGRATH offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor instruct the Election Commission to make additional room in the Elecion Department for the comfort and convenience of the large number of citizens of Boston that are signifying their intention of registering to vote in the coming primary and election.

Coun. McGRATH—I just want to say this, Mr. President, that I was suprised when I went over to the Election department the other day to find that the inadequate quarters we have always had for registering voters had been greatly lessened because of the fact that the Election Department has moved the partitions away out in the center of the floor. We all know that in the past when there was interest in an election the quarters there were not sufficient to handle the crowd, and I don't know any reasonable excuse for this change. The process started in the Assessing Department some four or five months ago, when all but one of the doors were closed. One of the entrances was blocked with files, creating almost a fire hazard. It seems to me we are spending a lot of time giving additional room for city employees to work to the disadvantage of the citizens who come to the Hall. We are greatly hampering the citizens who come to the Assessing Department looking for information relative to taxes on their homes and now it is either an oversight or a deliberate act on somebody's part to cut down to a minimum the room necessary for the registering of the voters of the City of Boston. This year being a State Election, we will have both the primary and election registration and as we know, who have had experience, the room has always been too small, but today it is ridiculous and if it were not such a serious matter I would not call it to the attention of his Honor.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

POLICE OFFICERS.

Coun. FISH offered the following:

Ordered, That the Police Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to allow the uniformed members of his department to dispense with the wearing of their coats while on duty during the summer months.

Coun. FISH—Just a word. I notice all the officers in the suburban cities and towns are allowed to shed their coats during the summer months. Even the Police Commissioner likes to shed his coat when the weather is warm, and I hope this order will be passed under suspension of the rule.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

RECESS.

The Council voted at 2.30 p. m., on motion of Coun. GLEASON, to take a recess, subject to the call of the Chair. The members reassembled in the Council Chamber and were called to order by President DOWD at 3.50 p. m.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. WILSON, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

1. Report on ordinance referred today concerning appointment of Deputy City Auditor —that the same ought to pass.

The report was accepted and the ordinance was passed.

2. Report on message of the Mayor (referred July 2, 1934) and order for an appropriation of $1,000,000 for special items for the Welfare Department—that said order ought to pass.

The report was accepted and the order was passed, yeas 19, nays 0.

3. Report on message and orders (referred today) for approval of public works projects. West Roxbury, and the order for $1,200,000 for an intermediate school, West Roxbury district, and an addition to the Robert Gould Shaw School—that said orders ought to pass.

Coun. WILSON—Mr. President, for the record I might state the Executive Committee reports that loan order back without prejudice in order that it may receive a first reading, having invited for the next meeting of the Council Messrs. Campbell, Drummey, Phaneuf and Lane to enlighten the Council a little more on the merits of the order.

Coun. SHATTUCK—Mr. President, on the last occasion when these loan orders were before the Council I voted against all of them on the ground that the city was already overburdened with debt and this was one more, and a very large addition to that debt. There is still less reason for adding to the debt, because it has appeared since that time that we have not balanced our operating budget, and we should have to borrow at least four million dollars to balance our operating budget. That is four million more tagged on to an already execessive debt. Therefore, sir, I shall vote against this order.

Coun. FINLEY—Mr. President, for the record I would like to briefly state my personal stand in regard to the proposed West Roxbury High School, as originally planned and substitution therefor as just read in the order that was presented before the members of the Council. The Boston School Committee having voted to change their original plans for a new senior high school in the West Roxbury district, and having voted to substitute plans for a new intermediate school to be built in the Roslindale section at $800,000, and enlarge the facilities of the Robert Gould Shaw School to the extent of an additional twenty rooms, also giving them an enlarged territory for that building, and to convert the Washington Irving into a senior high school for the West Roxbury-Roslindale district, in order to avoid further delay Messrs. Tobin, Phaneuf of the Boston School Commission and Mr. Foley, Corporation Counsel of Boston, made a trip to Washington to confer with the P. W. A. authorities to ask permission to make this substitution in place of the original plans. They have reported back that the Federal authorities are agreeable to this change, provided action is taken immediately. Assurance is contingent that it meets with the immediate approval of the Mayor and the members of this Council. Although many people in the district of West Roxbury, including myself who represents the district, are keenly disappointed at the loss of a new senior high school, nevertheless, I believe that it is of the utmost importance that definite action be taken immediately in order to avoid the loss of the project entirely. I believe that it is necessary for us as public officials to cooperate to the fullest extent in order that we may get idle men back to work as soon as possible, and I therefore recommend to the members of this Council, as a matter of expediency, that we give favorable consideration to the order that has been presented for that purpose.

The report was accepted and the orders were passed, yeas 18, nays—Coun. Shattuck—1.

ORDINANCE CONCERNING BOND OF CITY OFFICER.

Coun. FISH, for the Committee on Ordinances, submitted a report on message and ordinance (referred July 2, 1934) concerning bond of City Collector—that same ought to pass.

Report accepted and ordinance passed.

AS TO WAGE SCALE PAID BY McCABE.

Coun. FISH offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to inform the City Council as to the wage scale paid by Joseph P. McCabe to men in his employ who are working on his contract with the City of Boston for the removal of ashes and garbage in the Dorchester district.

Coun. FISH—I understand since McCabe has taken over the ash contract in Dorchester they have reduced the wages from $5 to $4.50, and for that reason I call upon the Mayor to investigate the condition that exists.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

RE STEP-RATE INCREASES IN WAGES.

Coun. GREEN offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to inform the City Council as to when all step-rate increases, recently authorized by the Legislature, will become effective.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

REPAVING EAST SIXTH STREET.

A SQUARE DEAL IN ASSESSMENTS FOR TAXATION.

Many cities are finding it greatly to their advantage to have their tax valuations periodically overhauled. The first criterion of any assessment is equity. For every citizen who wants through "pull" or however else to get off easy, there are twenty, nay a hundred, who want a fair and square deal for all.

The appraisal of city real estate is a highly technical affair.

Few things are more important than the equalization of assessments. Particularly in cities that are cramped by an inflexible debt or tax limit, an honest, full value assessment may be a great boon. Without the slightest raise in the tax rate a substantially greater tax yield may be had.

Filled land increased the area later by 1,396 acres. In 1875 the annexed territory had a population of 201,250, or 58.86 per cent of city's total; in 1910 its population had increased to 477,311, or 71.18 per cent, Hyde Park not included. By 1915 the total was 549,139, or 73.67 per cent of city. By 1925 the total was 607,519, or 77.92 per cent.

SAND, CINDERS AND SALT IN DULUTH.

About 385 miles of sidewalk are sanded every year and about 250 miles of streets are snow-plowed and sanded. Ordinarily, flat grades are not sanded, this work being confined to steep grades where dangerous ice conditions exist. During the past season the maintenance department used about 500 cubic yards of cinders, 500 cubic yards of sand, and 5 tons of calcium chloride on the streets.

The use of salt, or sodium chloride, has been discontinued entirely, because of its injurious effect on concrete walks and pavements. The action of salt is not clearly understood, but it is much more active during cold weather than in summer, and is apparently due to the formation of crystals after penetrating the surface, the force of which disintegrates the concrete. Calcium chloride does not seem to be entirely free from this difficulty, but is much less active than sodium chloride.

JAMAICA SPENDS $1,000,000 ANNUALLY ON ROAD CONSTRUCTION AND MAINTENANCE.

Jamaica, an English possession, has a highway system which is almost entirely constructed of waterbound macadam, some 70 miles of which has been surface-treated. Many of the roads are under the supervision of the Department of Public Works and various parochial boards. There are about 2,500 miles of bridle and foot paths. The highway system connects all parts of the island in a very satisfactory manner, and the problem is not that of the construction of new roads, but the improvement of old ones, the surfacing and widening of these roads, and protective coatings. The roads are well maintained and, as there are not many heavy trucks, the maintenance is satisfactory. There are approximately 4,000 miles of highways, or 1.11 square miles of area to one mile of highway.

About a million dollars per year is spent on new construction and maintenance, the machinery used being both European and American.

CIRCULAR LETTER NO. 12.

CITY OF BOSTON,
MAYOR'S OFFICE, July 3, 1934.

To the Heads of Departments.

GENTLEMEN,—On April 2, 1934, the City Council adopted an order requesting the Mayor to instruct all department heads that resident employees be given preference over non-resident employees in the matter of discharges or enforced vacations. Before taking any action, if any, as the result of this order it is desirable that I should know the names and addresses of all the employees in your department. Mere voting addresses will not be sufficient. I wish to know where all of the employees actually live.

In order that I may have this information you will please obtain the names, voting addresses, and actual living addresses of every employee in your department and send them to me at your earliest convenience.

Yours truly,

FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD,
Mayor.

RECREATION, ADEQUATE AS TO KIND AND AVAILABILITY.

Although the ratio of park acreage to population has been used as the simplest measure of the extent to which cities provide areas for the recreation of their people, it is by no means an accurate basis for determining this. If most of the total acreage is in one large park, if the parks are poorly distributed, or if they do not provide various types of recreation facilities, the park system may be inefficient even though the acreage is large. The efficiently planned park and recreation system will involve balanced relationship and well-distributed location of several types of properties, namely, children's playgrounds, neighborhood playfield parks, neighborhood parks, reservations, boulevards, and parkways.

BOSTON AS A TOWN.

From its foundation until 1755, or a period of 125 years, Boston was not only the most outstanding but the most populous town in the American colonies. In 1760, Philadelphia's population was ahead, viz., 18,756, Boston's then being 15,631 and New York's about 14,000. In the last year of town government, viz., 1821, Boston's population was about 45,000 and its public debt $100,000, all incurred for new county buildings.

The history of Boston as a town during a period of nearly two centuries surpasses in civic interest that of Boston as a city because of the untiring zeal and successful efforts of its townsmen to realize more of true democracy than had ever been attained before. Their obligations were held as sacred as their liberties.

CITY RECORD

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 26. SATURDAY, JULY 21, 1934. NO. 29

OUTLINES ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF THE BOSTON TRAFFIC COMMISSION — COMMISSIONER WILLIAM P. HICKEY, SUBSTITUTING FOR MAYOR MANSFIELD IN THE TUESDAY BROADCAST FROM CITY HALL, GIVES HISTORY AND ORIGIN OF BUREAU AND DEVELOPMENT OF WORK, AS WELL AS WORK DONE IN FIVE YEARS SINCE STARTED.

The following is the radio address of Traffic Commissioner William P. Hickey from City Hall, July 17, on "Accomplishments of the Boston Traffic Commission."

His Honor the Mayor of Boston, Frederick W. Mansfield, expresses his earnest desire that all who can will enter the city for the purposes of shopping and visiting friends, or being entertained at our numerous places of amusement.

From personal knowledge I am aware that very few persons understand the details of the organization of the Boston Traffic Commission or the extent of its work. It is my purpose in this address to direct attention to some of the more important phases of the work in order to enlighten those persons who come in contact with traffic conditions. Obviously, this means all motorists and pedestrians who use Boston streets, whether they are residents or not.

During the year 1927 and the early part of 1928, a traffic survey was conducted under the auspices of the Erskine Bureau for Street Traffic Research of Harvard University and under the direction of the Mayor's Street Traffic Advisory Board composed of representatives of various business, civic and municipal organizations who were most conversant with the problem. This survey was the result of insistent demands by business and civic organizations that something be done to relieve traffic congestion which threatened to stagnate downtown Boston. Conditions had become quite acute, in fact on several days prior to and during the term of the survey there were complete blockades in the central business district.

A report was submitted to the Mayor on April 23, 1928. The most important recommendation was for the establishment of an engineering agency "to continue the detailed observations and studies necessary to maintain any system of traffic control in a thoroughly modern condition, and equal to the demands which are placed upon the streets."

Various city departments had control of different phases of traffic. There existed much confusion. This resulted in a petition to the Legislature by the Mayor, indorsed by many business and civic organizations, including the Boston Chamber of Commerce and the Boston Automobile Club, for the establishment of a single agency with powers and duties to control street traffic in Boston. The Legislature adopted a statute creating the Boston Traffic Commission subject to the approval of the City Council and Mayor. The statute was approved by the Governor, accepted by the City Council and Mayor and the commission become legally existent on April 30, 1929.

Most Progressive Act.

The establishment of this commission was hailed by traffic experts as the most progressive action ever taken in the control of street traffic

During the five years of its existence, the Traffic Commission has erected automatic traffic signals at 143 intersections. It maintains 542 posts, 807 faces and 2,452 lamps. In order to supply these signals with electricity the commission owns and maintains substantially twenty miles of underground cable. Sixteen miles of this cable is installed in the downtown streets.

The installation of these signals has made it possible to reduce the Police Department expense of traffic control. It has been possible to abolish the two traffic divisions, saving the salaries of two captains, in addition to lieutenants and sergeants. At the present time, as a result of relieving traffic officers from duty at various intersections, these signals show a favorable balance of $141,000 and an annual saving to the taxpayers amounting to $191,000. Automatic traffic signals are an economy both financially and in saving lives and preventing injuries.

These traffic signals, including two control boards for the downtown signals, are operated solely by employees of the commission. In addition to the ordinary maintenance of repairing burnt-out lamps and replacing damages caused by collisions, the posts are painted at least once each year.

There are 100 flashing beacons in the streets. The tanks in these beacons are replaced approximately once every four months, and the beacons are cleaned and bases painted at least four times each year.

There are 142 traffic officers' spot-light poles at various intersections, ninety-four of which are in service, the remaining forty-eight having been discontinued because of the installation of automatic traffic signals and the elimination of the police officer. All of the 142 posts are painted once each year. The ninety-four in service are subject to general maintenance such as replacement of burnt-out lamps, cleaning reflectors, repairs, etc.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"
From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

WEEKLY BROADCAST.

The commission maintains 1,800 portable signs which are set out in streets to designate temporary one-way streets, no parking, vehicles excluded, etc., mostly on account of construction work. However, at various times, large numbers of signs are set out for other purposes. For example, during the Harvard football season 216 signs are set out each day of a game, and during the period adjacent to Memorial Day there are 260 signs set out at various cemetery locations throughout the city.

New permanent signs and posts are continually being erected because of new rules adopted by the commission, or to replace portable signs which are dangerous, being easily knocked over, and thereby causing damage to persons and property. While, during the year 1933, because of financial conditions, only 410 new installations were accomplished, there were 3,126 such signs erected during 1930 and 2,542 during 1931.

There are 341 public and parochial schools in Boston and 355 churches. Crosswalks are painted at each of these institutions, requiring the painting of twenty-four miles of white lines. In addition, crosswalks, center lines and stop lines, to a total amount of 26 miles, are painted at various intersections throughout the city. Red paint defining restrictions is applied to the curbs at 250 locations, the approximate length of this painting being seven miles. All of the above painting is done at least once each year, and in the downtown district from four to ten times during the year.

One thousand eight hundred thirty-five loading zone permits to paint the curb yellow have been issued, representing a total curb length of 42,000 feet.

RECORDS KEPT.

Complete records and detailed analyses of all traffic accidents are kept. Daily reports of such accidents are submitted to the commission by the Police Department. The analyses of these accidents show the dangerous locations and the general trend in accidents by sexes, ages, types, etc.

During 1933 there were 1,200 special investigations made as the result of correspondence. Seventy-three wagon stands were approved and two disapproved. There were 254 parking studies involving 11,151 vehicles, and 6,918 parking violations were reported. There were 44 intersection counts made embracing 706,401 vehicles. There were 30 miscellaneous investigations made, including truck counts, one-way street violations, pedestrian counts, speed runs, etc.

During 1933 the commission erected automatic traffic signal lights at nineteen intersections with its own employees.

A vast amount of clerical and filing work is necessary because of the voluminous correspondence.

Traffic control is generally accepted throughout the country today as an engineering function. The adoption of rules, only after engineering study, and the installation of automatic signals has greatly improved conditions. The tendency is to create separate agencies for the scientific control of street traffic.

The Boston Traffic Commission has served as a model and traffic commissions have been created throughout the United States, not only in municipalities but also in counties and states. It is generally agreed that the motorist pays enough taxes and motor vehicle operation is of sufficient importance to deserve particular attention. Surely the pedestrian believes that such an agency is of assistance to him. I believe the results in Boston during the past five years, including the expedition of traffic and the reduction in motor vehicle accidents, has proved the worth of a separate agency for the control of street traffic.

In Massachusetts there are 35,000 more cars registered this year than there were in 1933.

DEPARTMENT CHANGES.

The following changes in the number, rating and compensation of the city employees have been made during the week ending Thursday, July 19:

BUDGET DEPARTMENT.

Mayor Mansfield has approved the following request of the Budget Department:

BOSTON, July 12, 1934.

HON. FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I respectfully request permission to include in the groups of employees to receive sliding scale increases under the provisions of chapter 228 of the Acts of 1934, clerks receiving less than $1,600 per annum (basic).

While the clerical group as a whole have never been considered to be under a definitely established sliding scale, nevertheless, it has been a more or less established practice to grant, in years when sliding scale increases were provided in the budget, salary increases to the lower salaried members of the clerical group. In the eight years extending from 1922 to 1929, the period when sliding scale increases were more or less universally in operation, the group of clerical employees receiving less than $1,600 per year were granted $100 step increases in seven of those years. Because of this fact, I feel that it can properly be claimed this particular division of the clerical group may be deemed eligible under the provisions of chapter 228 of the Acts of 1934 for sliding scale increases. I have discussed the matter with Corporation Counsel Foley and he concurs with me in my belief.

In the event of your approval of this recommendation, approximately 249 members of the clerical group will receive step-rate increases of $100 each. The following table indicates the segregation of this number at the different rates:

Basic.	Reduced.	Number.
$1,565 00	$1,408 50	1
1,560 00	1,404 00	2
1,500 00	1,350 00	48
1,400 00	1,260 00	29
1,380 00	1,242 00	1
1,360 00	1,224 00	2
1,350 00	1,215 00	2
1,300 00	1,170 00	29
1,260 00	1,134 00	1
1,250 00	1,125 00	1
1,200 00	1,080 00	29
1,150 00	1,035 00	1
1,100 00	990 00	21
1,000 00	950 00	63
950 00	902 50	4
900 00	855 00	6
850 00	807 50	1
800 00	760 00	4
780 00	741 00	1
750 00	712 50	3
		249

You will note from the above table that the bulk of the employees affected by this recommendation are receiving very low salaries at the present time. It is estimated that to provide step-rate increases for this group will require an appropriation of approximately $20,000.

Respectfully,

CHARLES J. FOX,
Acting Budget Commissioner.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

Upon July 14 the Mayor approved a contract with the Barbour-Stockwell Company, without advertising, for Providence type, fire alarm box posts, as follows:

Thirty middle sections, approximate weight 5,130 pounds, at 13 cents a pound; thirty box sections, approximate weight 4,200 pounds, at 22½ cents a pound; six sub-base sections, approximate weight 966 pounds, at 15 cents a pound.

The approximate total value of the contract will be $1,828. This will include the cost of patterns, which will become the property of the Fire Alarm Division, and will permit advertising for bids on future orders.

According to information furnished by the Fire Commissioner, these posts have been purchased from the Gamewell Company of Newton for a good many years, without competition.

In an effort to get competitive figures on this material, the Supply Department asked the following foundries to submit quotations informally, according to specifications supplied by the Fire Alarm Division:

Barbour-Stockwell Company, Cambridge; Mechanics Iron Foundry Company, Boston; Somerville Iron Foundry Company, Somerville; Gibby Foundry Company, East Boston; Franklin Foundry Company, Hyde Park; Plimpton Foundry, Norwood; The Gamewell Company, Newton.

Of the above foundries, all refused to bid except the Gamewell Company and Barbour-Stockwell. Company. They bid the following prices:

Barbour-Stockwell Company, $1,828; The Gamewell Company, $1,956.60.

As stated above, the figure quoted by Barbour-Stockwell Company, which is the lowest bid received, includes the cost of the patterns, which become city property and will be turned over to the Fire Alarm Division of the Fire Department at the completion of the contract.

The Gamewell Company price does not include the cost of patterns, as they definitely state in their quotation that "the patterns and jigs will not be furnished." Inasmuch as the Barbour-Stockwell Company figure these patterns at $450, their figure of $1,828, including patterns, represents a saving to the city of approximately $600. Furthermore, this bidder is now doing this type of work for other cities in Massachusetts.

In view of the above, and due to the fact that the Fire Alarm Division requested delivery of these posts in three weeks, approval was given to this award to Barbour-Stockwell Company, the low bidder, without advertising.

This monthly return is composed of the following offenses:

1. Criminal Homicide.
   - a. Murder and non-negligent manslaughter.
   - b. Manslaughter by negligence.
2. Rape. (Abuse of female child.) (Rape, assault to.)

The total percentage of cleared cases by all the divisions was 75.40, and the combined averages of divisions by districts were as follows:

Patrolman John J. Welch of Division 7 and Patrolman Leo E. Larson of Division 2 are both commended, and, in addition, Patrolman Welch is given three days' additional vacation and Patrolman Larson is given two days' additional vacation for meritorious police duty performed in connection with the arrest of two persons on June 18, 1934, as suspicious characters, as a result of which a number of breaks and larceny from automobiles and stores have been solved.

The commissioner is pleased to recognize the initiative shown by Patrolman Welsh who was off duty, in civilian dress, and whose suspicion was aroused when he observed these two men carrying a large dress case. He trailed them until he met Patrolman Larson to whom he related his suspicions and the men were placed under arrest.

The commissioner also recognizes the zeal and energy shown by Patrolman Larson in thoroughly investigating this case and bringing it to a successful conclusion.

The Acting Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

General Order No. 524.

A trial board consisting of Captains Campbell, McGrath and Daley, having heard by reference a complaint made by Edward W. Fallon, captain, Division 6, against Francis J. Lawlor, patrolman, Division 6, for alleged violation of Rules 38 and 41 of the Rules and Regulations of the Police Department, to wit:

Charge: Absence without leave.

Specification: In that on July 1, 1934, the said Patrolman Lawlor did fail to report to Station 1 at 7.45 a. m. as he was ordered to do by the commanding officer of that division, and did fail to notify the commanding officers of Divisions 1 or 6 the reason why he did not report for duty,— has submitted the following finding and recommendations:

"The Board having heard and carefully considered all the evidence as presented, finds the said Patrolman Francis J. Lawlor guilty as charged. Patrolman Lawlor offered no defense, he had no witnesses, and his commanding officer testified that he (Lawlor) is absolutely useless as a police officer. Captain Fallon has continually received complaints about Lawlor and this is the third time this officer has been before a trial board for the same offense. Lawlor has been complained of on other occasions and, although he was not brought before a trial board, he was reprimanded by his commanding officer. The attitude of Patrolman Lawlor before the Trial Board made it very evident that he has no intention of reforming his ways in the future. Therefore, the Board respectfully recommends that the said Patrolman Francis J. Lawlor be dismissed from the Police Department."

The commissioner accepts the finding and the recommendation of the Trial Board and hereby orders that the said Patrolman Francis J. Lawlor be dismissed from the Police Department.

The Acting Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

EUGENE C. HULTMAN,
Commissioner.

General Order No. 525.

A trial board consisting of Captains Campbell, Gleavy and Casey, having heard by reference a complaint made by Edward W. Fallon, captain, Division 6, against William H. Stanley, patrolman, Division 6, for alleged violation of Rules 36 and 41 of the Rules and Regulations of the Police Department, to wit:

Charge 1: Conduct unbecoming an officer.

Specification: In that on the 31st day of January, 1934, the said Patrolman William H. Stanley, while in uniform and not on duty, was under the influence of intoxicating liquor to such an extent that he was unable to properly perform the duties of a police officer if called upon so to do.

Charge 2: Alleged violation of law.

Specification : In that on the 31st day of January, 1934, the said Patrolman William H. Stanley, while under the influence of intoxicating liquor in a gasolene filling station at 358 Cambridge street, Boston, is alleged to have committed an assault and battery with a loaded revolver on one George Gilboy, and in pursuance of said assault and battery, did discharge two bullets from said revolver, one of which is alleged to have struck the said Gilboy in the lower left leg,— has submitted the following finding and recommendation:

"The Board having heard and carefully considered all the evidence as presented, finds the said Patrolman William H. Stanley guilty of Charge 1 and Specification thereunder and not guilty of Charge 2 and specification thereunder. Patrolman Stanley was highly recommended by his captain and his lieutenant, who testified that they have never had occasion to warn him about infractions of the police rules. They also testified that they consider him a very good police officer. Therefore, the Board respectfully recommends that the said Patrolman William H. Stanley be suspended from duty for a period of one hundred seventy days, effective as of January 31, 1934, at 7.45 o'clock a. m."

The commissioner accepts the finding and the recommendation of the Trial Board and hereby orders that the said Patrolman William H. Stanley be suspended from duty for a period of one hundred seventy days, effective as of January 31, 1934, at 7.45 o'clock a. m.

A trial board consisting of Captains Campbell, McGrath and Daley, having heard by reference a complaint made by Edward W. Fallon, captain, Division 6, against Daniel P. Galvin, patrolman, Division 2, temporarily detailed to Division 6, for alleged violation of Rules 36 and 41 of the Rules and Regulations of the Police Department, to wit:

Charge: Conduct unbecoming an officer.

Specification: In that on June 29, 1934, at 6 p. m. the said Patrolman Daniel P. Galvin, while in uniform and on duty at Castle Island, was under the influence of intoxicating liquor to such an extent that he was unable to perform his duty as a police officer,— has submitted the following finding and recommendation:

"The Board having heard and carefully considered all the evidence as presented, finds the said Patrolman Daniel P. Galvin guilty as charged. It was testified by Captain McKinnon, his commanding officer, and also Captain Fallon (where he is detailed at Division 6) that Patrolman Galvin is a good officer, and they recommended that he be retained in the department. Patrolman Galvin furnished a pledge card from his spiritual adviser. Therefore, the Board respectfully recommends that the said Patrolman Daniel P. Galvin be suspended from duty for a period of thirty days, effective as of July 2, 1934, at 7.45 a.m., and that at the expiration of the said period of suspension the said Patrolman Daniel P. Galvin be suspended from duty for a period of thirty days, effective as of July 2, 1934, at 7.45 o'clock, a.m., and that at the expiration of the said period of suspension the said Patrolman Daniel P. Galvin perform 210 hours of punishment duty.

The Acting Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

LAND-TAKING IN HYDE PARK.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land for sewerage works to be constructed as follows:

The right and easement is taken to lay and maintain sewerage works in the following described lands, exclusive of any interest in trees, buildings or other structures standing thereon, reserving to the owners thereof the right to use the lands for any purpose except such as may injure or obstruct said works, and except for placing or maintaining any structure on said lands not authorized in writing by the Mayor of said city; trees, buildings or other structures standing upon or affixed to the land in which an easement is hereby taken are to be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said taking for the purpose of constructing said sewerage works. Said lands are in that part of Boston formerly Hyde Park and are bounded as follows:

A parcel of land, owners unknown, being part of the private way known as Windsor street, bounded:

Southwesterly by Tileston street, seven and 25-100 feet; northwesterly by another part of Windsor street, three hundred and forty feet; northeasterly by the same, six feet; and southeasterly by the same, three hundred forty-four and 6-100 feet, containing twenty hundred and fifty-two square feet, more or less.

The sewerage works to be constructed are as follows: Three hundred forty-four linear feet of twelve-inch pipe sanitary sewer, in the above described premises, being part of the private way known as Windsor street, leading northeasterly from Tileston street for a distance of approximately three hundred and forty-two feet.

This Board determines that no person sustains damages in his estate by the taking of the aforesaid easement and construction of said sewerage works and awards no damages therefor.

Betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

Ordered, That this Board estimates that the lots of abutting land on both sides of Windsor street, leading from Tileston street for a distance of approximately three hundred and forty-five feet, excluding the lot at the northerly corner of Tileston street and Windsor street, will receive benefit or advantage, beyond the general advantage to all real estate in said city, from the improvement herein ordered; each of said lots to the amount hereinafter respectively set against it herein; said lots and the supposed owners thereof being shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Plan No. 1136, Sewerage Works, Windsor Street, Hyde Park, June 20, 1934, William J. RE-NAMING OF SCHOOL

Dr. Lyons: To bring about the re-naming of the Walter Elmore Fernald School, East Boston, under the directions of this Committee, and acting as a committee of one on the Naming of School Buildings, I am presenting the following:

ORDERED, That the Walter Elmore Fernald School, in the Ulysses S. Grant District, East Boston, be re-named the John B. Cashman School, in memory of the Hon. John B. Cashman, 1886-1928.

Senator Cashman was born in East Boston, Nov. 12, 1886, and lived there up to the date of his death, Oct. 7, 1928. He was educated in the schools of East Boston and was graduated from the Fitton Parochial School. Senator Cashman was very active in all projects of interest to East Boston. He was widely beloved for his many generous acts and his devotion to his family and friends. He served in the Massachusetts House of Representatives from 1918 to 1922, and in the Massachusetts Senate from 1925 to 1928. He was a brother of the late William Cashman, Acting Captain of the Manomet Point Coast Guard Station, who died March 10, 1928, in line of duty while engaged in rescuing passengers from the New York boat (Robert E. Lee) which had grounded on the rocks.

Chairman: The recommendation of the Committee on Naming of School Buildings is very pleasing to me because Senator Cashman was a valued friend of mine and I can testify to the truth of the statements made by Dr. Lyons. In my period of public service, I have not met a more unselfish and self-sacrificing public official. I think this Committee is honoring one of East Boston's outstanding men. It gives me great pleasure to second the motion of Dr. Lyons.

The rules were suspended and the order passed by unanimous vote.

City of Boston
Department of School Buildings
June 25, 1934.

School Committee,
City of Boston,
15 Beacon Street,
Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen:

Under date of June 25th, the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings received a proposed order from the School Committee, making an additional appropriation of $60,000, in connection with the alteration and repair of school buildings in connection with the ERAM program.

The order reads as follows:

ORDERED, That in addition to the amounts appropriated on April 16, and May 24 and 28, 1934, for "alteration and repair of school buildings and for furniture, fixtures and means of escape in case of fire, and for fire protection for existing buildings, and for improving existing school yards", during the financial year January 1 to December 31, 1934, and for administration expenses in connection therewith, the sum of $60,000.00 is hereby appropriated to provide for the cost of tools, materials and trucking in connection with the ERAM program; said sum to be expended under the direction of the Superintendent of Construction, Department of School Buildings, in connection with the extended project for the repair of school buildings.

This order enables this department to continue the employment of men in connection with the repair of school buildings under the ERAM program, which projects were abandoned May 29, 1934. Payrolls for the men employed under this project are furnished by the Federal Government. This appropriation makes available the money necessary for materials, tools, trucking in connection therewith.

In accordance with the provisions of Chapter 351 of the Acts of 1929, the Board of Commissioners voted to approve this order.

Very truly yours,
Board of Commissioners of School Buildings
By Richard J. Lane,
Chairman.

Placed on file.

The following was offered:

ORDERED, That in addition to the amounts appropriated on April 16, and May 24 and 28, 1934, for

"alteration and repair of school buildings and for furniture, fixtures and means of escape in case of fire, and for fire protection for existing buildings, and for improving existing school yards," during the financial year January 1 to December 31, 1934, and for administration expenses in connection therewith, the sum of $60,000.00 is hereby appropriated to provide for the cost of tools, materials and trucking in connection with the ERAM program; said sum to be expended under the direction of the Superintendent of Construction, Department of School Buildings, in connection with the extended project for the repair of school buildings.

Passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Messrs. Hurley, Lyons, Mackey, Sullivan, and Tobin—5.

NAYS—0.

Chairman: This appropriation will enable the Department of School Buildings to re-engage some eight hundred married men, and single men with two or more dependents, who have been unemployed for the past six weeks, under the ERAM program. Upon its passage by the School Committee, it will be forwarded immediately to His Honor the Mayor and no doubt will be approved without delay. These men we feel should be able to go to work by Wednesday.

PROMOTIONAL RATING PLAN FOR APPOINTMENT OF SUB-MASTERS.

Chairman: In response to a petition from the men intermediate assistants for a change in the method of appointing sub-masters, the School Committee on July 13, 1933, announced the adoption of a promotional rating plan for all appointments to the rank of sub-master, day elementary and day intermediate schools, to become effective Jan. 1, 1939.

Under this plan, holders of certificate VII, Elementary School, Class A, whether or not in permanent service, would have the privilege of re-examination to improve their standing, but all certificates secured by examination would expire on Dec. 31, 1938, and all appointments as sub-master made prior thereto would be from the so-called examined list.

On May 15, 1934, the men intermediate assistants petitioned the Board of Superintendents to advance the effective date of the promotional plan from Jan. 1, 1939, to Sept. 1, 1934 or Sept. 1, 1935, and the Board of Superintendents has recommended that Sept. 1, 1935, be set as the date. This recommendation of the Board of Superintendents has been adopted by the School Committee.

No men not now in the Boston service would be affected by the change in date and the men in permanent service are unanimous in asking that the proposed plan become operative as soon as possible. The School Committee therefore approves the recommendation of the Board of Superintendents that the plan become effective on Sept. 1, 1935. Successful candidates of the August-September, 1933, examinations will thus be entitled to appointment from the examined list in the order of standing for one full year before the rating plan becomes effective.

SAND, CINDERS AND SALT IN DULUTH.

About 385 miles of sidewalk are sanded every year and about 250 miles of streets are snow-plowed and sanded. Ordinarily, flat grades are not sanded, this work being confined to steep grades where dangerous ice conditions exist. During the past season the maintenance department used about 500 cubic yards of cinders, 500 cubic yards of sand, and 5 tons of calcium chloride on the streets.

The use of salt, or sodium chloride, has been discontinued entirely, because of its injurious effect on concrete walks and pavements. The action of salt is not clearly understood, but it is much more active during cold weather than in summer, and is apparently due to the formation of crystals after penetrating the surface, the force of which disintegrates the concrete. Calcium chloride does not seem to be entirely free from this difficulty, but is much less active than sodium chloride.

JAMAICA SPENDS $1,000,000 ANNUALLY ON ROAD CONSTRUCTION AND MAINTENANCE.

Jamaica, an English possession, has a highway system which is almost entirely constructed of waterbound macadam, some 70 miles of which has been surface-treated. Many of the roads are under the supervision of the Department of Public Works and various parochial boards. There are about 2,500 miles of bridle and foot paths. The highway system connects all parts of the island in a very satisfactory manner, and the problem is not that of the construction of new roads, but the improvement of old ones, the surfacing and widening of these roads, and protective coatings. The roads are well maintained and, as there are not many heavy trucks, the maintenance is satisfactory. There are approximately 4,000 miles of highways, or 1.11 square miles of area to one mile of highway.

About a million dollars per year is spent on new construction and maintenance, the machinery used being both European and American.

CITY RECORD

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 26. SATURDAY, JULY 28, 1934. NO. 30

BOSTON'S CEMETERIES, UNDER DIRECTION OF MAYOR MANSFIELD, RAPIDLY RANKING WITH MOST FAMOUS IN COUNTRY IN POINT OF ÆSTHETIC BEAUTY, THEIR RESTFUL SOLITUDE AND ARTISTIC APPEAL — WORK BEING DONE BY PARK DEPARTMENT THROUGH COMMISSIONER LONG AND SUPERINTENDENT HAYDEN MAKING SPOTS A DELIGHT BOTH TO LOCAL CITIZENS AND VISITORS FROM OTHER SECTIONS OF COUNTRY— MOUNT HOPE CEMETERY SHOWING GREATEST RESULTS.

Under the direction of Mayor Mansfield, Park Commissioner William P. Long and Superintendent of Parks Richard J. Hayden, during the spring and up to the present time, the cemeteries of the City of Boston have been taking on new beauty, acquiring a more restful, quiet and peaceful atmosphere and becoming more attractive for visitors.

Superintendent Hayden has been giving much of his attention to the development and improvement of the burial places for the city during the past months, with such success that the changes have become the enthusiastic remark of all who attend them, and so striking as to arrest the attention of the general public upon all occasions.

Work was begun last year but came to its fruition this spring and has continued to grow in beautiful results ever since. The most striking effects that have been attained are to be seen at Mount Hope Cemetery. Here the grounds bordering on the fence at Walk Hill and Paine streets were prepared and planted with mixed evergreen and deciduous shrubs, thereby hiding out unsightly objects and by this change giving the cemetery a more quiet and restful appearance.

Diseased Trees Replaced.

The grounds near the administration yard formerly had been covered with a diseased group of trees and shrubs. This has all been changed, the spot now having been converted into beautiful lawns and replanted with trees and shrubs in keeping with the location and the soil conditions.

The natural rock in this section of the cemetery, formerly hidden from view by an indigenous growth of superfluous material, has been exposed and replanted with rock garden plants, now displaying a beautiful rock garden unsurpassed in its simplicity.

The main driveway leading through the cemetery, which had become badly disintegrated during the years, has now been restored to smoothness so as to enhance the beauty of the scenery. The latest improvement under way in this connection is the plan of Superintendent Hayden to erect a rustic bridge to connect the driveway with one of the islands in the lake. Across this bridge visitors may travel to secure more seclusion and repose for reflection and meditation, and rest in solitude during any time that they may visit the cemetery.

What has been done so extensively in Mount Hope Cemetery is also being done at many of the others. One of the other cemeteries to receive particular attention and which is being improved is Fairview. Here the approach from River street has been completely changed.

An arboreal gateway of evergreens has been planted and is growing here so very invitingly and enticingly as to give the entrance a dignified and pleasing appearance. Inside this tree-planted gateway, and leading towards the cemetery chapel, the grounds have been regraded so as to make it now a beautiful lawn. A row of evergreen trees were planted at each of the driveways and terminate near the chapel in the form of a segment.

In the segment have been planted hybrid rhododendrons, kalmias, and azaleas. The determination to hide out unsightly views has been further complied with by the planting of a row of hemlocks along the grassed border of Aspen avenue. This results in the concealment of the old buildings and the junk piles at the other side of the brook.

Similar improvements are under way in all the other cemeteries but not on such an extensive scale. The entire work, however, is planned and is making the cemeteries of Boston as famous for their æsthetic beauty as any in the entire country.

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

Upon varying dates as indicated the Mayor approved contracts with several firms and businesses for work and supplies to the city. Communications from the heads of the departments interested were as follows:

LIBRARY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 20, 1934.

HON. FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,— I respectfully request your authority to withhold from advertising for proposals for the photographic reproduction of the Library Shelf-List record of books. The Shelf-List consists of over one hundred twenty-five large volumes, the number of pages varying from one hundred seventy-five to two hundred twenty-five pages per volume. The estimated cost of reproducing these volumes will amount to approximately $8,500, depending upon the actual number of pages to be photographed. The reproductions are to be used in connection with the E. R. A., Library Shelf-List duplication project, now being carried on.

The duplication process requires the expert services of a firm specially equipped to perform the work in question, and also a firm experienced in performing similar work for the library. I have secured bids from firms meeting these requirements. The bids are as follows:

Boston Blue Print Company, 184 Boylston street, 31 cents a page; Boston Photocopy Print Company, 92 State street, 60 cents a page; Spaulding-Moss Company, 42 Franklin street, $1.20 a page; B. L. Makepeace, 462 Boylston street, asked to submit estimate; did not do so; George E. Lawrence Company, 47 Winchester street, "do not think we better consider handling your Photo Job."

The Boston Blue Print Company is the lowest bidder. The process which it employs is satisfactory and meets the requirements of the library. I ask your approval to accept the bid of the Boston Blue Print Company for this work.

I have discussed the matter with Mr. Charles J. Fox, City Auditor. Mr. Fox endorsed the proposed assignment of the work to the Boston Blue Print Company.

It is desirable that this work be undertaken as soon as possible. I respectfully ask your early approval.

Respectfully yours,

RICHARD G. HENSLEY,
Assistant Librarian.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 6, 1934.

HON. FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR, — Permission is respectfully requested to award a contract, without publicly advertising same, to The White Company, to deliver to the Boston City Hospital the following:

Five (5) New Model 701 White Chasses with 132-inch wheelbase, to be equipped with 7.00-20 tires and special ambulance springs.

Three (3) new bodies complete, as per blueprint and specifications, and transfer two bodies from old chasses and mount on new chasses, as per specifications for the necessary repair and work to be furnished in this transfer.

Price of five New White model Chasses, including three new bodies complete, and transfer of two old bodies to new chasses is $9,150; allowance on five Whites to be taken in trade, $375 — net amount of contract, $8,775.

As The White Company are the manufacturers, nothing would be gained by publicly advertising.

Respectfully yours,

WARREN W. LOOMIS,
Superintendent of Supplies.

TRAFFIC COMMISSION.

BOSTON, July 10, 1934.

Hon. FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR, — This commission has voted, subject to your approval, to award a contract, without advertising, to the Edison Electric Illuminating Company of Boston, to construct underground conduit and supply cable for service to automatic traffic signals at the intersection of Hanover, Richmond, and Parmenter streets, at a cost not to exceed eighteen hundred (1,800) dollars.

Since the Edison Electric Illuminating Company of Boston is the only company having facilities available for supplying electrical energy no benefit would accrue from publicly advertising.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. HICKEY,
Commissioner.

NEWTON REDUCES WATER RATES.

The city of Newton reduced its water rates 10 per cent in 1932, from 25 to 22.5 cents per 100 cubic feet, and for 1934 has reduced them 11.5 per cent, to a flat price of 20 cents per 100 cubic feet. This reduction was made possible by savings effected by reorganizing the administration and maintenance methods and equipment of the department before and since the beginning of the city's "four-year plan" of water development in 1931.

APPROPRIATION FROM FEDERAL FUNDS FOR NEW SCHOOLS

The following was offered:

WHEREAS, The City of Boston and the United States of America have entered into a grant agreement (Public Works Administration, Docket No. 4217) for a grant from the United States of America to the City of Boston to aid in financing the project for the construction of school buildings: and

WHEREAS, Said grant agreement defines said project substantially as the construction of two fireproof school buildings, namely, one new high school in West Roxbury and one new intermediate school in South Boston, in accordance with the application of the City of Boston for said grant from the United States of America; and

WHEREAS, It appears to be for the best interests of the City of Boston to convert the Washington Irving Intermediate School building in Roslindale (originally designed for a high school) into a high school, and to erect in Roslindale a new intermediate school and an addition to the Robert Gould Shaw Intermediate School in West Roxbury.

NOW, THEREFORE, It is

ORDERED, That His Honor the Mayor be and he hereby is requested to amend the application of the City of Boston for a grant from the United States of America to aid in financing the project for the construction of school buildings (Public Works Administration Docket No. 4217) from a project for the construction of one new high school in Roslindale and one new intermediate school in South Boston at an estimated aggregate cost of two million dollars ($2,000,000) to a project for the construction of one new intermediate school in the Washington Irving Intermediate District, an addition to the existing Robert Gould Shaw School in West Roxbury, and one new intermediate school in South Boston, at an estimated aggregate cost of two million dollars ($2,000,000), and to take such action and make such recommendations as shall be necessary to carry out the foregoing request

The resolutions were adopted and the order passed by the following vote:

Chairman: In consequence of the refusal of the Legislature to pass the bill recently filed to authorize the School Committee to use for the erection of a new high school, a portion of Fallon Field, Roslindale, it became necessary for the School Committee to make other plans. Accordingly, last week it was agreed that the School Committee should proceed with plans to change the Washington Irving from an intermediate school to a high school, for which purpose it originally was intended; and, further, to build a new intermediate school in the Roslindale section and to build an addition to the Robert Gould Shaw Intermediate School in West Roxbury, making this a forty-room modern intermediate school building. Under this plan, instead of the erection of a new high school at a cost of approximately $1,200,000, the citizens of the West Roxbury-Roslindale district will have a high school, a new intermediate school, and a twenty-room addition with an enlarged auditorium and drill hall, to the Robert Gould Shaw Intermediate School. After long deliberation, the Committee is unanimously of the opinion that this is the best solution of the entire problem, now that the Fallon Field project has been turned down.

Fearing that delay might result in the loss of the P. W. A. grant, the Chairman of the School Committee was in Washington today, accompanied by Corporation Counsel Henry E. Foley and Henry Phaneuf, Deputy Superintendent, Department of School Buildings, and secured an agreement from the P. W. A. authorities that the School Committee may make such reasonable amendments to the present P. W A. school project as they deem necessary, without danger of a revocation of the federal grant, provided that the City Council and the Mayor proceed to approve the necessary orders without unreasonable delay.

Mr. Hurley: Mr. Chairman, I move on behalf of the Committee a vote of thanks to the Chairman, to Corporation Counsel Foley, and to Deputy Superintendent Phaneuf of the Department of School Buildings for the expedition with which they accomplished their mission.

I would point out, in connection with that motion, that time now is the essential factor and express the hope of the Committee that the Mayor and the City Council will act promptly upon the order passed by the School Committee tonight.

Mr. Hurley's motion was declared passed.

Chairman: I would like to make an additional statement in this regard. The President of the United States is doing everything possible to create employment for the millions of unemployed in the country and it seems to me that we, as public officials, should assist him in every way possible in carrying out this program. I think the members of this Committee are to be congratulated for so expeditiously coming to a decision on the handling of the P. W. A. school project in the City of Boston and I trust that the other public officials in the city and in the state who have to pass on this quesion, likewise will handle it as expeditiously as possible and thus ensure work for approximately three hundred building mechanics.

PAYMENT FOR USE OF SYMPHONY HALL FOR GRADUATING EXERCISES

Dr. Lyons: Referring to the recent occupancy of Symphony Hall for the graduating exercises of the Roxbury Memorial High School (Girls) and the Dorchester High School for Girls on the afternoons of Thursday, June 14, 1934, and Friday, June 15, 1934, respectively:

It has been brought to my attention that the taxes on Symphony Hall to the amount of approximately $28,000 have been abated by the City of Boston this year under the heading of a benevolent and charitable institution.

If this be true, then I believe that if this matter is brought to the attention of the Corporation owning Symphony Hall, which has been aided by the City of Boston to this extent, they will take advantage of this opportunity to aid the city which has been so generous to them, in her educational problems which are greatly intensified at this time on account of lack of money, by giving to the Boston School Committee in the future the use of this building for graduating exercises for the few afternoons or evenings required for such purpose, and also by recalling the bill in the sum of six hundred dollars ($600) rendered to the Department of School Buildings by Symphony Hall for the occupancies in June of this year.

I therefore offer the following:

ORDERED, That the Secretary request the Superintendent of Construction, Department of School Buildings, to withhold payment of the bill in the sum of six hundred dollars ($600) rendered by Symphony Hall for occupancy for school graduating exercises on June 14 and 15, 1934.

The order passed unanimously.

CITY PURCHASING UNDER THE CODES.

Caught between two fires, American cities are feeling the influence of the National Industrial Recovery Act codes in their purchasing in a way they had not foreseen. On one side taxpayers ask for economy in budget-making. On the other, application of codes, which has resulted in collective price-fixing, has increased prices of supplies for city use to an almost prohibitive point.

8th. WPGV standing by at (time announcement).

Two patrolmen will be assigned to each radio patrol car, one of whom will be known as the driver and the other as observer.

The observer will be in charge of each radio patrol car and will be responsible for the proper execution of all orders transmitted to his car.

Observers in radio patrol cars shall report from the nearest signal box the result of all investigations to the officer on the signal desk in their respective divisions.

Officers detailed to radio patrol cars shall not go to their stations to make reports, but will telephone them in to the officer on the signal desk. In emergency cases, where the presence of a radio patrol officer is required at a station, the officer on the signal desk shall so inform the Dispatcher, who will thereupon notify the officer in question.

Radio patrol officers shall not remain unnecessarily in any part of their sectors where radio reception is poor, and such locations shall be made known to the officer on the signal desk, who will notify the Dispatcher at once.

Radio patrol officers shall report to their commanding officers, in writing, the name of any person, except officers of rank, riding in radio patrol cars, together with the reason therefor and the length of time, which will be carried on the journal of the division.

Radio patrol officers shall notify the Dispatcher as soon as possible by means of the signal desk or outside telephone (No. "DEVonshire 1212") of the receipt of all messages directed to their particular cars, unless instructed to the contrary by the Dispatcher.

Whenever radio patrol officers are confronted with an emergency requiring immediate attention, they shall, if possible, notify the Dispatcher at once by means of signal desk or outside telephone.

Radio patrol officers shall notify the Dispatcher by means of signal desk or outside telephone as soon as they have completed any investigation and have returned to their respective sectors.

No radio patrol cars shall leave the sector to which they are assigned without permission of the Dispatcher, except in the actual pursuit of a person suspected of a crime, or any other emergency, when the Dispatcher will be notified as soon as possible.

Whenever radio patrol officers have occasion to pursue a vehicle wanted in connection with a crime, and do not apprehend it, they shall notify the Dispatcher at once.

Radio patrol officers shall have receiving sets in operation at all times during their tour of duty.

Officers shall not tamper in any way with radio receiving sets. They shall notify the Dispatcher immediately of any defect in receiving sets.

Radio patrol cars shall not be left unattended except in extreme emergencies when the car shall be locked and the receiving set turned off. If, however, a reputable citizen is available in such an emergency, the radio set may be left in operation while the car is locked so that the citizen may hear any messages transmitted for the information of the radio patrol officers.

Radio patrol officers shall proceed to an destination by the most direct route, and the speed of the car at all times will be regulated with due regard for the safety of the public.

Whenever two or more radio patrol cars receive the same message, the senior officer of the first car to arrive at the destination shall be in command until the appearance of an officer of rank, who shall dismiss all cars not required.

When a radio car is sent on an emergency call, all other radio cars in adjoining sectors, irrespective of divisions' shall proceed at once as far as the boundaries of their sectors toward the location designated, to render any assistance that may be required.

Radio patrol officers are limited to fifteen minutes for meals, and not more than one officer shall eat at a time.

One radio patrol officer shall remain in the car to receive messages and, if necessary, shall call the officer on relief.

A radio patrol officer, before going on relief for any necessity, shall receive permission from the officer in charge of his division.

Radio patrol officers shall deliver radio patrol cars to which they are assigned to the relieving officers at the end of their tour of duty. The relieving officers will be held strictly responsible for the proper condition of the car and its complete equipment unless the commanding officer of a division is notified to the contrary immediately by the relieving officers.

Complete reports of all investigations made by radio patrol officers shall be entered on the journal of the divisions to which the officers are attached.

Radio patrol officers shall answer all blinker lights within their view irrespective of sector or divisional boundaries.

Radio patrol cars that respond to blinker lights outside of their divisional boundaries shall not be used except in cases of extreme emergency.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS ON SIGNAL DESK.

Officers on signal desk shall be responsible for the proper execution of orders transmitted to officers on patrol in their respective divisions.

All officers assigned to the signal desk shall be responsible for the immediate notification to the Dispatcher of the results of all investigations received from radio patrol officers.

They shall prepare the daily manifolds delivered to officers at each of the three roll calls; shall set the blinker lights whenever directed and shall be held responsible for the proper execution of messages received and delivered to the Dispatcher.

All officers on the signal desk shall report immediately to the Dispatcher any difficulty in radio reception.

When a citizen's alarm is received at the signal desk, the wagon shall be sent at once in answer thereto, and the Dispatcher immediately notified thereof, and the officer on the signal desk shall also furnish all necessary details in order that proper action may be taken by the Dispatcher.

Officers assigned to the signal desk shall see that the daily manifolds carry all messages so designated on teletype machines, in addition to any information connected with the routine of their respective divisions.

SERVICING OF RADIOS AND PATROL CARS.

Radio patrol officers shall immediately notify the Dispatcher by means of the signal desk or outside telephone whenever there is any defect in the operation of any receiving set in order that the car may be sent forthwith to the Maintenance Shop for the necessary adjustment.

The Supervisor of Automotive Equipment shall notify the Dispatcher as soon as a radio has been serviced and a thorough mechanical inspection of the car has been made.

The Supervisor of Automotive Equipment shall notify the Dispatcher whenever it is necessary for a patrol car to receive general servicing at the Maintenance Shop.

The Dispatcher shall be held responsible for the assignment of patrol cars to cover a sector on any division from which a patrol car has been sent to the Maintenance Shop for repairs.

Radio cars shall not remain on their sectors with less than five gallons of gas in the tank at all times.

Radio cars shall not be placed out of service for the purpose of cleaning or replenishing oil and gasolene.

Emergency Calls at Station Houses.

All officers in charge of divisions and units shall notify the Dispatcher of any emergency call received directly by them where the movement of radio patrol cars or the immediate use of the blinker light system is necessary to relay information to officers on patrol, and shall be governed by the orders of the Dispatcher.

If an emergency arises in a division where additional officers or equipment are required, the officer in charge of the division shall notify the Dispatcher at once who will furnish the necessary assistance.

Radio Patrol Code Book.

Each radio patrol car will be equipped with a Code Book which will be fastened to the cabinet on which there will be a spring lock. This Code Book shall not be taken from the cabinet in which it is securely attached.

Whenever a radio patrol car is left unattended for any emergency the cabinet containing the Code Book shall be locked.

The observer of each radio patrol car will be held strictly responsible for the care and custody of this book.

The Code Book contains the names of the streets of the division to which the radio patrol car is assigned, and the names of the streets are arranged in alphabetical order with the code number of the street on the left side of the street name in the book.

Streets in all radio broadcasts will be designated by a code number, and the observer, upon receiving a message containing the code number, shall thereupon refer to the Code Book for the street in question. The Dispatcher, following the announcement of the code number, will then say "at 25" which designates the number of the street where the car is to proceed for investigation.

The last page of the Code Book contains the location and number of posts that each radio patrol car shall cover when ordered to do so.

Bridgeheads.

Bridgeheads signify the posts that radio patrol cars shall cover when the Dispatcher broadcasts a message for all cars to cover bridgeheads. These bridgeheads are numbered and located on highways at the outskirts of the city, and shall be covered by radio patrol cars when the Dispatcher announces, "Radio cars cover Bridgeheads."

Interception Posts.

Interception posts are numbered and located on highways within the boundary lines of each division for the purpose of covering important highways to prevent the escape of criminals and automobiles from within the districts located in the various divisions.

Each radio patrol car shall immediately proceed to its post, as is indicated on the last page of the Code Book, when ordered to do so.

This order becomes effective Thursday, July 26, 1934, at 10 p. m.

The Acting Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

(July 28-Aug. 4.)

BOSTON AS A TOWN.

From its foundation until 1755, or a period of 125 years, Boston was not only the most outstanding but the most populous town in the American colonies. In 1760, Philadelphia's population was ahead, viz., 18,756, Boston's then being 15,631 and New York's about 14,000. In the last year of town government, viz., 1821, Boston's population was about 45,000 and its public debt $100,000, all incurred for new county buildings.

The history of Boston as a town during a period of nearly two centuries surpasses in civic interest that of Boston as a city because of the untiring zeal and successful efforts of its townsmen to realize more of true democracy than had ever been attained before. Their obligations were held as sacred as their liberties.

POPULATION OF NEW ENGLAND, 1930.

Total population, 8,166,341 (4,024,657 males and 4,141,684 females); total white, 8,065,113 (3,972,465 males and 4,092,648 females); total native white, 6,230,803 (3,067,723 males and 3,163,080 females); native white of native parentage, 3,167,082 (1,572,885 males and 1,594,197 females); native white of foreign or mixed parentage, 3,063,721 (1,494,838 males and 1,568,883 females); foreign-born white 1,834,310 (904,742 males and 929,568 females); Negro, 94,086 (46,963 males and 47,123 females); Indian, 2,466 (1,273 males and 1,193 females); Chinese, 3,794 (3,233 males and 561 females); Japanese, 352 (277 males and 75 females); Mexican, 107 (69 males and 38 females); all other races, 423 (377 males and 46 females).

RECREATION, ADEQUATE AS TO KIND AND AVAILABILITY.

Although the ratio of park acreage to population has been used as the simplest measure of the extent to which cities provide areas for the recreation of their people, it is by no means an accurate basis for determining this. If most of the total acreage is in one large park, if the parks are poorly distributed, or if they do not provide various types of recreation facilities, the park system may be inefficient even though the acreage is large. The efficiently planned park and recreation system will involve balanced relationship and well-distributed location of several types of properties, namely, children's playgrounds, neighborhood playfield parks, neighborhood parks, reservations, boulevards, and parkways.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER,
May 29, 1934.

HON. FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—I am forwarding to you herewith, for approval, five (5) copies of a contract with the American Electrical Works, dated May 29, 1934, for signal cable.

Recommendation by my consulting engineers, Jackson & Moreland, approved by me, for the award of this contract to the American Electrical Works (on the basis of proposals submitted after due advertising but before approval of the project by P. W. A.) has been approved by the local P. W. A. authorities in accordance with P. W. A. requirements after careful consideration of all proposals submitted. The contract with the American Electrical Works replaces and is substantially the same as the one executed by me with the same company on March 31, 1934, except that a revised N. R. A. Compliance Certificate has been inserted.

Now that P. W. A. requirements have been complied with, and a Grant Agreement for the Police Communications System has been executed between the City of Boston and the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, I believe this contract can now be executed, under the Council order approved by you on March 2, 1934, appropriating, under the provisions of chapter 366 of the Acts of 1933, as amended, the sum of $350,000 for this project, to be expended under my direction. The objections set forth by the Corporation Counsel, in his opinion rendered on April 2, 1934, with respect to the General Electric Company contract, are therefore not now applicable to this contract.

The invitation to bidders for furnishing signal cable was originally advertised in the City Record February 24, 1934, and, after minor modification of the specifications to meet P. W. A. suggestions, was again advertised in the City Record on March 3, 1934, and March 10, 1934. There is therefore no question that ample opportunity was afforded all interested and qualified manufacturers to submit proposals on this material and that we have received the benefit of full competition.

The American Electrical Works offered the lowest bid on all items of signal cable covered by the contract awarded to them with one single minor exception: Durable Wire Rope Company (Roebling) originally bid on all items of cable covered by the contract with the American Electrical Works, but their proposal was higher on every item with the single exception of one (Item K) on which they were low for the total amount of cable covered by this item by one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50), whereupon they asked leave to withdraw and their request was granted.

In order to avoid the long delays and probable increase in cost and injustice to bidders which would result from reopening these bids, I respectfully request that you approve awarding this contract as above without further advertising.

Very truly yours,

E. C. HULTMAN,
Police Commissioner.

Only proposals obtained at the office of the architects, James H. Ritchie and Associates, 100 Arlington street, Boston, Mass., signed by the bidder and left before 2 o'clock, daylight saving time, Wednesday, August 22, 1934, at the office of the Superintendent of the Boston City Hospital, with a certified check, or bank certificate of deposit, for $40,000, payable to the city if the proposal is not carried out, will then and there be publicly opened and read. (No bid bond will be accepted.) The proposal must be made in duplicate, the one with the check to be submitted as indicated above, the other to be deposited with the City Auditor, City Hall, before the time of opening the proposals. The Board of Trustees reserves the right to reject any or all proposals, or to accept any proposal deemed best for the interest of the City of Boston, and no award can be made without the approval of the State Engineer, P. W. A. Plans and specifications may be obtained at the office of the architects, James H. Ritchie and Associates, 100 Arlington street, Boston. A deposit of $50 will be required for a complete set of plans and specifications, said sum to be refunded on return of drawings and specifications. Mutilation of the plans or specifications will be deemed sufficient cause for the forfeiture of the said deposit.

Bidders must give due consideration to the fact that the project is to be financed by loan and/or grant and constructed under the terms of the National Industrial Recovery Act and chapter 366, Massachusetts Acts of 1933, as amended.

Attention is directed to the special contract provisions relating to such projects as prescribed by the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works and recited in the contract, including the prescribed minimum rates of $1.20 per hour for skilled labor and $0.50 per hour for unskilled labor, and to the special provisions as to other wage and labor requirements. All contracts and subcontracts must contain these provisions.

The State Public Employment Office (Everett L. Hanna, Manager), 100 Nashua Street, Boston, has been designated by the National Re-employment Service to supply labor for this project.

Pursuant to Executive Order 6646, dated March 14, 1934, no bid will be considered unless it includes or is accompanied by a certificate (worded in accordance with P. W. A. 61, revised March 19, 1934) duly executed by the bidder, stating that the bidder is complying with and will continue to comply with each approved code of fair competition to which he is subject and/or if engaged in any trade or industry for which there is no approved code of fair competition, then stating that as to such trade or industry he has become a party to and is complying with and will continue to comply with an agreement with the President (President's Re-employment Agreement) under Section 4 (a) of the National Industrial Recovery Act.

HON. FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—I am forwarding to you herewith, for approval, five copies of a contract with Wetmore-Savage Electric Supply Company, dated July 11, 1934, for signal cable, Items E, G, H and L, each copy including a signed cancellation of the previous contract dated April 2, 1934.

Recommendation by my consulting engineers, Jackson & Moreland, approved by me, for the award of this contract to Wetmore-Savage Electric Supply Company (on the basis of proposals submitted after due advertising but before approval of the project by P. W. A.) has been approved by the local P. W. A. authorities in accordance with P. W. A. requirements after careful consideration of all proposals submitted. The contract with the Wetmore-Savage Electric Supply Company replaces and is substantially the same as the one executed by me with the same company on April 2, 1934, except that a revised N. R. A. Compliance Certificate has been inserted.

Now that P. W. A. requirements have been complied with, and a Grant Agreement for the Police Communications System has been executed between the City of Boston and the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, I believe it advisable to cancel the agreement dated April 2 with Wetmore-Savage Electric Supply Company and to execute this new agreement dated July 11, under the Council order approved by you on March 2, 1934, appropriating, under the provisions of chapter 366 of the Acts of 1933, as amended, the sum of $350,000 for this project to be expended under my direction.

The invitation to bidders for furnishing signal cable was originally advertised in the City Record February 24, 1934, and, after minor modification of the specification to meet P. W. There is, therefore, no question that ample opportunity was afforded all interested and qualified manufacturers to submit proposals on this material and that we have received the benefit of full competition.

On each of the four items of signal cable (E, G, H and L) covered by this contract the Wetmore-Savage Electric Supply Company bid was either the lowest or as low as any other received.

In order to avoid the long delays and probable increase in cost and injustice to bidders which would result from reopening these bids, I respectfully request that you approve awarding this contract as above without further advertising.

HON. FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—I am forwarding to you herewith, for approval, five (5) copies of a contract with the General Electric Company, dated May 29, 1934, for a Two-way Radio Telephone System.

Recommendation by my consulting engineers, Jackson & Moreland, approved by me, for the award of this contract to the General Electric Company (on the basis of proposals submitted after due advertising but before approval of the project by P. W. A.) has been approved by the local P. W. A. authorities in accordance with P. W. A. requirements after careful consideration of all proposals submitted. The contract with the General Electric Company replaces and is substantially the same as the one executed by me with the same company on February 15, 1934, except that P. W. A. Special Provisions and N. R. A. Compliance Certificate have been inserted.

Now that P. W. A. requirements have been complied with, and a Grant Agreement for the Police Communications System has been executed between the City of Boston and the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, I believe this contract can now be executed, under the Council order approved by you on March 2, 1934, appropriating, under the provisions of chapter 366 of the Acts of 1933, as amended, the sum of $350,000 for this project, to be expended under my direction. The objections set forth by the Corporation Counsel, in his opinion rendered on April 2, 1934, with respect to the General Electric Company contract, are therefore not now applicable to this contract.

The invitation to bidders for furnishing the Two-way Radio Telephone System was originally advertised in the City Record January 13, 1934, and extensions of time were advertised in the City Record on January 27 and February 3, 1934. There is therefore no question that ample opportunity was afforded all interested and qualified manufacturers to submit proposals on this equipment and that we have received the benefit of full competition.

The General Electric Company offered the lowest bid for the Two-way Radio Telephone System in accordance with the specifications. The R. C. A.-Victor Company, Incorporated, offered a lower bid for one-way radio equipment only, without guarantees, and failing to meet the specifications in other important particulars, and consequently this proposal was disregarded.

In order to avoid the long delays and probable increase in cost and injustice to bidders which would result from reopening these bids, I respectfully request that you approve awarding this contract as above without further advertising.

CITY OF BOSTON.

POLICE DEPARTMENT.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER,
May 29, 1934.

HON. FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—I am forwarding to you herewith, for approval, five copies of a contract with the Jackson Electric Company, dated May 29, 1934, for automobile generators for radio car service.

Recommendation by my consulting engineers, Jackson & Moreland, approved by me, for the award of this contract to the Jackson Electric Company (on the basis of proposals submitted after due advertising but before approval of the project by P. W. A.) has been approved by the local P. W. A. authorities in accordance with P. W. A. requirements after careful consideration of all proposals submitted.

Now that P. W. A. requirements have been complied with, and a Grant Agreement for the Police Communications System has been executed between the City of Boston and the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, I believe this contract can now be executed, under the Council order approved by you on March 2, 1934, appropriating, under the provisions of chapter 366 of the Acts of 1933, as amended, the sum of $350,000 for this project, to be expended under my direction.

The invitation to bidders for furnishing automobile generators for radio car service was originally advertised in the City Record on March 17, 1934, and March 24, 1934, and readvertised in the City Record March 31 and April 7, 1934, after minor changes in the specifications. There is, therefore, no question that ample opportunity was afforded all interested and qualified manufacturers to submit proposals on this equipment and that we have received the benefit of full competition.

Identical proposals for this equipment were made by Jackson Electric Company and E. B. Atmus, Incorporated, which was the low bid, with two exceptions: (1) A. & J. Auto Ignition Company, in addition to a higher bid on equipment in accordance with the specifications, also submitted a lower alternative bid on equipment which did not meet the specifications and which my engineers (Jackson & Moreland) advised could not be accepted as a satisfactory substitute for the equipment specified; and (2) the Boston Automotive Electric Service Corporation originally submitted a bid on the equipment specified which (in the aggregate amounting to approximately $3,000) was $25 lower than the bids by Jackson Electric Company and E. B. Atmus, Incorporated. When it became necessary, in order to meet P. W. A. requirements, to ask the bidders to extend the time originally specified in the contract forms for awarding the contract, the Boston Automotive Electric Service Corporation declined to make the necessary extension, their proposal lapsed, and they withdrew their certified check. This left the choice between the identical bids submitted by Jackson Electric Company and E. B. Atmus, Incorporated, and in accordance with the recommendation of my engineers, I have awarded the contract to the Jackson Electric Company.

In order to avoid the long delays and probable increase in cost and injustice to bidders which would result from reopening these bids, I respectfully request that you approve awarding these contracts as above, without further advertising.

Very truly yours,
E. C. HULTMAN,
Police Commissioner.

Approved:
F. MANSFIELD, Mayor.

A SQUARE DEAL IN ASSESSMENTS FOR TAXATION.

Many cities are finding it greatly to their advantage to have their tax valuations periodically overhauled. The first criterion of any assessment is equity. For every citizen who wants through "pull" or however else to get off easy, there are twenty, nay a hundred, who want a fair and square deal for all.

The appraisal of city real estate is a highly technical affair.

Few things are more important than the equalization of assessments. Particularly in cities that are cramped by an inflexible debt or tax limit, an honest, full value assessment may be a great boon. Without the slightest raise in the tax rate a substantially greater tax yield may be had.

The card shelf-list will consist of approximately 1,500,000 cards, requiring four cabinets with a total capacity of 1,020 drawers for filing space. The library has received quotations from five leading manufacturers of library equipment, as follows:

OVERSEERS OF THE PUBLIC WELFARE.

Upon July 27 the Mayor approved a contract with the Merchants Towel Supply and Laundry Company for laundry work at the Wayfarers' Lodge. The following bids were received on Wednesday, July 18:

Spreads, Each.—New Method Family Laundry, Incorporated, 8 cents; Hub Laundry Company, Incorporated, 3 cents; Merchants Towel Supply and Laundry Company, 4 cents.

Blankets, Each.—New Method Family Laundry, Incorporated, 15 cents; Hub Laundry Company, Incorporated, 20 cents; Merchants Towel Supply and Laundry Company, 15 cents.

A certified check for $200 made payable to the City of Boston accompanied the bid of the Hub Laundry Company, Incorporated, and Merchants Towel Supply and Laundry Company, but the check which accompanied the New Method Family Laundry, Incorporated, was a cashier's check. As this company was high bidder this difficulty did not make any difference in our final vote on the contract. Proposals were checked with the duplicates filed with the City Auditor and found in all instances to be the same.

The cost for this work last year (1933) amounted to $3,304.93, and taking the amount of material used last year as a basis for calculating the amount of the lowest biddder, an entire sum to be paid in any calendar year would total $2,-330.37, showing an estimated saving of $974.56 over that paid last year.

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

Upon varying dates, as indicated, the Mayor approved contracts with several firms and companies for furnishing supplies and materials to several departments. Communications from the heads of the departments interested were as follows:

LIBRARY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 25, 1934.

HON. FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MANSFIELD,—The Trustees of the Public Library of the City of Boston respectfully request your permission to award a contract for repairing portions of the main tile roof, Central Library Building, to the E. Stanley Wires Company, Incorporated, of Boston, without advertising for bids.

Under the terms of the proposed contract the scope of the work would be expressly limited to not exceed in total cost to the city the sum of three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500).

The construction and condition of the roof are such that in undertaking repairs in any selected sections it is necessary to make progressive investigations and it is impossible to predetermine, with the exactitude requisite for competitive bidding, the extent of deteriorated joints and of depleted flashings; or precisely to decide in advance of uncovering hidden defects the remedial measures essential to the undertaking.

Limited repairs of the roof, carried out under provisions of a contract similar to those of the one now contemplated, proved successful in previous years and the procedure is deemed to be in the interest of the city.

A sum sufficient for the undertaking, limited in scope as aforesaid, is comprehended in the current budget of the Library Department.

Very respectfully,

THE TRUSTEES OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON,
by F. W. BUXTON,
Vice-President.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 25, 1934.

To the Honorable Mayor.

Cedarwood road in West Roxbury, between Moss Hill road and Hillcroft road, was laid out and ordered constructed by the Board of Street Commissioners July 27, 1933. Plans were made and the department was ready to ask for bids in the Fall, but other activities intervened and bids were not actually requested.

This particular street is in a deplorable condition and it is most essential that the street be now constructed with a permanent base, top, etc.

Your permission is respectfully requested to advertise and receive bids for the construction of this particular street. The cost of this work will be paid for out of Highways, Making of, loan, and, as a matter of fact, the estimated cost of approximately $11,000 was set aside last year for the purpose when the Board of Street Commissioners ordered the construction.

Under the Highways, Making of, loan one half of the entire expense of street construction is borne by the abutting property; consequently, the net cost to the city is approximately $5,500, the remaining $5,500 being assessed to the abutting property.

Respectfully,

C. J. CARVEN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

BOSTON, July 25, 1934.

To the Honorable Mayor.

Commenting on the construction of Goodway road, between Bourne street and Florence street, I beg leave to state that Goodway road was laid out as a C. W. A. project December 11, 1933, by the Board of Street Commissioners. This authorization of construction called for no expenditure under the Highways, Making of, loan, and consequently there is no assessment against the abutting property.

The type of construction contemplated under C. W. A. activities is a penetrated macadam roadway, no curbing and no sidewalks. At the present time there is no sewer system in Goodway road and the seventeen houses on said road have only cesspool connections. Petitions have been received from the abutting property for a sewerage pipe, etc., to safeguard the health of the community. The best method of treatment in this particular case will have to be to have the Board of Street Commissioners revoke their vote of December 11, 1933, and to vote to accept Goodway road and order it constructed under the Highways, Making of, loan.

The estimated cost for sewerage pipe, etc., is $5,500. Cost of street construction with a permanent roadway, curbstone and granolithic sidewalks is $6,000. Under the Highways, Making of, loan one half of the entire expense of the street construction is borne by the abutting property. I respectfully recommend, in accordance with your telephone conversation in regard to the construction of this street, that it be constructed and paid for under the Highways, Making of, loan.

Respectfully,

C. J. CARVEN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 27, 1934.

HON. FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Permission is respectfully requested to award a contract, without publicly advertising same, to the International Business Machines Corporation of 533 Commonwealth avenue, Boston, for furnishing tabulating machine service at a rental of $455 per month, for a period of one year, total $5,460. These machines are to be used in connection with the E. R. A. projects.

As the International Business Machines Corporation are the sole owners of these machines nothing would be gained by publicly advertising.

Respectfully yours,

ROSWELL G. HALL,
Superintendent of Public Buildings.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 25, 1934.

HON. FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—In accordance with your permission, approved under date of March 22, 1934, and extended under date of June 13, 1934, under which authority was given me to place orders for material or equipment needed for F. E. R. A. activities where the values of such purchases exceeded $1,000, without the formality of advertising, I would ask that authority be granted me to award a contract to the Boston Sand and Gravel Company for furnishing to the Boston City Hospital 523½ yards of concrete mixture 1-2½-5 and 193 yards. Cement finish mixture 1-3 at a total price of $4,829.75. The total bidders of the various bids are as follows:

Boston Sand and Gravel Company, $4,829.75; J. P. O'Connell Company, $4,829.75; The Whittemore Company, $4,829.75; J. H. McNamara, $4,829.75.

The award was made by draw, and the Boston Sand and Gravel Company was awarded the contract.

Respectfully yours,

WARREN W. LOOMIS,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, August 1, 1934.

HON. FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—In accordance with your permission approved under date of March 22, 1934, and extended under date of June 13, 1934, under which authority was given me to place orders for material or equipment needed for F. E. R. A. activities where the values of such purchases exceeded $1,000, without the formality of advertising, I would ask that authority be granted me to award a contract to the Boston Blue Print Company, 184 Boylston street, to cover the photographic reproduction of the library shelf-list record of books. Bids were received from the following concerns:

Boston Blue Print Company, 31 cents a page; Boston Photo Copy Print Company, 60 cents a page; Spaulding-Moss Company, $1.20 a page.

B. L. Makepeace, 462 Boylston street, and George E. Lawrence Company, 47 Winchester street, were asked to bid, but preferred not to do so.

You will note that the Boston Blue Print Company, at 31 cents a page, is the lowest bidder, and I, therefore, recommend that the contract be awarded to them at this price.

On account of the fact that it is not possible to determine in advance the actual amount of work which will be done under this contract, I cannot give exactly the contract value, but the approximate cost will be $8,500.

You have already approved this award on July 23, as the result of a request from Mr. Richard G. Hensley, the assistant librarian, dated July 20, 1934.

Respectfully yours,

WARREN W. LOOMIS,
Superintendent of Supplies.

TRAFFIC COMMISSION.

BOSTON, July 24, 1934.

HON. FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD,

DEAR SIR,—Permission is respectfully requested to award a contract, without publicly advertising same, to the Edison Electric Illuminating Company of Boston, to construct underground conduit and supply cables for an automatic traffic signal in the intersection of Commercial street and Foster street in the City of Boston, at a cost not to exceed one thousand five hundred and sixty-one dollars ($1,561.)

As the Edison Electric Illuminating Company of Boston is the only firm having facilities available for supplying electric energy, no advantage would accrue from public advertising.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. HICKEY,
Commissioner.

7. The City agrees to pay the Company the actual cost to the Company of the material and labor for the aforementioned construction, required to be installed by the Company, plus ten per cent (10 per cent) for overhead and engineering expense.

The Company agrees, however, that the total cost to the City under non-frost conditions, shall not exceed one thousand, five hundred and sixty dollars ($1,560.00), except that if the Company shall be required to furnish a bond to secure the performance of this agreement, the City shall, in addition to other costs, pay the Company the premium on said bond, plus ten per cent (10 per cent).

8. It is agreed that said control cables and the alternating current service cables to be provided and installed by the Company as aforesaid, shall be the property of the City, and shall be maintained by the Company, but the cost of maintaining the same shall be borne by the City under terms and conditions hereafter to be agreed upon, and the City further agrees that it will furnish and keep on hand in its own stockrooms a supply of control cable sufficient for necessary repairs and renewals.

It is agreed that, if after said control and service cables have been drawn into the conduit connections and conduit laterals aforesaid, the location of the same is changed at the direction of the state, municipal, or other public authority, the cost of the change shall be borne by the City, but, if the conduit connections and the conduit laterals containing said control and service cables shall be moved to other locations to suit the convenience of the Company, the entire cost thereof shall be borne by the Company.

11. The Company shall comply with the provisions of Sections 13 to 19 inclusive of Chapter 40 of the Revised Ordinances of 1925, and no recovery shall be had on this contract or any subcontract hereunder by the Company against the City or any other person if a breach of said sections has been established.

12. The provisions and stipulations required by Sections 26 and 34 of Chapter 149 of the General Laws, so far as the same are applicable hereto, are made a part of this agreement.

13. The Company agrees to proceed with the construction work herein provided for expeditiously, and, subject to strikes and other contingencies beyond its control, to complete the work within three (3) months after the delivery of this agreement.

14. The City shall pay the Company, under non-frost conditions, three hundred and ninety dollars ($390), thirty days after the work has been started, provided the Company has proceeded with the work during said thirty (30) days with reasonable expedition; it shall pay a like amount sixty (60) days after work has been started, provided the Company has proceeded with the work during said sixty (60) days with reasonable expedition; and it shall pay the balance of the amount due sixty-one (61) days after the completion of the work.

The time for payment shall, if the Company is delayed in rendering its final bill because of reasons outside of its control, be extended to the extent of delay so caused.

15. The payment of the final amount due under this contract and for any adjustment of / or addition thereto shall release the City from any and all claims of liability under this contract or any adjustment or alteration there of.

Signed this day and year first above written.

The contract of the Edison Electric Illuminating Company has been granted a further extension of the contract for constructing underground conduit and supplying cables for service to automatic traffic signals at seven (7) suburban intersections in the City of Boston, extended from July 17, 1934, to October 17, 1934.

No betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

Voted, That this Board determines that no person sustains damages in his estate by the making of the public improvement consisting of the widening of Allston street, Dorchester district, at the southwesterly corner of Melville avenue, under an order of the Board of July 25, 1934, and awards no damages therefor.

Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit a letter from the School Committee of the City of Boston, relative to your order of June 11, 1934, and also relative to a previous similar order passed June 4, 1934, concerning the advisability of establishing Junior College courses in Boston high schools.

City of Boston,
School Committee, July 10, 1934.

Hon. Frederick W. Mansfield,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—The School Committee has received the order passed by the City Council June 11, 1934, and transmitted through the office of the Mayor, requesting the School Committee to consider the advisability of "using the Boston high schools, at hours when they are not in use for regular school purposes, for the purpose of teaching Junior College subjects to those, who, because of the depression, are unable to continue on after finishing their high school education".

The School Committee respectfully reports that in its opinion the provision now made for the return of pupils to the day high schools for post-graduate work is adequate for the unemployed graduates. Provision also is made in the evening high schools for those who wish to continue their education and who are unable to attend the day schools.

The School Committee feels that it is not advisable at this time to extend the opportunities for further study to the extent of opening up the high school buildings as suggested by the order passed by the City Council

Respectfully yours,
ELLEN M. CRONIN, Secretary.

City of Boston,
Board of Election Commissioners,
July 13, 1934.

Hon. Frederick W. Mansfield,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—In re order of City Councilor Norton, dated May 21, relative to the locations of polling places in the City of Boston.

In as much as we are compelled by law to post the locations of polling places during the month of August, it is impossible this year to make a complete and accurate study of these locations.

This department has fortunately been successful in locating the major portion of polling places in public buildings (schoolhouses, engine houses, ward rooms, libraries, etc.), the remaining portion having been located in houses of religious worship. Thirty-two precincts are located in voting booths on land rented by the City of Boston. Such voting booths are used only in precincts where it is impossible to obtain a private or public building for voting purposes. Changes in locations are made from time to time, where an exigency arises, or when complaint is made by the voters of the precinct.

We will at all times entertain such complaints and give proper attention to new locations. However, as stated above, lack of time for the present year does not permit a complete study of the three hundred sixty-seven (367) voting precincts in the city, in order that we might comply with the requirements of law.

Respectfully yours,
BOARD OF ELECTION COMMISSIONERS,
DAVID B. SHAW, Chairman.

Hon. Frederick W. Mansfield,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—The School Committee has received the order passed by the City Council May 28, 1934, requesting the committee, through your Honor, to take additional land adjacent to the John Marshall School, Dorchester, for play space for the children attending that school.

The committee finds that less than a year ago a suggestion for the taking of additional land for the John Marshall School was before the Board of Apportionment, and that Board, after looking into the matter, reported to the committee that the district was not growing appreciably and that the play space for pupils afforded by the land then owned was slightly more than the standard play space per pupil.

In view of the situation as then reported and the fact that the principal of the district had made no presentation of need for additional school accommodations for the district, and the further fact that the money available for new buildings was so limited that it was not then possible to provide for actual building needs, the School Committee could not approve of any enlargement of the John Marshall School yard.

The committee now finds the situation practically unchanged, and since the funds available for building needs this year are still further limited, the committee could not see its way to make any appropriation for the enlargement of the yard of the John Marshall School.

Respectfully yours,
ELLEN M. CRONIN Secretary.

City of Boston,
School Committee, July 3, 1934.

Hon. Frederick W. Mansfield,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—Under date of June 19, 1934, the School Committee received from the office of the Mayor a communication transmitting the following order passed in City Council June 11, 1934:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor request the School Committee to consider the advisability of conducting a sixth grade at the Charles Logue School.

From the best information available, the School Committee finds that to care for the comparatively few pupils who live in the northeastern section of the district who would attend a sixth grade in the Charles Logue School, it established, provision has been made to grant transfers freely to the Robert Treat Paine District and to the Roger Wolcott District. The Audubon School in the Robert Treat Paine District is less than one half mile distant from the homes of these children, the Roger Wolcott School is three fifths of a mile distant. Pupils who have elected to attend the Edmund P. Tileston building have been given luncheon privileges at that school.

With these arrangements, it seems to the committee that there will be no undue hardship imposed on any child who must attend a sixth grade from the northeastern section of the district. The school authorities believe that the committee would not be justified in opening up an additional sixth grade, either in the portable in the Charles Logue School yard, as has been suggested, or in the Solomon Lewenberg Intermediate School.

The committee is informed that early this year a committee of mothers called on the principal of the Edmund P. Tileston District to discuss sixth grade accommodations, and at the close of the conference the group was satisfied that the present solution is the best one for all concerned.

Respectfully submitted,
ELLEN M. CRONIN, Secretary.

"Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to inform the City Council as to the wage scale paid by Joseph P. Dear Sir,—I am returning herewith to your Honor a copy of an order passed by the City Council on July 2, 1934, as follows:

"Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor of Boston consider the advisability of requesting the Fire Commissioner, during the hot weeks of the summer, to flood certain streets of the city, especially where there are a large number of children, and also to use to capacity the sprinkler shower bath system attached to hydrants.

In City Council July 2, 1934. Passed.

Attest:

W. J. DOYLE, City Clerk."

Since 1922 hydrant showers have been operated by this department during the summer months when the temperature is 80 degrees or over. Most of these showers are located in the congested sections, but others are operated all over the city. These showers are operated in the morning and afternoon. The shower baths have been in use during this summer and will continue to be in accordance with the custom established.

In the early evening of hot days, during the summer months, streets in the congested sections of the city are flushed by members of this department.

EDWARD F. McLAUGHLIN,

Ordered, That the Traffic Commissioner, through his Honor the Mayor, be requested to place 'Stop' signs at all streets leading into Charles street, from Cambridge to Leverett street."

In order to erect "Stop" signs in the streets entering this portion of Charles street it would be necessary that Charles street, from Cambridge street to Leverett street, be made a through way.

Under the statute law it would be necessary to obtain the permission of the Massachusetts Department of Public Works in order to adopt this rule.

Two through way streets, namely, Commonwealth avenuem, from Arlington street to Kenmore square, and Blue Hill avenue, from Dudley street to Mattapan square, have been created in Boston. The Commonwealth avenue through way was discontinued when the automatic signal system was installed.

Observations of traffic conditions in these two streets under the through way rule has convinced the Engineering Department of this commission that through way rules in streets seriously increase the accident hazard due principally to two reasons —first, that motorists using the through way increase the speeds of the vehicles, and, second that practically no attention is paid by them to vehicles entering from side streets.

It is our opinion that the erection of "Stop" signs would not correct the evils attendant on traffic conditions in Charles street.

WILLIAM P. HICKEY,

"Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to inform the City Council as to his reason for establishing an age limit for guards and gatemen to be appointed on the new East Boston Traffic Tunnel."

The duties of the tunnel guards, both inside and on the plaza, are such that physical activity is necessary. In emergencies arising in the tunnel it is absolutely essential that the guards be alert, active and quick in grasping the requirements and solving any difficulty that presents itself. The constant noise of traffic in the tunnel and the confinement in the tunnel for a length of time and the liability of the employees being subjected to a percentage of carbon monoxide under certain conditions will have a far less detrimental effect on a man under forty years than on a man over forty years of age.

REPAIR OF CHELSEA NORTH AVENUE BRIDGE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 23, 1934.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am advised by the Commissioner of Public Works that under the provisions of chapter 342 of the Acts of 1934 the City of Boston is authorized to repair and strengthen the Chelsea North Bridge over the Mystic river between Boston and Chelsea at a cost not exceeding $270,000. Under the provisions of the bill 50 per cent of the cost of the work is to be paid by the Commonwealth. Sixty-two and one-half per cent of the balance, or $84,375, is to be paid by the City of Boston, and the remaining portion of the cost, $50,625, is to be paid by the City of Chelsea. The act further provides that the Commonwealth's share of the cost shall be secured by an appropriation from the Highway Fund, and that payments required from Boston and Chelsea shall be secured by the issuance of loans outside the statutory limit of indebtedness. No work can be begun nor any contract be made for this project until the three parties responsible for financing the cost have made the necessary arrangements to provide their respective shares.

An appropriation to cover the Commonwealth's share of the cost was provided by the Legislature in the supplementary budget of the state. It now remains for Boston and Chelsea to provide in the manner authorized their proportionate share of the cost of this project.

At the present time in view of the serious condition of this bridge only a limited amount of traffic is being permitted to use the bridge. Since it is one of the important arteries of traffic, this limitation is naturally the cause of considerable congestion and confusion. There can be no question but what the work contemplated under the legislative act is desirable and necessary. In order that there may be no undue delay in commencing the contemplated work I submit herewith a loan order in the amount of $84,000. The appropriation for the remaining portion of Boston's share of the cost, namely, $375, is included in the supplementary budget submitted to your honorable body this day. I respectfully recommend immediate consideration and action on the accompanying order.

Respectfully,
FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD, Mayor.

Ordered, That under the provisions of chapter 342 of the Acts of 1934, the sum of $84,000 be, and the same hereby is, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Works, for Chelsea North Bridge, Repair and Strengthening, and that the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, upon request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount, the same to be issued outside the statutory limit of indebtedness.

Referred to Executive Committee.

FINAL BUDGET RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 23, 1934.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I submit herewith my final budget recommendations for the current fiscal year. These recommendations, covering five budget divisions, total $2,435,122.09. The segregation of this total is shown in the following table:

City Maintenance Requirements	$1,582,361 55
City Debt Requirements	635,026 96
County Maintenance Requirements	76,007 05
Income Department Maintenance Requirements	12,039 75
Traffic Tunnel Interest Requirements	129,686 78
	$2,435,122 09

The following explanations are offered in connection with the recommendations submitted under the various budget divisions.

City Maintenance Requirements.

The total recommended for appropriation under this division represents the amount which is still available for appropriation inside the tax limit. An analysis of the various items making up this total is shown in the following table:

Welfare appropriations	$1,186,300 00
Sliding scale increases	146,650 05
Emergency relief projects	120,950 00
Reserve Fund	75,000 00
Library books	25,000 00
Public Celebrations	9,000 00
Registration of voters	4,400 00
Chelsea North Bridge	375 00
Miscellaneous	14,686 50
	$1,582,361 55

Appropriations for Welfare purposes are spread over three departments. In the Public Welfare Department $1,000,000 is recommended for relief disbursement needs and $71,300 for additional pay roll requirements. The former amount makes a total of $8,600,000 to be included within the tax levy this year for disbursements by the Public Welfare Department for Unemployment Relief, Care of Dependents, Mothers' Aid, and Old Age Assistance. It is estimated that this amount will be sufficient to cover such disbursements until the middle of next September. It is planned to secure the amounts required for relief disbursements after this date by taking advantage of the provisions of chapter 49 of the Acts of 1933, which authorizes municipalities to expend for maintenance purposes the proceeds of loans made by the Commonwealth against tax titles held by cities and towns. In the Soldiers' Relief Department, relief expenditures for the first half of the current year were approximately $450,000. In view of the fact the original budget appropriation was $800,000, it is deemed desirable to appropriate an additional $100,000, in order to avoid a deficit at the end of the year. In the Child Welfare Department a 6 per cent increase in the number of children under the care of the department, together with a sharp upward movement in the prices of clothing furnished the children, makes it necessary to provide additional allowances for board, medical attention, and wearing apparel, totaling $15,000.

Under the provisions of chapter 228 of the Acts of 1934, authorizing the restoration as of January 1 of the current year, of sliding scale increases which have been suspended for the last three years, it has been necessary to appropriate $146,650.05 to provide for approximately 1,400 employees who will benefit under such restoration. Two-thirds of the total so appropriated has been allocated to three departments—Police, Fire and Library.

The probable continuance of E. R. A. projects for some months to come makes it necessary to provide additional allowances totaling $120,950 to various city departments for the purchase of materials and supplies, and the rental of necessary equipment required to carry on emergency relief projects. In all, the city has appropriated in excess of $400,000 for such projects since the beginning of the year.

In order that funds may be available to meet probable further increases before the close of 1934 in the prices of commodities, it has been deemed desirable to allocate an additional $75,000 to the Reserve Fund, making a total appropriation in this fund for 1934 of $525,000. In 1933 $550,000 was appropriated.

At the urgent request of the Library Trustees an additional appropriation of $25,000 is recommended for the purchase of library books. Of the original appropriation of $75,000 provided in the budget, approximately $50,000 was expended in the first six months, leaving only $25,000 for the requirements of the last half of the year. Since books represent the life-blood of the library, it is felt desirable, in order that the work of the library may not be seriously crippled, to provide an additional appropriation which will make available in the last half of the year an amount equal to that expended during the first six months.

From the experience of the first six months of the current year it is evident that the original budget appropriation of $15,000 for Public Celebrations will be inadequate to provide for the requirements of the current year. In the opinion of the Director of Public Celebrations, expenditures of his department in 1934 will total $24,000, making necessary an additional appropriation of $9,000. In 1933 expenditures for Public Celebrations totaled $37,747.64.

At the request of the Election Commissioners an additional appropriation of $4,400 is recommended in order that proper provisions may be made for ward registration of voters in advance of the State Primary and Election.

Under the provisions of chapter 342 of the Acts of 1934 the City of Boston is required to appropriate $84,375 for the repair and strengthening of Chelsea North Bridge. In a separate messsage forwarded today to your honorable body, I am recommending that $84,000 of the sum previously mentioned be borrowed outside the limit of indebtedness of the city. The balance of the amount the city must raise for this purpose is included in this budget.

Miscellaneous appropriations totaling $14,686.50 recommended in this budget cover additional requirements of several city departments for supplies, equipment and materials.

City Debt Requirements.

To meet interest requirements on temporary loans issued this year, and semiannual interest payments on loans issued in the early part of the year, an additional appropriation of $635,026.96 is recommended. The following table indicates the make-up of this total:

Actual interest charges on temporary loans issued to July 16	$579,960 26
Estimated interest charges on temporary loans still to be issued	38,547 95
Semiannual interest charges on loans issued May 1	16,518 75
	$635,026 96

It is interesting to note that the supplementary interest appropriation recommended at this time last year was $721,198.60.

County Maintenance Requirements.

Of the total of $76,007.05 recommended for county departments, $46,783.95 represents the cost of restoration of sliding scale increases for county employees. It is estimated that 643 individuals will be benefited by such restorations. Other county recommendations include $2,000 for extra clerical assistance in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Civil Court because of additional work contemplated as a result of an announced plan to call the entire docket or list of pending cases at the opening of the court in September; $2,700 for additional special justices in district courts because of legislation requiring tort actions in motor vehicle cases to be brought in District Courts, rather than the Superior Court; $3,000 for the construction of a wire fence at the Shirley Gut end of Deer Island; $5,000 for additional payments to dependents of prisoners at Deer Island; and $2,900 for E. R. A. projects at the Courthouse in Pemberton square.

Income Departmental Requirements.

The principal item contained in the recommendations under this division is an appropriation of $7,674.75 to cover the cost of the restoration of sliding scales in the four income departments. It is estimated that seventy employees will benefit under this restoration.

Debt Requirements, Traffic Tunnel.

Under the provisions of chapter 297 of the Acts of 1929, authorizing the construction of the East Boston Vehicular Tunnel, all interest on tunnel bonds accruing prior to the use of the tunnel was chargeable to the cost of construction of the tunnel. With the opening of the tunnel on June 20, however, interest charges on the $16,000,000 issue became operating costs, payable from the tolls and charges collected. To meet semiannual interest payments on these bonds falling due in September, October and December, an appropriation of $129,686.78 is included in the supplementary budget recommendations. This appropriation will be met from the revenues of the tunnel and will not be included in this year's tax levy.

I submit herewith the necessary appropriation and tax orders in connection with the Supplementary Budget and respectively recommend their adoption by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD, Mayor.

SUPPLEMENTARY APPROPRIATIONS AND TAX ORDERS FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR 1934.

Ordered, That the appropriations for Water Service, current expenses, be met by the income of said works and any excess over income from taxes; that the appropriation for East Boston Traffic Tunnel, and for interest requirements thereon, be met by the income from tunnel tolls and any excess over the income from taxes; that the appropriation for Printing Department be met by the department income and any excess over income from taxes; that the other appropriations hereinafter specified be met out of the income of the financial year beginning January 1, 1934, and the balance from taxes to be assessed on the polls and estates of the City of Boston.

Ordered, That all orders heretofore passed by the City Council relating to appropriations and taxes and the interest thereon apply to the taxes herein provided for.

RE-CENSORSHIP OF MOTION PICTURES

Coun. SELVITELLA and McGRATH offered the following:

Resolved, That the City Council of Boston endorse the present campaign for purification of the Motion Picture Industry so that the citizens and especially the children of Boston may not have their minds contaminated by exhibition of salacious and vulgar motion pictures, and that the Mayor of Boston be requested to call a meeting of the Board of Censors with a view of banning from the theaters of Boston all objectionable motion pictures, and for the further purpose of setting up regulations desired, to purge from motion pictures all scenes or references of an immoral or indecent nature.

FIVE-CENT FARE ON ELEVATED THROUGH GENERAL SUMNER TUNNEL.

Coun. SELVITELLA offered the following:

Ordered, That the Trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway Company be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to consider the advisability of a five-cent fare, without transfer privilege, through the General Sumner Tunnel, and that copies of this resolution be sent to the Trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway Company.

Coun. SELVITELLA—Mr. President, just a word in connection with the proposed five-cent carfare. At the present time Boston, as is generally known, is losing thousands of dollars on account of the operation of the tunnel which, of course, is no one's fault. At the same time, the Boston Elevated Railway Company is losing hundreds of dollars on account of the number of persons who thumb a ride from the entrance of the tunnel and go through without using the street car service. At the present time it is possible for anyone who wants a free ride to stop autoists at either end of the tunnel and if the operator of the car is good enough and kind enough to take that particular person in his automobile he goes through that tunnel free of charge. Of course I have no objection to that, and the only thing is that the Boston Elevated at the present time has an opportunity of getting more of those nickels if they will operate a bus through this tunnel, at the same time giving additional service to the car riders of East Boston and saving those hundreds of dollars which they are at the present time losing.

Coun. MURRAY—I am glad to hear the champion of the Elevated talking. I want to inform him he might look into the advisability of asking the Boston Elevated, if they are losing so much money, to put more buses on and give employment to men who are laid off. There is an ordinance of the City of Boston which says there shall be no standees and the Elevated every day in the week ignores that ordinance. I think it is about time we inform them they should stop having standees in buses.

TRAFFIC SIGNALS AT COLUMBIA ROAD AND QUINCY STREET.

Coun. TOBIN offered the following:

Passed under suspension of the rule.

RESURFACING ELLINGTON STREET

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. WILSON, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

1. Report on message and orders (referred today) for supplementary budget recommendations, appropriations totaling $2,435,122.09, recommending report and orders ought to pass.

Coun. WILSON—If there is no objection I ask that we vote on the Items F-5 first. Those are the items having to do with interest on debt requirements. The purpose of making that request is that I am going to make a later request concerning the total budget and then I am going to ask in the second place that the step-rate items be voted on separately so that those who wish to vote, and they must vote for the interest on the debt requirements, can vote on that separately, and those who are in favor of the step-rate increases to 2,113 employees can vote on that and then they may or may not vote on the budget.

President DOWD—Your motion is to vote on F-5 first?

Coun. WILSON—Yes, all the F-5 items.

President DOWD—Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the question is on the passage of the order pertaining to Item F-5.

Coun. GOLDMAN—I haven't seen F-5 and don't know what I am voting on.

(Item F-5 read by the clerk.)

President DOWD—The question is on the passage of Item F-5 and the clerk will call the roll.

Items F-5 of supplementary budget was passed, yeas 20, nays 0.

Coun. WILSON—I don't want to be unreasonable as I know some of the members are anxious to get away, and yet I would ask that we make one further split and that we vote next on the A-1 items in the supplementary budget, and I make that request for this reason: That I was one of the four or five councilors who voted against the original budget, this being the supplementary budget, and consistently I wish to vote against this additional amount, except for the step-rate increase items, and I feel that I can quite consistently vote for those particular items which are all listed in A-1 under the supplementary budget offered by the Mayor and I can do so for the reason that we have the explanation of the Budget Commissioner that the voting of this money aggregating $230,350 means step-rate increases to 2,113 city and county employees, on his assurance that an increase to one salaried person who is receiving around $3,500 is the exception rather than the rule; that practically all of these step-rate increases are to employees of the City of Boston who are receiving less than $2,200; that out of 1,400 of the jobs some 700 involve members of the Fire Department and the Police Department and a few in the Library Department; that out of the balance of the 1,400 city employees affected over 250 of the cases refer to clerks employed by the City of Boston now receiving under $1,600 a year; and I strongly feel that although I cannot vote for the whole supplementary budget, I can vote for Items A-1, which, as I have stated, means increases aggregating $230,350 to 2,113 men and women, practically 98 per cent of whom are now receiving a little more than a living wage, if they are receiving that, and for that reason I ask we vote on the A-1 items first.

Coun. NORTON—I voted against the original budget and I feel as though I have to vote against this. The step-rate increases are important because they increase the salary of employees, nevertheless, they are increases of salaries of those up to $3,500. Here we have out of 21,563 city and county and school employees a selected list of 2,113. Why? Why should they be selected over the others? Why are the hard working clerks in the auditor's office, as I notice them on the job from nine in the morning until five at night, not included in this? Why are many of the other employees not included? This is a preferred list. Therefore, Mr. President, I feel it is so unfair at the present time against the city's interests that I am going to vote against it. Up here on Beacon street we have the Boston Transit Commission, men who worked for over thirty years facing discharge,—no work for them. A man who has a job today is a fortunate man. Thousands of the best people in this city are walking the streets with nothing to do and no one knows where the money is coming from to carry the city through the next year. I am opposed to step-rate increases. Many of our low paid city employees are underpaid and in ordinary times should receive more money, but we are in the midst of the worst depression our city has known. We have not enough money to properly feed the unemployed. The Mayor himself has stated that the city is headed for financial chaos. 2,113 city employees out of a total of 21,563 are to be given step-rate increases. Taxes will be increased $465,000 or more. Courage and sagacity now might stall off the day of reckoning when there will be no pay roll and hundreds of city employees will be discharged for "lack of funds."

President DOWD—The question is on the passage of all items under A-1 and the clerk will call the roll.

Items A-1 of supplementary budget passed; yeas 19, nays 1:

Yeas—Agnew, Brackman, Doherty, Donovan, Dowd, Englert, Finley, Fish, Fitzgerald, Gallagher, Gleason, Goldman, Kerrigan, McGrath, Murray, Roberts, Selvitella, Tobin, Wilson—19.

Nays—Norton—1.

President DOWD—The question now comes on the passage of the remaining items of the supplementary budget and the clerk will call the roll.

The remaining items of the supplementary budget are passed, yeas 17, nays 3:

Yeas—Agnew, Brackman, Doherty, Donovan, Dowd, Englert, Finley, Fish, Fitzgerald, Gallagher, Gleason, Goldman, Kerrigan, McGrath, Murray, Selvitella, Tobin—17.

Nays—Norton, Roberts, Wilson—3.

2. Report on message of the Mayor and order (referred this day) for loan of $84,000 for repairing Chelsea North Bridge, recommending order ought to pass.

The order was read once and passed, yeas 20, nays 0.

3. Report on the petition of Cecelia M. Malloy (referred July 2)—recommending the passage of the following:

Ordered, That under the provisions of chapter 182 of the Acts of 1930, as amended by chapter 241 of the Acts of 1930, an annuity of sixteen hundred dollars be allowed and paid to Cecelia M. Malloy, widow of James T. Malloy, a member of the Police Department who was killed in the performance of his duty on June 4, 1934, said annuity being made up of allowances as follows:

For the widow, Cecelia M. Malloy, so long as she remains unmarried, $1,000 per annum.

For each of the following-named children, during such time as he or she is under the age of eighteen or over said age and physically or mentally incapacitated from earning, $200 per annum: James T. Malloy, Jr., born June 13, 1924; Lawrence W. Malloy, born October 23, 1929; Margery T. Malloy, born June 5, 1931,— the payment to date from June 5, 1934, and to be charged to the appropriation for Police Department, Pensions and Annuities.

Report accepted; order passed.

4. Report on the petition of Margaret A. Baldwin (referred June 11)—recommending the passage of the following:

Ordered, That under the provisions of chapter 182 of the Acts of 1930, as amended by chapter 241 of the Acts of 1930, an annuity of one thousand dollars be allowed and paid to Margaret A. Baldwin, widow of William A. Baldwin, a member of the Fire Department, who died on January 22, 1934, from injuries received in the performance of his duty; said annuity to date from January 23, 1934, to continue so long as said widow remains unmarried and to be charged to the appropriation for Fire Department, Pensions and Annuities.

Report accepted; order passed.

5. Report on order (referred June 11, 1934) for the acceptance of chapter 268 of the Acts of 1934, providing for construction of a car stop in the extension of the Boylston Street Subway under Beacon street,—recommending order ought to pass.

Report accepted; order passed.

Coun. McGRATH—Mr. President, I thought that the report of the committee would first be accepted and then the act itself be accepted, and I would like to ask unanimous consent to make a statement.

President DOWD—There appears to be no objection, the gentleman may proceed.

Coun. McGRATH—Mr. President, always in the past, or during the past seven or eight years since unemployment became one of the great problems of our city and the welfare rolls and the soldiers' relief rolls were growing to such an extent that they were bringing heavy taxes on the homes of the city, the Mayor of the City of Boston, whoever he may be, has said to members of this Council that he had a splendid way to reduce the rolls of the soldiers' relief by allowing the Transit Department of the City of Boston to build the East Boston Tunnel entrance or to build the Kenmore square station with men receiving soldiers' relief and thereby substantially reduce that amount paid out by the city. We have a splendid Transit Department and we have a man at the head of it who is known throughout this state, not alone for his honesty but for his ability to carry through an engineering plan with soldiers' relief help as few men in the state could do it. Not having the same information from his Honor the Mayor as we had received from other mayors there were those of us in the Council who believed that we at least were entitled to know whether some private contractor who would hire aliens from within or without the city, who couldn't even speak the English language, would build this tunnel, or men who had rendered service in the World War would build this station, and we appointed a committee of the gentlemen from Ward 4 and Ward 21 to visit his Honor the Mayor, and we were astounded to learn that he didn't even know anything about the matter. How could he say what he was going to do on something that he knew absolutely nothing about? Now there are those of us who know that he went to his Excellency the Governor and asked him not to sign this, so he did know, sir, he has full knowledge that a certain contractor in this city will be favored and that this man will employ aliens on the job, and I want to say to his Honor the Mayor, and to you, Mr. President and the other members of this Council, who vote for this matter today,—and I understand it will go through,—and I have no objection and because of the gentleman who represents the ward it is in, I would like to vote for it today, but, sir, every member of this Council who votes for this matter today when men come to their door and ask that they be employed on this project, don't turn to them and say you cannot help any. When they see other men, not residents of Boston, but aliens who are taking the places of men who offered their lives and sacrificed for this country, don't say that you know nothing about it because, Mr. President, you and every member of this Council and his Honor the Mayor, when you vote for this bill today, you are voting without knowledge, you are voting away the right of these men on soldiers' relief to work for an honest day's pay rather than be forced to go up there and accept charity. You are voting for a pig in the bag. The only man who has knowledge of what contractor will build it is the Mayor and he refuses you and the other members of this Council that information and on behalf of those men, fathers of families, Boston residents, American citizens, who could get off the charity rolls and get an honest day's pay, I make this protest against this matter going through with the members of the Council denied the information which his Honor the Mayor possesses.

Coun. WILSON—I ask unanimous consent to make a statement. In line with the councilor from Ward 13, I must admit, having in mind the fact I want to vote with Councilor Agnew, who has worked so hard on this proposition, I was puzzled today when the committee from the Council requested the chief executive of the city definite advice and affirmative advice to the effect that the Transit Department, which, with the East Boston Tunnel now completed, is laid off and done, would construct this $300,000 job. I listened to the facts and figures presented to us by Mr. Sullivan and by Mr. Dana of the Elevated and I was impressed with the fact that this improvement in this section costing $300,000 would mean an operating expense of only $15,000, of which the City of Boston would stand only 82 per cent, or a charge of $12,300, and the argument advanced by Councilor Agnew to the effect that one hundred or two hundred adjoining property owners had stormed the State House requesting this particular improvement. I wouldn't assume they could consistently after it is built, object to a fair and equitable increase in the assessments in that section which would easily make up the $12,300 of interest requirement that the city will need to pay after it is built. I am surprised that the Mayor, who we were told had asked the Governor not to sign this particular proposition, would refuse to tell us either that he would not allow the Transit Department to build it or at least admit he knew something about the proposition and, voting as we are today, I refuse to go forward without offering an order, which I now propose to offer, ordering his Honor the Mayor to instruct the Transit Department of the City of Boston to construct the proposed car stop in the extension of the Boylston Street Subway, if, as and when approved by himself and by the directors of the Boston Elevated Railway Company. I believe on the figures given by Colonel Sullivan if the City of Boston advances this money we should have some confidence in Colonel Sullivan who has assured us there would be 200 civil service employees, citizens of Boston, working for nine months, rather than see this job go out on contract to alien, nonresident labor, and so after this is out of the way I am going to offer this order which I have mentioned ordering the Mayor to instruct the Transit Department to construct the car stop in question.

Coun. AGNEW—I want to be brief on this matter, especially because I happen to be the proponent of this order in asking the Council to accept this legislative act. It is purely of municipal benefit and hearsay evidence never holds water anywhere and it should not among the members of this Council, and it is merely hearsay evidence of what the Mayor or the Governor had to say about this matter. I believe in the Mayor when he says this is the first time it came to his attention as far as the order being presented to him. I have never said anything to the Mayor up to the present time and feel that it is the Council's duty at the present time to improve this particular section of Boston. I have talked on this particular order in executive session until I am about dry and I want to be brief and when a member of the Council stands on the floor and says he has absolute knowledge that the Mayor did this, that or the other thing with the Governor, it is entirely unfounded. I ask the members of this Council to feel with me in this particular order as I feel with them. It is a municipal benefit to the particular district, that the people in this particular district are in need of and I ask this Council to give this particular matter its most careful consideration and pass it today.

Coun. ROBERTS— I have been interested in this particular matter for some time and my district is somewhat affected by this particular situation. The place where this proposed subway entrance is to be erected would accommodate a great many people, and there is dire need for the subway station at the present time. The only difficulty with the present situation is we are called upon to accept an act without knowing how much money is going to be spent and how it is going to be spent. I was surprised personally to have the Mayor say, although the Legislature passed the bill involving $300,000 in which the City of Boston was vitally interested, that he knew nothing about the provisions of the bill except what he had read in the newspaper, and then he said with regard to the particular phase of what he had read in the paper he had heard agitation of the nature mentioned and nothing further. He said, "I am not prepared to say whether the work, if I do approve it, would be done by the Transit Department or a contractor." Now, that is the most far-fetched proposition the Council has ever voted on. There has never been an order where we didn't know how much money was going to be spent and who was going to do the work. We are obliged to rely in the matter on his judgment, but I feel the Council should pass it because, under the leadership of the councilor from Ward 21, the district is entitled to the improvement.

Coun. GALLAGHER—The act reads "the Transit Department of the City of Boston, hereinafter called the Transit Department, shall construct part of the extension of the Boylston Street Subway under Beacon street in the City of Boston." The act reads that the Transit Department shall construct it.

6. Report on petition of Margaret Gustin (referred March 19, 1934), to be paid an annuity on account of the death of her husband, William M. Gustin,—that no further action is necessary.

Report accepted.

7. Report on petition of Mary S. McNamara (referred January 29, 1934), to be paid an annuity on account of the death of her husband, Bernard F. McNamara,—that no further action is necessary.

Report accepted.

CAR STOP IN BOYLSTON STREET SUBWAY.

Coun. WILSON offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be, and he hereby is, requested to instruct the Transit Department of the City of Boston to construct the proposed car stop in the extension of the Boylston Street Subway, if approved by the Mayor and by the directors of the Boston Elevated Railway Company.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

CONFIRMATION OF APPOINTMENTS.

President DOWD—The Chair will call up No. 3 on the calendar and appoint Coun. Gallagher and Selvitella to receive, sort and count the ballots.

Yeas 17, nays 0, and the appointments were confirmed.

Coun. GOLDMAN called up under No. 1, of unfinished business, the name of Henry G. Dahlquist, Robert C. Mains.

President DOWD appointed Coun. Fish and Doherty to receive, count and sort the ballots.

Yeas, 17, nays 0, and the appointments were confirmed.

INFORMATION RE ELIZABETH PEABODY SCHOOL.

Coun. FITZGERALD offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to confer with the School Committee in an effort to obtain the following information:

How many school rooms are occupied in the Elizabeth Peabody School on Poplar street, and whether this school can be abandoned and the pupils transferred to another school, and the structure razed, and the land turned over to the Park Department for a small playground.

Coun. FITZGERALD—Mr. President, one of the difficult things to contend with in the West End, and other parts of Ward 3, including the North End and the South End, is the great need of small breathing spaces or playgrounds so that the smaller children will have playgrounds of their own and thereby kept off the streets which in these days are so dangerous on account of automobiles. It is a sad situation on a hot day to see these little tots playing on the sidewalks and curbstones of streets and it is a wonder that the mortality is not greater than it is. In parts of Boston, such as the ward which I represent, there are old tenement houses that are beyond repair, there are old schools which are hardly worth remodelling, and these structures could be very readily removed and the land used for purposes that will make these districts more healthful and beautiful to live in. I wish it were possible for the city each year to do something for these districts which are mainly occupied by tenements and multi-family houses, and this applies I might say not only to Ward 3, but also to Charlestown, lower East Boston, and Roxbury, out almost as far as the Jamaica Plain line.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

USE OF BASEBALL DIAMOND ON BOSTON COMMON.

Coun. FITZGERALD offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to allow the baseball team known as the Boston Agawam A. A. to use the baseball diamond on Boston Common one evening a week.

FURNISHING SAFE WATER FOR RESIDENTS OF BAY VIEW SECTION, SOUTH BOSTON.

Coun. KERRIGAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to take such immediate steps as may be necessary to furnish clean and safe water for the use of residents in the Bay View section of South Boston, and to inform the City Council as to what action he proposes to take in the matter.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

THADDEUS KOSCIUSZKO CIRCLE.

Coun. KERRIGAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Park Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to name the traffic circle at the intersection of Columbia road, Old Colony avenue and the Strandway, Thaddeus Kosciuszko circle, in commemoration of the services rendered by this Polish patriot during the Revolutionary War.

In connection with the order Coun. KERRIGAN offered the following statement:

Thaddeus Kosciuszko was born in Poland on February 12, 1746. He was educated in the schools of Poland and later attended a military academy in Warsaw, subsequently continuing his studies in Paris, France.

He became an accomplished commander and a high grade military technician and engineer. He became interested in the fight that the American colonies were making for liberty and independence. Kosciuszko came to America in the summer of 1776 and was one of the first Europeans to take up arms in the defense of America. He did not come to this country for the pleasure of fighting the English, but for the noble joy of contributing to the glorious conquest of human liberty.

Kosciuszko's enlistment brought other Polish volunteers to America. His initiative in service and, more particularly, his loftier and more rugged spirit seemed to be better suited to the new times and the new world.

He spent six years fighting in the Revolutionary War and he contributed substantially to its successful termination. His services at Saratoga contributed materially to the victory of that campaign, which resulted ultimately in the recognition of America by France. His work in fortifying West Point will ever remain as the finest example of engineering skill.

One hundred and fifty years ago, the American Congress conferred upon Thaddeus Kosciuszko the rank of Brigadier-General "for his long, faithful, and meritorious service."

The order was passed under a suspension of the rule.

FLUSHING STREETS IN HOT WEATHER.

Coun. DONOVAN offered the following:

Coun. DONOVAN offered the following:

Passed under suspension of the rule.

REPAIR NORTHERN AVENUE BRIDGE.

Coun. DONOVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Mayor of Boston be requested to consider the advisability of taking immediate steps to repair or replace the Northern Avenue Bridge.

Coun. DONOVAN—Regarding this order, I presented a similar order three weeks ago and up to the present time no definite action has taken place. Now this Northern Avenue Bridge has been tied up since the 26th of last December and on April 30 this body voted $375,000 for reconstruction and up to date nothing has been done. Now, there have been several serious tie-ups in that vicinity. Dorchester avenue has been closed for several weeks. Last week a fire occurred on Summer street and it will take about ten days to repair it. The business and transportation and shipping interests in that section have suffered during the past six months. Cargoes assigned to boats leaving Boston have not been put aboard on time. Consequently ships have left this port without the proper cargo consigned to them. Now the delay is that public works funds have not been made available from Washington, but I believe the Mayor should take action immediately to pay for the reconstruction of this bridge out of city funds and I am asking unanimous consent that the attached clipping be inserted in the records.

Coun. DONOVAN offered the following clipping from the Boston Globe of July 23, 1934:

"BLACK EYES" FOR BOSTON.

Business organizations as well as other citizens who have concern for the sort of impression our metropolis makes upon visitors would do well to focus attention upon the careless attitude of City Government toward vehicle transit problems.

Three weeks after the completion of the East Boston Tunnel the approaches remain unfinished; yet they should have been ready simultaneously with the opening of the tube to traffic.

What is the matter?

Last week a temporary tie up on the main bridge into South Boston caused a bad traffic jam. This harassment served to bring to public attention one of the most singular cases of official negligence of the public business in years by emphasizing the consequences of the closing of the Northern Avenue Bridge.

That bridge, which for years has been one of the most important traffic arteries leading from the city proper to a very busy section of the waterfront, has been closed since January 26. In three more days six months will have elapsed since this occurred. Yet the bridge remains closed, not a tap of repair work or reconstruction work has been done on it, and to date the public authorities have not reached final decision as to proceedure.

April 30 the City Council appropriated $375,000 for repairs. Thus far no funds have been assigned. Dickering with the Federal Government for funds goes on. Meantime several of the most valuable commercial enterprises of the city are bedevilled; steamship companies are losing freight business owing to delays in moving trucks in and out of the docks area; tourists landing there from other parts of the Nation are given disgraceful introduction to our city; and bad congestion of traffic is almost a daily affair.

Years of time, energy and thought have been devoted to the upbuilding of the Port of Boston. Only a few more weeks of this sort of thing will be needed to destroy it. No other city on the Atlantic seaboard would tolerate this mishandling of public convenience and necessity to which delayed tunnel approaches, bridge tie ups and the like testify daily hereabouts.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

exceeding one thousand dollars, as may be necessary for the foregoing purpose, to be charged to the Reserve Fund.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

RE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY.

Coun. GOLDMAN offered the following:

Whereas, The Catholic, Protestant and Jewish denominations have joined hands in the movement to safeguard the morals of the public, particularly young children, by demanding that the motion picture industry produce clean motion pictures; and

Whereas, All of said denominations are strongly opposed to the present so-called "block system" of distribution of said films to the motion picture theaters throughout the country; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the members of the Boston City Council heartily endorse the movement to ban unclean or immoral motion pictures, the presentation of which would tend to injure, destroy, or offend the morals and decency of the general public.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

CITY RECORD

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 26. SATURDAY, AUGUST 11, 1934. No. 32

BOSTON'S SCHOOL BUILDINGS BEING COMPLETELY RENOVATED, REPAIRED AND MADE READY FOR ARMY OF PUPILS RETURNING TO STUDIES IN FALL — UNDER DIRECTION OF MAYOR MANSFIELD SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS WILLIAM W. DRUMMEY HAS FORCE OF 2,100 MEN AT WORK PAINTING, PLASTERING, REPAIRING AND OTHERWISE COMPLETELY REFURBISHING STRUCTURES AT A COST OF APPROXIMATELY $200,000, TAKING ADVANTAGE OF E. R. A. SERVICES TO GET WORK DONE AT MINIMUM COST BUT FOR GREATEST GOOD.

When the Boston public schools open for the new year, in September, there will have been completed, under the direction of Mayor Mansfield, through the Department of School Buildings under Superintendent William W. Drummey, one of the most complete jobs of renovation and repairing of schoolhouses that the city has ever known.

Work has been going at a driving pace all the summer, and even before school ended, in order to have every building ready for occupancy after complete repairs, painting and overhauling. Superintendent Drummey has had a force of 2,100 men at work, 600 of whom are of the E. R. A. forces and the remainder citizens of Boston who otherwise would have been without employment. Aside from the E. R. A. men the work is being done under contract. Directly in charge of all the work is Charles E. Cadigan of the Department of School Buildings, and it is estimated that when the work has been completed the city and the E. R. A. will have spent $200,000 in the refurbishing of the buildings. Almost every building used for school purposes will have been renovated and repaired.

Among the buildings on which much work has been done are the painting of the Public Latin School at a cost of $15,000 approximately; the Dorchester High School for Boys and the Dorchester High School for Girls at a cost of $10,000 each; Gilbert Stuart School, the John Winthrop School, the Frothingham, Donald McKay, the Quincy School on Tyler street, the Andrews School, the Jamaica Plain High School, High School of Commerce, Boston Clerical School, Memorial High School for Girls and Memorial High School for Boys, South Boston High, the Lucretia Crocker School, the Martin School, the Simonds School, and many others.

In this work of renovation there have been employed plasterers, carpenters, painters, masonry and marble workers, and all the other trades that enter into construction work.

One of the commendable features of the work was the expenditure of $68,000 during the winter, through the efforts of the Mayor and the Schoolhouse Department, when otherwise there would have been much suffering and hardship by men who had been at work thrown out of employment. In this crisis Mayor Mansfield was appealed to and the city, through the Department of School Buildings, provided the sum for the continuance of the work as a humanitarian measure. By these efforts many families that would have suffered, with their breadwinners thrown upon the street or back upon the Public Welfare, were given occupation of a gainful nature.

The work is planned to be continued until completed and Boston will have school buildings that will be cleaner, better and healthier for the children who shall be in attendance when the classrooms call them back to study in September.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"
From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

SPECIAL STEEL PIPE INSPECTOR.

The Mayor has approved the following request of the Public Works Commissioner:

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT,
BOSTON, July 23, 1934.

To the Honorable Mayor.

In connection with the 48-inch steel pipe to be furnished under P. W. A. Dockets 4212 and 7223 it is absolutely necessary that the fabrication of steel pipe lengths be followed from arrival of the steel plates at the pipe plant to the final testing of said steel pipe. For this reason it will require the services of an inspector skilled in the fabrication of steel pipe and also in the installation. We have no employees in the Public Works Department who have ever done this type of inspection or have this requisite training.

There is a Mr. Edward Lang, 206 Princeton street, East Boston, who has had a very varied experience, both in the pipe plants and also in the installation of steel pipe for various contractors who have installed steel pipe in the Metropolitan District Commission and also in the City of Boston. I think, without question, that he is fitted in every detail to do this work of inspection and I respectfully request your permission to enter into a contract with Mr. Lang for his services and equipment, for a period of three months at the rate of $250 per month. It would undoubtedly take at least three months to have the Walsh Holyoke Foundry Company fabricate the pipe and I would suggest that the contract be made only for the three months with a privilege of renewal of a second contract if Mr. Lang's services are needed beyond the three months. This contract to be operative on August 1, 1934.

Respectfully,

C. J. CARVEN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT BUYS TRAFFIC TUNNEL TICKETS.

The Mayor has approved the following request of the Public Works Department Commissioner:

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT,
BOSTON, July 28, 1934.

To the Honorable Mayor.

The Superintendent of Mails, Boston Post Office, has asked that serious consideration be given to their request that they be allowed to purchase tickets for use in the Sumner Tunnel; said tickets to be purchased by the Post Office Department in advance as an accommodation and to be paid for at the regular toll rates.

I can easily see where the Postal Department cannot advance twenty-five cents to their mail truck operators every time a trip is made through the tunnel.

To advance every opportunity to sell the tunnel's use to the public and to satisfy such requisitions I can see no objection in certain cases to sell tickets at the regular toll rates.

Subject to your approval I shall notify the Post Office officials that a requisition for tickets at the rates established will be honored. Payment to be made in advance of any delivery of tickets.

Respectfully,

C. J. CARVEN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, July 30, 1934.

Special meeting of the City Council held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 p. m., President DOWD in the chair. Absent, Coun. Green, McGrath, Shattuck and Wilson.

CALL FOR MEETING.

The meeting was held pursuant to the following call:

Boston City Council,
Council Chamber,
City Hall, July 25, 1934.

To the Members of the City Council.

You are hereby requested to assemble in the City Council Chamber, City Hall, on Monday, July 30, 1934, at two o'clock p. m., to take action on the loan order of $84,000 for the repair of the Chelsea Bridge and for such other business as may come before the meeting.

Respectfully,
JOHN F. DOWD, President.

Placed on file.

CLEANING OF CATCH-BASINS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 30, 1934.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—In the belief that money may be saved for the city by having all catch-basin cleaning performed by the personnel of the Sewer Division of the Public Works Department rather than by contract, I have discussed the various aspects of this change in method with the Commissioner of Public Works. The commissioner feels it would be advantageous for the city to make the change but states that before so doing it will be necessary to purchase additional machinery, since the Sewer Division is at the present time not completely equipped to take over this entire project. The commissioner states that money which was originally appropriated for contract cleaning may be very well transferred for this purpose. I accordingly submit an order providing for the transfer of $25,000 from the Sewer Division budget item for catch-basin cleaning to the item for motor vehicles.

I respectfully recommend adoption of the aforesaid order.

Respectfully,
FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
July 30, 1934.

To His Honor the Mayor.

In order to comply with your instructions that the Public Works Department should undertake the work of cleaning catch-basins by the department force instead of by contract, it will be necessary to purchase some additional machinery.

I respectfully recommend that the following transfer be made in the budget of the Sewer Division: $25,000 from B-18, Cleaning to C-4, Motor Vehicles.

Yours respectfully,
C. J. CARVEN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Approved:
CHARLES J. FOX,
Acting Budget Commissioner.

Ordered, That under authority of chapter 261 of the Acts of 1893 the City Auditor be, and hereby is, authorized to make the following transfer in the appropriation for Public Works Department, Sewer Division:

From the appropriation for B, Service Other than Personal, $25,000, to the appropriation for C, Equipment, $25,000.

Referred to Executive Committee.

TRANSFER OF FUNDS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 30, 1934.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I have been requested by the City Auditor to submit to your honorable body an order providing for the transfer of $1,000 from the personal service item in the Budget Department budget to the service other than personal group in the Auditing Department. The amount to be transferred represents pay roll savings which have developed in the Budget Department because of the fact the City Auditor is serving in the capacity of Acting Budget Commissioner. The auditor informs me that he desires this transfer in order to carry out certain plans he has under way for reorganizing the work and improving the procedure of the Auditing Department.

In accordance with his request I submit herewith the necessary transfer order and respectfully recommend its adoption by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD, Mayor.

Ordered, That under authority of chapter 261 of the Acts of 1893 the City Auditor be, and hereby is, authorized to transfer:

From the appropriation for Budget Department, A-1, Permanent Employees, $1,000, to the appropriation for Auditing Department, B, Service Other than Personal, $1,000.

Referred to Executive Committee.

APPROPRIATION TO COVER INTEREST.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 30, 1934.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am advised by the City Auditor that it will be necessary to include in the tax levy of the current year, an appropriation of $22,750, said appropriation to cover interest requirements on Series B, East Boston Traffic Tunnel bonds, which have and will accrue in the period between the opening of the tunnel and October 1, the latter date representing the actual date on which semi-annual interest payments on the bonds in question must be met.

The construction of the East Boston Traffic Tunnel was authorized under chapter 297 of the Acts of 1929. Under the provisions of this act the city was authorized to issue, in connection with the construction of the tunnel, bonds to the amount of $16,000,000. In 1932 the Legislature passed an act (chapter 287) authorizing street and other traffic improvements in the vicinity of the Boston terminus of the tunnel. In connection with these improvements an additional issue of $3,000,000 in bonds was authorized, the same to be known as Traffic Tunnel Bonds, Series B.

Under the provisions of this latter act, at the end of one year after the entire tunnel was in operation, a supplemental sinking fund was to be established out of the excess tolls and charges which remained after all operating costs excluding interest on Series B bonds had been met. This supplemental sinking fund when established was to be used first, for the payment of interest on Series B bonds, and second, for the payment of the principal of such bonds as they became due. In short no provision was made by the Legislature for the payment of interest on the $3,000,000 issue of Series B bonds accruing after the tunnel had been placed in operation, but prior to the establishment of the supplemental sinking fund.

On October 1, 1933, $2,000,000 of Series B bonds was issued by the city. On October 1 of this year a semi-annual interest payment of $45,000 will be due on these bonds. Under the provisions of chapter 287 the portion of this interest accruing prior to the opening of the tunnel on June 29 will be charged against the cost of construction of the tunnel. That portion accruing after June 29 and up to October 1, which is estimated by the City Auditor to be $22,750 since it cannot be paid from the operating income of the tunnel, must be provided for from the only other available source, namely, taxes.

I accordingly submit, herewith, the appropriation order to cover this item and respectfully recommend its passage by your honorable body.

Respectfully,
FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD, Mayor.

Ordered, That to meet the current expenses payable during the financial year beginning with the first day of January, 1934, for performing the duties and exercising the powers devolved by statute or ordinance, or by vote of the City Council during the year, upon the City of Boston or County of Suffolk or the departments or officers thereof, the respective sum of money specified in the table hereinafter set out be, and the same is, hereby appropriated for the purpose hereinafter stated, that the same be raised by taxation upon the polls and estates in the City of Boston, and that all orders heretofore passed by the City Council relating to appropriations and taxes and the interest thereon apply to the taxes herein provided for:

Traffic Tunnel Bonds, Series B, Interest, $22,750.

Referred to Executive Committee.

LOAN FOR CHELSEA NORTH BRIDGE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 30, 1934.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—The Legislature in enacting chapter 342 of the Acts of 1934, "An Act Providing for the Repair and Strengthening of the Chelsea North Bridge over the Mystic river by the City of Boston," failed to include the usual provision that the act should take effect upon its passage. This omission automatically postponed the effective date of the bill until thirty days after its approval by the Governor. This latter action took place on June 27, hence the provisions of the act were not fully effective until last Friday, July 27.

Because of this fact some doubt exists as to the effectiveness of the action of your honorable body in giving a first reading to the loan order, covering Boston's share of the cost, which I submitted at the last meeting of the Council. Despite the fact that on June 30 the Legislature made an appropriation to cover the Commonwealth's share of the cost, the best legal opinion available holds that no loan order may be authorized by Boston until the provisions of the act are fully effective.

The need for the immediate repair and strengthening of the Chelsea North Bridge is universally admitted. In order that the start of the project may not be delayed, because of legal complications, beyond the earliest date possible under the action of the Legislature, I deem it advisable to request permission of your honorable body to withdraw the loan order for this work which was considered at the last meeting of the Council. At the same time I submit herewith a similar order providing that under the provisions of chapter 342 of the Acts of 1934 the City of Boston appropriate $84,000 as its share of the cost of restoring the Chelsea North Bridge to complete use and operation. In view of the urgency of prompt action in this respect, I earnestly recommend that your honorable body give this order favorable consideration at today's meeting.

Respectfully,
FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD, Mayor.

Ordered, That under the provisions of chapter 342 of the Acts of 1934 the sum of $84,000 be, and hereby is, appropriated to be expended by the Commissioner of Public Works for Chelsea North Bridge, Repair and Strengthening, and that the City Treasurer be authorized to issue from time to time, upon request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the City of Boston to said amount, the same to be issued outside the statutory limit of indebtedness.

Referred to Executive Committee.

Coun. MURRAY—I believe we ought to give this order a first reading today because we have passed it already once. I think we ought to do that right away.

President DOWD—In view of the fact we have other matters before the Executive Committee that require fifteen votes, it will be necessary to go into executive session anyway and for that reason the reference is made. If there is any objection to the reference the order may be given a first reading. Is there any objection.

(There was no objection and said order was referred to the Executive Committee.)

EXPENSE OF REPAIRING NORTHERN AVENUE BRIDGE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 26, 1934.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I herewith transmit a letter from the Corporation Counsel, relative to your order of May 7, 1934, concerning the advisability of having a proportionate part of the expense of repairing the Northern Avenue Bridge borne by the railroad company or companies holding track rights across said bridge.

Respectfully,
FREDERICK W. MANSFIELD, Mayor.

July 21, 1934.

Hon. Frederick W. Mansfield,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—I have your request for consideration and report upon the following order of the City Council passed May 7, 1934:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested in the contemplated substantial repairs to be made on the Northern Avenue Bridge, to consider the advisability of requiring a proportionate part of the expense to be borne by the railroad company or railroad companies holding track rights across said bridge, having in mind that a very substantial part of the heavy traffic over the bridge consists of railroad freight, as approximately 28,000 freight cars utilized said bridge during the past year.

I understand that the Board of Street Commissioners by an order approved by former Mayor Andrew J. Peters on March 11, 1918, granted to the Union Freight Railroad Company "the right to conduct, maintain and use a track for the transportation of freight by steam power" over a certain location of which the Northern Avenue Bridge is a part, and that the only conditions contained in the grant are as follows:

"The right to lay down the tracks located by this order is upon condition that the whole work of laying same, the form of rail to be used, and the kind and quality of material used in the paving of said tracks shall be under the direction and to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Public Works, and shall be approved by him, and that safety devices to be approved by said Commissioner of Public Works shall be installed by the said Union Freight Railroad Company at the approaches to both ends of the draw.

"Also upon condition that the said railroad company shall accept this order, and shall file such acceptance with the Board of Street Commissioners in accordance with statute law, otherwise it shall be null and void."

I also understand that on the same date the Board of Street Commissioners, with the approval of the Mayor, passed certain regulations with reference to the time and extent of use of said tracks and that the Union Freight Railroad Company filed with the Board of Street Commissioners acceptance of said grant and regulations on May 13, 1918.

It is also my understanding that no other railroad company has been granted the right to maintain or use tracks on the Northern Avenue Bridge.

While the right to maintain and use tracks on the Northern Avenue Bridge might have been granted on condition that the railroad company keep the bridge in repair or bear a part of the cost of its reconstruction or repair, in the absence of such a condition or statutory obligation, it is my opinion that there is no such obligation.

See The Western Paving and Supply Co. v. The Citizen's Street Railroad Co., 128 Ind. 525 (1891.)
State ex rel. v. The Corrigan Street Railway Co., 85 Mo. 263 (1884.)
Elliot, Roads and Streets (4th ed.), Sections 1051 and 1056 and cases cited.
Elliot, Railroads (3d ed.), Section 1442 and case cited.

No statute has been found after diligent search, which, in my opinion, imposes any obligation upon the railroad in question to repair or to contribute to the cost of the repair in question.

It is, therefore, my opinion that there is no obligation on the part of said railroad company to bear any part of the expense for the reconstruction or repair of said bridge.

See in this connection Boston v. Union Freight Railroad Company, 181 Mass. 205 (1902) in which it was held that there could be no recovery by the city against the same railroad company for repairing portions of Atlantic avenue and Commercial street occupied by the tracks of the company, on the ground that the company had no obligation to keep any part of the streets in repair in view of the provisions of chapter 578 of the Acts of 1898 (now section 89 of chapter 169 of the General Laws (Ter. Ed.).

Very truly yours,
HENRY E. FOLEY,
Corporation Counsel.

Placed on file.

REINSTATEMENT OF INSPECTORS.

Coun. FISH offered the following:

Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to reinstate the inspectors that were laid off in the Public Works Department.

Coun. FISH—In view of the fact that the Mayor is going to reinstate the building inspectors on or about October 1, I sincerely hope that he will consider the advisability of reinstating the inspectors in the Public Works Department who were laid off at the same time.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

CONFIRMATION OF APPOINTMENTS.

Coun. GOLDMAN called up, under No. 1 on the calendar, the appointment of William A. Glynn (submitted by the Mayor April 16, 1934) as a Constable authorized to serve civil process.

Coun. GOLDMAN called up, under unfinished business, No. 3 on the calendar, viz.:

3. Action on appointments submitted by the Mayor July 23, 1934, of Constables connected with official positions and without authority to serve civil process, as follows:

James A. Malloy, Robert E. Scott, David I. O'Connor.

Coun. GOLDMAN called up, under unfinished business, No. 4 on the calendar, viz.:

4. Action on appointments submitted by the Mayor July 23, 1934, of Constables authorized to serve civil process, as follows:

Salvatore Maffei, Max Rabinovitz, Abraham Bornstein, John Ruggiero.

The Chair called up, under unfinished business, No. 5 on the calendar, viz.:

5. Action on appointments submitted by the Mayor July 23, 1934, of Isaac Wilensky, Rubin Wilensky, William L. Warnock, John Jamgotchian, to be Weighers of Coal, and William W. Kee, Emil Cacace, John Jamgotchian, to be Weighers of Goods.

The question came on confirmation. Committee, Coun. Finley and Fitzgerald. Whole number of ballots 14; yeas 14, and the appointments were confirmed.

RECESS.

The Council voted at 2.45 p. m., on motion of Coun. GOLDMAN, to take a recess subject to the call of the Chair. The members reassembled in the Council Chamber and were called to order by President DOWD at 3.30 p. m.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. GALLAGHER, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

1. Report on message and order (referred today) for loan of $84,000 for repairs to Chelsea North Bridge—recommending that same ought to pass.

2. Report on message and order (referred today) for appropriation of $22,750, to cover interest requirements on Series B, East Boston Traffic Tunnel bonds—recommending that same ought to pass.

3. Report on message and order (referred today) transferring $25,000 from B-18, Cleaning, to C-4, Motor Vehicles—that same ought to pass.

4. Report on message and order (referred today) transferring $1,000 from Personal Service item in the Budget Department to Service Other than Personal in the Auditing Department—recommending that same ought to pass.

President DOWD—The question comes on acceptance of the report of the committee on all four orders.

Coun. ROBERTS—I would like to have those items separated. I would like to have the item of $25,000 for transfer from Public Works Department voted on separately.

President DOWD—Unless there is objection the Chair will order that the item of $25,000 be voted on separately. If there is no objection to the other three items, the question comes on the passage of the other three orders and the clerk will call the roll.

Coun. ROBERTS—Is that on the $25,000 order?

President DOWD—On the other three orders.

The reports were accepted and the orders were passed, yeas 18, nays 0.

President DOWD—The question now comes on the passage of the $25,000 transfer.

Coun. ROBERTS—I don't know whether this transfer has any merit or not, but I don't think we have enough information to vote on it today. The Public Works Commissioner was here today and couldn't tell us how much money was to be spent for equipment and whether or not the work usually done by contract will now be done by labor of the Public Works Department, and if so, whether any of the old employees will be reinstated or new names taken from the rolls of the Civil Service, or whether the work will be done by the Welfare. Therefore, in the absence of this information, I move at this time that this transfer lay on the table.

The motion was carried to lay on the table.

ARC LIGHT ON WEST THIRD STREET.

Coun. DONOVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install an arc light on West Third street, near E street, adjoining St. Vincent de Paul's Church, Ward 6.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SIDEWALKS ON WEST THIRD STREET.

Coun. DONOVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along West Third street, entire length, both sides, Ward 6, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of granolithic, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

RE HOSPITAL COUNCIL.

Coun. NORTON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Mayor of Boston, through the Trustees of the Boston City Hospital, be requested to consider the advisability of a "Hospital Council" for Boston so that private hospitals giving free service to citizens of Boston would cooperate with city hospitals and thereby coordinate the work.

Coun. NORTON—I understand that among the hospitals in Boston, in so far as free service is concerned, out-patient or ward, there is no co-operation whatever. That is to say, a patient can go to the Massachusetts General and to the Beth Israel and then to the City Hospital. It seems we should have a cooperative body in order that these various hospital units can cooperate instead of entering into what is known as competitive spirit.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

STUDY OF LOCATION OF VOTING BOOTHS.

Coun. NORTON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Election Commissioners, through his Honor the Mayor, be requested to consider the advisability of having a study made of the present location of voting booths in Boston with a view to relocating many of them in the interests of the convenience of voters.

Coun. NORTON—There is time between now and the primaries in September to have a study made of the location of voting booths and precincts in Boston. A man living near Cleary square, Hyde Park, is living across the street from a voting booth, but he has to go to the Fairmont School to vote. In Charlestown within 400 yards there are fourteen voting precincts and booths. Now, they may be necessary, but in certain sections where they have so many there may be a question as to whether or not that number is necessary and out in the suburban areas where people have to walk, due to the poor location of the booths, a mile or more in order to vote, it would seem there is an opportunity here to save money for the city and also to obtain a higher percentage of citizens who would vote by the proper location of the voting booths.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

REPAVING CUMSTON PLACE AND CUMSTON STREET.

Coun. GLEASON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to repave with smooth pavement Cumston street and Cumston place, Ward 9.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SIDEWALKS ON CUMSTON STREET.

Coun. GLEASON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along Cumston street, entire length, both sides, Ward 9, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of granolithic, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SIDEWALKS ON CUMSTON PLACE.

Coun. GLEASON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works make a sidewalk along Cumston place, entire length, both sides, Ward 9, in front of the estates bordering thereon; said sidewalk to be from 3 to 10 inches above the gutter adjoining, to be from 5 to 12 feet in width, and to be built of granolithic, with granite edgestones, under the provisions of chapter 196 of the Special Acts of 1917.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

ANONYMOUS LETTERS.

Coun. GOLDMAN offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor instruct the Overseers of the Public Welfare that the status of Welfare recipients shall not be affected by the receipt of anonymous letters informing the Welfare Department of financial resources of such recipient.

That the Welfare Department act on such cases only when the facts contained in such anonymous letters have been proved to be true.

Coun. GOLDMAN—I am introducing this order in order to prevent injustices which have been practised upon the Welfare recipients. If anyone has a complaint against a Welfare recipient or dislikes him, all he has to do is write a letter to Dowling saying he is a crook and the welfare is stopped, and some ten, twelve or fifteen weeks may elapse before the department determines whether that letter is worthy of attention. I think it is unfair and it has been called to my attention at least in eight or ten cases where a landlord has not gotten his rent on time and has made certain charges against a tenant and as a result they stopped immediately his welfare. The doctrine of presumption that a man is guilty on receiving such a communication seems to be in Dowling's mind. If he gets a complaint, whether true or untrue, aid stops. In the meantime hardship falls upon the members of that recipient's family and I ask permission of this body to have this order passed at this time.

Coun. BRACKMAN—I am glad the councilor introduced this order because about three weeks ago I introduced a similar order and a reply was received by the Council that this practise was not going on in the Welfare Department. It just confirms what I originally knew,—that this practise is going on. Upon receipt of any kind of information, regardless of the source, apparently, a man's aid is stopped pending investigation and usually it turns out to be nothing more than an idle rumor and yet a great hardship is passed on to this family.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

REVOCATION OF LICENSE TO EASTERN MASSACHUSETTS STREET RAILWAY COMPANY.

Coun. SELVITELLA, GOLDMAN and KERRIGAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the license granted by the City Council April 2, 1934, and approved by the Mayor April 3, 1934, to the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Company to operate motor vehicles for the carrying of passengers between the Boston-Revere boundary line and the Boston exit of the East Boston Traffic Tunnel, over state highway lay-outs, Bennington street, Saratoga street, Chelsea street, Porter street and the East Boston Traffic Tunnel, be, and hereby is, revoked.

Referred to the Committee on Jitneys.

Coun. NORTON—I rise on a point of information. Just what does this mean,—referred to the Committee on Jitneys?

President DOWD—In view of the fact that the Committee on Jitneys has to give a hearing on revocation of any license already granted, the matter will have to be referred back to them.

Coun. NORTON—Is there any time limit when the committee reports back to the Council on this matter?

Coun. ROBERTS—May I say any day the Council would like to have that hearing set down, I will be pleased to set it down for a hearing, or within two weeks or so if that would be satisfactory.

Coun. NORTON—I think time is rather of the essence and I believe the sooner the better.

Coun. SELVITELLA—I ask unanimous consent to make a statement. I suppose that the members ought to be acquainted with some of the facts regarding that order. On April 2 a license was granted to the Eastern Massachusetts to use the new East Boston Tunnel to run buses through. The Revere City Council have had a series of public meetings and after those hearings were held the Eastern Massachusetts Railway Company filed a request for leave to withdraw that particular license and in view of that I feel at least that the Boston City Council ought to take concurrent action with the Revere City Council, because at those hearings it developed that the Railway Company was using this petition as a means of increasing their carfares from Revere to Boston and inasmuch as the Railway Company has already withdrawn their petition with the Revere City Council, it is of no advantage or any value to them, so we ought to take similar action when the time arrives.

REMOVAL OF SLOT MACHINES AT FIELDS CORNER STATION.

Coun. TOBIN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway Company be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to remove the automatic pay-as-you-enter slot machines at the Charles street entrance to the Fields Corner Station.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

REPAVING WEST NINTH STREET.

Coun. KERRIGAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to repave with smooth paving West Ninth street, Ward 7.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

REPAIRING OF BOSTON BRIDGES.

Coun. NORTON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Mayor of Boston be requested to consider the advisability of having the Boston Transit Commission employees cooperate in the repairing of the bridges of Boston.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

NEXT MEETING.

Coun. NORTON—When is it thought we will meet again, when we adjourn today, Mr. President?

President DOWD—That is within the province of the members of the body. It will be necessary to meet in fourteen days on the Chelsea Bridge loan order.

Coun. FISH—I move when we adjourn today we adjourn to meet two weeks from today. The motion was carried.

Adjourned, on motion of Coun. GALLAGHER, at 3.45 p. m. to meet on Monday, August 13, 1934, at 2 p. m.
